UNFOLDING NEW THINGS

George Matthew Adams, the well known writer and head of the Adams newspaper feature syndicate, owns a summer home on Grand Lake in Nova Scotia and no doubt finds the inspiration there for many of his articles. Recently he wrote the following, which furnishes valuable food for thought:

"Mysterious and baffling as is the unfolding of all things in nature, nothing is so marvelous in its unfolding as the human mind and heart, for these alone are able to catch the meaning and mystery behind all things created — even though, but faintly.

"I can understand the devotion and sacrifice that the investigator and inventor puts into his work. All is a constant unfolding of something new and striking—often astounding. Who can imagine the thrill that lightning-like, must have surged through the consciousness of the one who first perfected the transmission of the human voice across the waves of the air, through the medium of the radio! "What hath God wrought!" was the first message. I believe, that Morse sent over his cable across the ocean. Now that same message floats back and forth daily across the same ocean—but on the wings of the air itself!"

NO MORE HAZING

The Halifax Herald in a recent issue had the following:

Early this year members of the Senior Class at Dalhousie, the Sodas Debating Society, and the Parliamentary Procedure Club held meetings and resolved "that the policy of hazing be abolished."

This announcement met with universal approval at the time, and the public at large will be glad to learn that the terms of the resolution, passed by these prominent Dalhousie organizations are now being observed at the institution.

"There will be no more hazing at Dalhousie", it is declared—and the decision is in keeping with the trend of the times. In many parts of Canada hazing is being frowned upon, not only by university authorities, but by the students themselves, and has been abolished in several higher institutions of learning throughout the Dominion.

The apple crop in the Annapolis Valley this season is reported to be an exceptionally heavy one. Good prices have been realized on shipments to the Old Country, and the enhanced value of the pound sterling and the British preference has put apple growers in an optimistic mood. Train crews on the Dominion Atlantic Railway are now working full time as a result of increased activity in handling the apple crop.

Sixteen year old girl saw her horse fall off a cliff, land in a tree, and run away unhurt after the tree was cut, says a Rossie, N. Y., despatch. Sounds like one of Baron Munchausen's old chestnuts—but it must have been a horse chestnut.

What a good there is in Socialism must find fruition, as in the past through other political agencies. It is a significant commentary on Socialism that when a Socialist really wants to accomplish something, he first quits the Socialist party.

By letting it be known that he is willing to be identified merely as Grau, the current President of Cuba indicates that he knows that the destiny that shapes our ends is sometimes column measure.

Mosquitoes, accused of spreading encephalitis, get a Scotch verdict. The accusation is not proven. Through courageous doctors permitted themselves to be bitten by encephalitis laden mosquitoes, "it didn't take."

TO KNOW THE MEMORY OF THE EARLY SETTLERS

Brief Historical Sketch of the City of Fredericton--Has Been the Capital Since 1786.

(Contributed)

Originally inhabited by Indians, of course, as the entire North American Continent at one time belonged to the RED MAN. The first WHITE MEN in Saint Anne's Point were FRENCH. Later a few ENGLISH settlers eked out a living here, though a greater number had settled at Mauderville. New Brunswick at that time formed a part of the Province of Nova Scotia and was known as the County of Sunbury. The first United Empire Loyalists arrived in Saint John May 18th, 1783, and on October 8th, that same year, a number of Loyalists came to approximately the spot, where the memorial boulder is to be unveiled on Sunday. Owing to great differences in climates and modes of living some of their women and children, and a few of their men, died from the effects of the cold and privations encountered during their first winter here, 1783-84. These were buried in the Old Cemetery on Elmcroft property. It is entirely fitting that the last resting-place of these and of other very early settlers of Fredericton should receive particular attention at this time. We should not FORGET the OLD-TIME RESIDENTS of our community, nor utterly neglect their burial-place.

How appropriate is the nature of the monument, too, a NATIVE BOULDER, and how it brings vividly to our minds the characteristics of FREDERICTON'S EARLY SETTLERS, those who lived here under conditions so different from ours of 1933.

On the arrival of the Loyalists, it became advisable to divide Nova Scotia, because of differences which arose between them and the Pre-Loyalists, and so our own Province of New Brunswick came into being. It is approximately A CENTURY AND A HALF since three important events in relation to Fredericton:—

It was laid out.

It was Given its Name of Fredericton in honor of the Frederick, Duke of York, son of King George III.

It was designated as The Capital of New Brunswick, in 1786.

Eminently fitting, therefore, that at this time we should honor the memories of Our Early Settlers.

SEA SERPENT SEEN ON THE PACIFIC COAST

Victoria, B. C., October 5—Vancouver Island's sea-serpent, which splashed its way into prominence Wednesday, took more definite shape today as five persons hastened to say they had seen it.

Described as a vast creature, 80 feet long, greenish-brown in hue, and resembling a camel in profile, the monster has been seen on two different occasions near Cadboro Island, off Victoria.

Last Sunday Major W. H. Langley, clerk of the British Columbia Legislature and prominent Victoria barrister, and Mrs. Langley saw the serpent, they said.

Today F. W. Kemp, member of the provincial archives staff, came forward to say he, his wife, and son had seen a similar creature at the same spot in August, 1932.

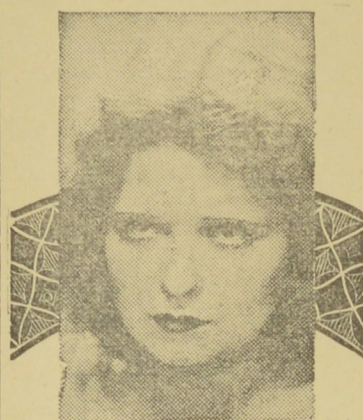

Mr. Kemp said he had not revealed the "find" because he feared ridicule and disbelief. He said Major Langley's description of the serpent—dwarfing Okanagan Lake's famous Ogopogo—tallied with his own. Major Langley said its markings somewhat resembled those of a sturgeon.
