Toronto Leafs Take N. H. L. Lead

Beat the N. Y. Rangers, 4-3, Armistice Night; Ottawa Senators Shut Out the Canadiens In Capital Team's Opener.

Toronto, Ont., Nov. 12—Perched at the top of the National Hockey League's Canadian Section, Toronto Maple Leafs tonight boasted victories over their play-off rivals of last spring as they looked back on an Armistice night 4-3 win from New York Rangers to add to the 6-1 triumph they scored on opening night over Boston Bruins.

Crowd-pleasing as any of the past season's meetings between the two teams, Saturday night's game furnished thrills galore as the lead changed hands twice before Red Horner's game-winning goal put the Leafs ahead for good in the last five minutes of the second period.

Excitement in plenty was furnished the 7,000-odd fans as each team was short-handed in turn in a game that saw all the scoring in the first 40 minutes.

The result was in doubt until the final bell. Lester Patrick threw Cecil Dillon and Butch Keeling on the ice in the last two minutes of the hard-hitting contest to add scoring punch to the famed Boucher-Cooks' line but Toronto held grimly to the slim margin earned when Doug Brennan was resting in the penalty box.

BLANK HABITANTS

Ottawa, Nov. 12—Ottawa Senators lifted the curtain on the National Hockey League season here last night by shutting out Montreal Canadiens, 2-0, in a game packed with thrills. Almost from the first whistle to the last the reconstructed Senators held an edge in the play and at times flashed mid-season form.

MAROONS WON

Montreal, Que., Nov. 12—Montreal Maroons defeated Boston Bruins as the Bruins dropped their second straight games, in an thrilling game, the score being 3 to 2 here last night.

RED WINGS WINNERS

New York, N. Y., Nov. 12—Detroit scored their second straight game by bouncing out the New York Americans here tonight, the score being 5-2. The Red Wings are leading the American section.

FIRST WIN OF THE SEASON

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 12—Chicago Black Hawks won their first game of the season, whitewashing out the Rangers, in a 1-0 thrilling game here tonight.

FREDERICTON CITY ENTER THE M'CURDY FINALS

Saint John, N. B., Nov. 13—Fredericton City rugby fifteen eliminated the Saint John Trojans from further play in McCurdy Cup play here Saturday when they defeated the local team, 8-0, in the second and final game of the series. Having won the first game, played in the Capital last Wednesday by a 11-0 count, Fredericton captured the round by a 19-0 margin.

Saturday's encounter was played under very poor conditions and good football was impossible. The East End grounds, scene of the tussle, was heavily covered with hard snow and the ball, shortly after the game commenced, became wet and hard.

Five of the Green and White points were registered in the first half. At the 10 minute time "Shorty" Clarke picked up a loose ball at the 20-yard line and ran in a spectacular manner to the five yard mark, where he zipped a perfect pass to Goodine, who in turn plunged across. The try was converted by Clarke from a sight angle.

Late in the final canto Kilburn crossed the line for the remaining three points.

SATAN, THE CANINE THAT SAVED VERDUN

"The dog that saved Verdun" was the proud title held by Satan a greyhound-collie mongrel, owned by a French soldier named Duvalle. The story is told by P. S. Baker in his book "Animal War Heroes," (Black). A total of 16,000,000 animals and birds were employed by all the belligerents during the Great War—cats, dogs, horses, donkeys, mules, mice, pigeons, canaries and even geese.

With regard to Satan, the small French garrison was being pounded by a German battery, ammunition and supplies were running short, and all communications were destroyed. Suddenly Duvalle saw his dog speeding towards the town. He leapt to the trench parapet to shout encouragement, and was riddled with bullets. Satan was also hit, but just managed to reach the French position.

On his collar was a message, pleading with the garrison to hold out as relief was being sent, while on his back were two panniers with a pigeon in each.

MACK BEGINS TO REUILD FOR 1934 SEASON

Philadelphia, Nov. 13—Rumor and report having traded most of the star performers to other clubs without his knowledge, Connie Mack began today to build up the Philadelphia Athletics for the 1934 campaign.

He announced that Raymond Radcliffe, outfielder and left-hand batter of the St. Paul club of the American Association, will be with his team next year. In return Mack is sending pitchers Cowell and Tony Freitas and some cash to St. Paul.

Mack also announced that he has decided to give the Toledo club of the American Association Joe Zapustis, formerly of Fordham university, for George Detore, infielder.

That's All For Now

Mack said there would be no further announcement of deals for the present. Last week he denied that "Lefty" Grove, "Mickey" Coghane, Max Bishop and other players had been sent to other clubs.

About the only player that rumor has not mentioned recently is Jimmie Foxx, major league home run champ and leading batter of the American League. Foxx is to be given a dinner tomorrow night by the home folks at Sudlersville, Maryland.

All-Star Nominee

Manager Mack said today: "I believe we have picked up a promising young outfielder in Radcliffe. He has only been playing baseball about three years. Last season he was selected on the all-star American Association team. Ira Thomas and my son, Earl, scouted him and liked his looks."

Mack also had a good word for Detore as an all-round infielder. He formerly played with Cleveland, Buffalo in the International League and last season with Toledo.

"He also was selected on the all-star Association team," Mack said. "Detore has even been a catcher during his short baseball career."

One's moral principles may be largely aesthetic. But it is something to be decent because indecency makes one sick.

The birds were released with duplicate messages giving details of the position of the deadly German battery, and begging for it to be silenced. One pigeon was killed immediately it was released but the second won through. In a few minutes shells from the French guns poured down on the enemy battery position, effectively silencing it.

NEWS OF THE ROPED ARENA

New York, Nov. 13—Joe Jacobs, manager of the former heavyweight champion Max Schmeling, arrived from Germany yesterday and announced that Schmeling would sail for the United States on Dec. 26 to launch another campaign for the world title.

"Reports that Schmeling had decided to quit the ring because of his marriage to the movie star, Anna Ondra, are completely the bunk," Jacobs said. "After watching champion Primo Carnera's pathetic performance against old Paulino Uzcudun at the outdoor arena in Rome, Schmeling is sure he can beat Carnera if he gets the chance."

Schmeling will open his American campaign at New York late in January against Tommy Loughran, King Levinsky or some other good heavyweight at the Coliseum, Jacobs said. Then he will go to San Francisco to meet Max Baer in a return match there on February 22.

Attention Jimmy!

Richibucto, N. B., Nov. 13—Johnny Nemis, of New Waterford, Cape Breton, N. S., who knocked out Bud Taylor, of Newcastle, in the third round of a scheduled 10-round bout here last Tuesday night, has tossed his hat into the ring once more for Maritime welterweights and middleweights to shoot at. According to reports from the ringside, Johnny has recovered some of his old-time form that made him the pick of the middleweight division a few years ago, and along with his years of ring experience and campaigning against some of the leading middleweights of the New England States, it would be an interesting evening for any of the younger aspirants of the leather-throwing game who climb into the same ring with the Cape Breton Italian.

While it may still seem a little unjust to some of them, it is not unlikely that the majority of Italian bachelors who were taxed to pay the expenses of the mass wedding of 2500 couples consider their freedom worth the price.

It is quite evident that the Pasadena sun glass that can concentrate sun's rays to melt steel is no object under which to take a nap, even on a cloudy day.
