OUR EARLY SETTLERS

The citizens of Fredericton fittingly observed Sunday the sesqui-centennial of the arrival in this city of the first party of United Empire Loyalists by unveiling a suitably inscribed cairn in their honor. The unveiling ceremony took place at Salamanca, near the spot where the courageous band of men and women, who had sacrificed their all in the new republic of the United States rather than forswear allegiance to the flag of Great Britain, first set foot upon the soil of what is now the capital city of New Brunswick. The local organizations which conceived and carried out the movement to honour our first English speaking settlers, are deserving of thanks as well as congratulations on the great success that attended their efforts. The splendid and durable memorial, which has been erected within plain sight of one of the most attractive residential streets of the city, will surely tell the story of heroism and sacrifice on the part of our Loyalist ancestors to future generations in a more striking manner than it can be told in any other way.

The unveiling ceremony was well carried out in all details and was a genuine treat to the large gathering of people who had assembled to witness it. His Honor the Lieutenant Governor, the Premier of the province and the Mayor of the city played a prominent part in the proceedings and were undoubtedly pleased at the opportunity to do so. Their addresses were most appropriate to the occasion, and in their tributes to the Loyalists they accurately voiced the sentiments of a grateful posterity. The part taken by units of the active militia in the impressive ceremony was highly commendable and contributed not a little to the success of the affair. The salute, participated in by both artillery and infantry of the militia, which brought the proceedings to a close, was something new for this city, notwithstanding the fact that it was a century or so the headquarters of regular troops.

The Loyalists, who settled in this city, founded educational institutions and made it the capital of New Brunswick, well deserved the tribute paid to their memory on Sunday. Just why they did not remain in Saint John is not known, but they certainly displayed good judgment in continuing on to what is now Fredericton. There were no steam propelled craft in those days and the river trip was made in a sailing vessel and one can easily imagine that the accommodation on such a craft was none of the best. It would probably not be an exaggeration to say that many of them occupied ill provided berths in the hold or forecabin. We are told that when the vessel reached Oromocto, the captain, fearing that he might be caught by ice, landed his passengers and returned to Saint John. The remainder of the journey to Fredericton had to be made in canoes, and it is to be presumed that Indians were engaged to bring the party here. Their experience after their arrival was not unlike that of the Pilgrim Fathers. They were poorly equipped to face the cold of winter, as their only shelter was by means of tents. Under the circumstances it is not surprising that the records show that the little colony suffered untold hardships, and frequently graves had to be dug in the frozen ground. The very fact that there were any survivors, when spring returned says much for the stamina of Fredericton's first English-speaking inhabitants.

THE REFUNDING LOAN

The investing public of Canada is being offered by the Federal Government today an opportunity to subscribe to a refunding loan of two hundred and twenty-five million dollars. Canadian government bonds, as everybody knows, afford a gilt-edged investment, and no doubt the present offering will be quickly taken up. The bonds to be refunded were issued during the closing year of the great war, when the country faced a national peril, and were promptly subscribed. No such situation faces the country at the present time, but we have not yet recovered from the effects of that war, and there is yet need of patriotic action, and the people of Canada will not fail to rise to the occasion.

As was pointed out by Prime Minister Bennett last night in a nationwide radio address from Winnipeg, Canada has in a period of three years refunded no less than $686,000,000 borrowed for war purposes, has made the substantial saving of $6,500,000 in interest charges and the successful issue of the present loan will mean a further saving of another $2,500,000. As the Premier stated this great saving in interest charges will enable the Dominion to assist in providing for unemployment relief without adding to the public debt.

Signs of business recovery throughout the Dominion are not wanting and the time for floating a refunding loan appears to be very opportune. That the credit of Canada stands high was shown recently by the successful flotation of a loan of fifteen million pounds on the London market. This loan was quickly oversubscribed and is now being carried at a rate of interest equal to three and seven tenths per cent.

The terms of the new loan make it a very attractive investment. The bonds are obtainable in exchange for 1933 victory bonds or by cash subscription. The government has arranged with the banks to advance to cash purchasers seventy-five per cent of the amount for a period of six months.

THROUGH OUR SIEVE

Duty is not as hard in the performance as in the anticipation.

Why keep up with the Joneses? Why not be the Joneses yourself?

There is no end to time; only an end of us. That is what makes time valuable.

No man is really as brave and self-satisfied as he feels after finally having a tooth pulled.

Now they say the mind is best in youth. We thought 50,000,000 freshmen couldn't be wrong.

U.N.B. AND CITY PLAYED A 3-3 RUGBY TILT

Beatty Scored Try for City—McLenahan Ties Score With a Penalty Goal—U. N. B. Had An Edge On Play—Fights.

U. N. B. and Fredericton City opened their annual duel for supremacy in football yesterday afternoon at College Field playing a 3-3 draw before a good sized holiday crowd. It was the first home appearance of the green and white and a good number of supporters were out to view the 1933 edition of the team that barely lost out to Caledonia last year in the semi-finals for the McCurdy Cup.

The scores were made by Beatty, for the city and McLenahan for U. N. B. The former scored a try-twenty-three minutes after the opening whistle while McLenahan kicked an easy penalty goal right in front of the city stronghold.

U. N. B. had an edge on territory play especially during the second half when their superior condition and training proved a bigger factor than the weight and experience enjoyed by their opponents. Even at that, however, they were unable to cross the city goal line and did not seriously threaten to do so except on a few occasions when they managed to get inside the ten-yard line.

There were a number of fistic encounters that livened the game up considerably. During the first half a battle on the side lines broke up the game with spectators pouring all over the field. It was some few minutes before the play could continue. The players themselves mixed freely and often with no serious injuries resulting.

Both scores were made in the first half of the game. Beatty's try came at the end of a city drive that took the ball up to the five-yard line. The city scrum heeled cleanly and Beatty bucked over in the corner. Boone's attempt to convert fell short.

About four minutes later Daughney, U. N. B. three-quarter, made a nice forty-yard run to the city's five yard line where he was brought down by "Shorty" Clark. Referee Dr. Vanwart imposed a penalty on the city during the scrumpage that followed and "Bus" McLenahan kicked an easy placement from about twenty yards.

In the second half there was no scoring but Donaldson made a fine attempt at a field goal that narrowly missed going between the uprights.

The line-ups—
U. N. B.—Forwards: Hyslop, Thomas, Ogilvie, Jamer, Pond, Chalmers, Smith, White, Somers, Eldridge; halves: Pringle and C. Thomas; Three-quarters: Guimand, Daughney, McLenahan, Burke, Fradsham, Bartlett Donaldson; fullback: Hazelton.

City—Forwards: Kilburn, Currie, Thompson, Pickard, Hughes, Vaughan, Goodine, Sterling Atkinson, Jamer; halves: McLenahan, Clark, Coombes, Mills; three-quarters: McGinn, Lifford, McKnight, Beatty, Close; fullback, Boone.

Both teams used subs freely.

TO EXTEND PLANT

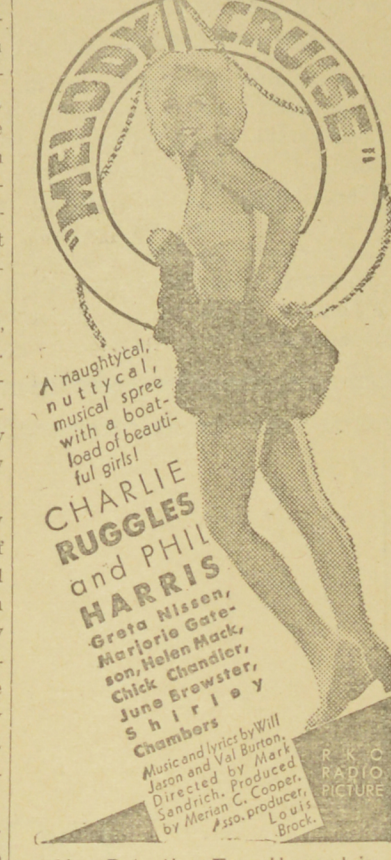

Cornwall, Ont., Oct. 10.—The unemployment problem has been solved so far as this place is concerned by an announcement that the Cortelli Silk Company will build a two and a half million dollar addition to its plant; the work will start at once and the new building will be ready for occupancy by May 1st. An increasing demand for rayon in Canada is the cause of the expansion.

THE FIRST HISTORIAN

His Worship Mayor W. G. Clark in his excellent address, delivered at the unveiling of the memorial cairn to our Loyalist ancestors, quoted from the first history of New Brunswick by Peter Fisher to show the hardships and tribulations, among our first settlers, endured. Among those who listened to the Mayor's remarks was George E. Fisher, late of Chatham, but now of this city. Mr. Fisher is a grandson of New Brunswick's first historian. The late Hon. Charles Fisher, a father of Confederation, and York's first representative in the Federal Parliament, was his uncle. The late L. P. Fisher, Woodstock's greatest benefactor, was a son of Peter Fisher.
