

NEWS BRIEFS

TO SOLEMNIZE MARRIAGE
Rev. J. Earle DeLong of River Glade and Rev. Emery Stairs of McAdam have been registered to solemnize marriage.

SUCCESSFUL DANCE
A large number of University students and citizens of the town attended the "Brunswickian" dance at the Royal Ball Rooms last evening. The dance was the first event of the college season. Music was supplied by the Rhythm Boys.

DIED LAST EVENING
The death occurred last evening at his home, Albert Street, of Elisha Boone, aged sixty eight years, after a lingering illness. He is survived by one son, Hazen, four daughters, Ruth, Beatrice, Stella and Ersna, all at home. The funeral will be held Thursday afternoon from the late home at two o'clock and interment will be made at Geary, Sunbury County.

NO DEVELOPMENTS
There have been no further developments in the coincident mystery, which surrounds the disappearance of Vincent Boyle, of this city, and the finding of a hat and coat on the Reversing Falls bridge, Saint John, last Friday night. Police of both cities have been investigating the matter and the relatives of Mr. Boyle refused to comment on the matter.

RIVER SLIGHTLY LOWER
The height of the Saint John River decreased three inches during the last twenty four hours, but weather conditions indicating more rains, it is expected to rise again tomorrow. At present the level of the river is quite a number of inches below the fall level of the past two years. Last year in October the river was unusually high. Due to the low level that was maintained all summer the river absorbs a great deal of water before the effect is noticed.

SUIT FOR RENT
Judgment will be given tomorrow by Magistrate Limerick in the civil suit of R. McLellan vs J. Brown Maxwell which was begun in the civil court last week and concluded this morning. The action on the part of the plaintiff is for rent which he claims is due him through a breach of contract for renting a house. Witnesses heard this morning were J. Brown Maxwell and Mrs. J. Brown Maxwell. E. Allison MacKay is attorney for the defendants while Mr. McLellan is prosecuting his own case.

CAPITAL REDUCED
Supplementary letters patent have been issued, legalizing a bye-law of the Restigouche Company, Limited, reducing the capital stock to $250,000. The reduction was affected by a vote of the shareholders cancelling as paid up capital all such amount of the capital stock of the Company now represented by its outstanding 250,000 common shares without nominal or par value as shall exceed the sum of $250,000 such amounts having been lost or unrepresented by available assets. The shares, notwithstanding the reduction made shall remain fully paid and non assessable.

AGAIN IN LEAD
After a brief rest a pen of White Leghorn hens, owned by Arthur Pringle, of Stanley, again took the lead in the New Brunswick egg laying contest last week, with 53 eggs, which scored 63.6 points. A Barred Rock pen, owned by John Moore of Scotch Lake, stood second with 54 eggs and 60.7 points. Mr. Pringle's pen has a safe lead over all competitors and is a sure winner of the contest. It has produced thus far 2335 eggs, which have scored 2687.9 points, one of the best records made in the Dominion this year.

PLEA OF GUILTY IN ONE OF THE SIX CRIMINAL CASES

Murray Curtis Pleaded Guilty to Theft of Wool

SIX TRUE BILLS
York Circuit Court Continues with King vs. Kelly

True bills were returned in all six of the criminal cases on the docket of the York Circuit Court yesterday afternoon by the Grand Jury. The first case to be tried was that of the King vs. Murray Curtis, of this city, charged with the theft of wool from the warehouse of Brown Brothers, King Street. The defendant pleaded guilty to the charge and on request of his counsel, J. B. McNair, sentence was stood over by Mr. Justice Richards until Monday at 2:30 P. M.

This morning the court continued with the second criminal case, namely that of the King vs. James Kelly, who is charged with the theft of two canoes from camps on Davidson Lake between the 1st of July and 1st of September, 1932. The camps are owned by Mrs. Joseph Trusdale, of New York. P. J. Hughes, is counsel for the accused and C. L. Dougherty is prosecutor.

Six witnesses were heard for the Crown this morning at the conclusion of the evidence the court was adjourned until this afternoon at 2:30 p. m., when the respective attorney's will present their cases to the petit jury.

Evidence
The first witness was William Scott, of the parish of Dumfries, York County. He gave evidence that he had been looking after the camps for Mrs. Trusdale for the past nine years he had found that the buildings had been broken into and that some dishes and three canoes had been stolen. A short time later he had found one of the canoes at McNally's Ferry and had taken care of it.

At a later date he saw the other two canoes at Jack Russell's sporting camps at Ludlow and identified one of them positively, a Sponson canoe, as one that had been the property of his employer.

The second witness was Henry Solomon, of Perth Junction, who also had been employed at Mrs. Trusdale's camps some years ago. He identified both of the canoes which were in evidence in the courtroom. The third witness, William Scott, Jr., also identified both canoes.

Bought The Canoes
The next witness was Jack Russell, well-known guide and outfitter. He said that he had bought the Sponson canoe from Kelly in the month of August of 1932, and that he had paid $22.50 by check. The sale took place at his camps where Kelly had brought the canoe.

About two weeks later, the witness said, Kelly had approached him on a river near Doaktown with another canoe, which he bought for the sum of $37.50.

Constable David Evans, of the R. C. M. P., was the fifth witness. He gave evidence of the finding of the canoes (continued on page five)

R. T. D. AITKEN IS NEW MAGISTRATE FOR NEWCASTLE

Brother of Lord Beaverbrook; Other Appointments by Govt.

MEETING FINISHES
Moncton Creamery Under Discussion Last Evening

Among the appointments made by the Provincial Government here this morning was that of Robert T. D. Aitken to succeed Charles E. Fish, deceased, as police and stipendiary magistrate for the town of Newcastle. Magistrate Aitken is a brother of Lord Beaverbrook and a native of the North Shore where he has played a prominent part as a lawyer in the affairs of the community.

The government meeting will conclude this afternoon. There are some other matters, mostly of a routine nature that will be considered by the meeting before its adjournment.

Other appointments announced by Premier Tilley this morning were: Nathaniel J. Hitchcock, Mortonville, Victoria County, as Justice of the Peace; F. H. Lewis, Sussex, cheese factory inspector, as auctioneer of the sale of cheese products; Leslie Slipp, Devon, as coroner for Devon; J. Fred Edgett, re-appointed chairman of the Moncton School Board; George A. Speedy, Harvey Station, Auctioneer.

Moncton Creamery
At the meeting last night the Moncton Co-operative Creamery Company was discussed. At the request of Premier Tilley a delegation composed of H. M. Wood, M. L. A., Sackville, president of the Creamery and the manager, waited upon the Government. It had been brought to his attention, the Premier told the press following the meeting, that the farmers in Westmorland County had not been co-operating with the creamery to the necessary extent in regard to supplying it with dairy products.
