A TOOTHSOME PRODUCT

In commenting on a speech by Hon. Frank Carrell, delivered recently in the Quebec Legislative Council on the maple syrup industry, the Sherbrooke Record says:

"The Hon. Mr. Carrell was most illuminating in his remarks, but he placed too much reliance upon co-operative efforts in selling the immense market awaiting our maple tree products.

"The maple sugar industry has been fettered by too much paternalism, and had made far better progress had the Government rested its efforts solely on seeing that the article bearing our name should represent guaranteed purity.

"The cultivation of markets should be free and open, without any paternalistic efforts to hamper it beyond that single factor of purity.

"Paying bounties or making grants to any body of men is a weak way to stimulate trade. We have been producing maple syrup in Quebec for a hundred years, and the industry should be able to advance on its own impetus.

"The wholesale buyer would look after the advertising just as does the milk distributor do his own selling.

"A lithographed and numbered label can be bought in large quantities by the government and sold at cost to the owners of maple orchards.

"No license fee whatever should be charged, none whatever.

"The Quebec Government spent some $90,000 in a year in the maple sugar industry, of which $44,353 was spent in wages and expenses, and $5,513 in special grants, and $8,305 was loaned, and it will be a sweet time before the loan is repaid.

"Take the advice of Hon. H. H. Stevens, Minister of Trade and Commerce, and go out and get after the business. Britain and all the Dominions are all set with good-will and the real salesman would find a receptive atmosphere for any natural product bearing the names of Canada and Quebec.

"Very little advertising would be required, for is not the maple leaf the emblem of Canada.

"Just a little business instinct and strong salesmanship, with a few advertisements in three big London papers.

"At $2 a gallon the maple sugar bush could be made a great spring harvest."

New Brunswick is a big producer of maple products of the finest quality and there is no reason why some effort should not be put forth, along the lines suggested by the Record to procure an enlarged market in Great Britain and other European countries.

The Truro News says the assessed value of the property of the town of Truro for the year 1932 was $4,667,470.00. The bonded indebtedness of the town is $1,040.860 but there is in the custody of the Acadia Trust Company sinking funds to the amount of $468,666.44 against the redemption of these debentures. The town will pay off about $25,000 of 4 per cent. debentures on July 1st.

Minneapolis has just dug up an old ordinance which says: "No person shall appear on any public or exposed place in a state of nudity, or in any dress not belonging to his or her sex." The chief of police there says it will take care of women who desire to wear trousers. The fine is $1,000 or 90 days in jail.

One way to arouse universal public interest in better government would be to present problems in the form of jig-saw puzzle.

In an era when crime is so rampant, it's funny no one has discovered a way to cheat at jig-saw puzzles yet.

Deceased was quite well known and respected for her many fine qualities. Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Lewis Harris, of New York, and Mrs. J. W. Rushbrook, Devon; two sons, Edward Parlee, Devon and George Porter of Bangor, Maine; three sisters, Mrs. Jenny Haines, of New York, Mrs. E. D. Porter, of Portland, Maine, and Mrs. R. J. Conrad, also of Portland, Maine; three brothers, Daniel Jones, of Maine; Benjamin Jones of Houlton, Maine, and Arthur Jones, of Easton, Maine. The funeral will be held on Wednesday afternoon from the late home in North Devon. Rev. Mr. Watson will conduct the service at 2:30 o'clock and interment will be made in the Sunnybank Cemetery.

Hockey Meeting

A meeting of local hockey interests is being held in the city this afternoon. It is understood that matters relative to another season are to be discussed, and there will likely be some arrangements made to secure players. Joe Beaton and Hymie McArthur, who were with Charlottetown Abbies last winter, have signed to play with the local team next season according to report. The pair left for their homes over the week-end. Today's meeting is in the nature of a reorganization.

A DEADLOCK ARISES IN CASE OF BRITISHERS

Moscow, U. S .S. R., March 26—A deadlock has developed in the question of bail for three British subjects, employes of the electrical firm, Metropolitan-Vickers, who were arrested two weeks ago on charges of sabotage in important electrical work.

Coincident with an editorial attack in Russian newspapers on the manner in which the British press has been dealing with the arrests it was revealed that Allan Monkhouse, Moscow director for the British Company, still is under accusation along with other employes of the company here.

The public prosecutor has refused the formal telegraphic request of the British company requesting bail for the Britons despite his previous offer of release, because he said the communication contained "entirely unacceptable and unwarranted expressions of opinion that the accused men were innocent and of disapproval of their trial."

The company also had asked that bail be set for its arrested Russian employes.

CONCERNING FUNERAL COSTS

Much has been said and printed everywhere of recent years concerning funeral costs. Well, here is our answer: We have completely reorganized our system of pricing and added a number of new lines of burial caskets. In our showroom each casket bears a price-card showing the entire cost of the funeral when that type of casket is selected. Complete Funerals including Fine Motor Hearse, priced at $50, $75, $100, and upward. We give the same Careful Service regardless of the amount expended. Our equipment is the best, and our service prompt and efficient. Those who investigate, when the service of a funeral director is required, will find our prices much lower than the small country dealers, recently establishing themselves.
