MAN O' WAR AND GALLANT FOX BEST IN 20 YRS.

New York, N. Y., Jan. 17.—Samuel D. Riddle's Man o' War and William Woodward's Gallant Fox were two of the best thoroughbreds of the last twenty years, particularly as three year olds. Each won practically every three year old stake of consequence. In addition Man o' War won a match race against Sir Barton, the prize money helping to boost his earnings to a then record sum.

The cases of Man o' War and Gallant are somewhat similar. Man o' War was not beaten as a three year old. Gallant Fox lost only one race, the Travers, which Jim Dandy, a rank outsider won in mud knee deep at 10 to 1 after Whirlone and Gallant Fox had run themselves leg weary.

Both Gallant Fox and Man o' War were retired to the stud after their fine three year old campaigns. Man o' War immediately became a sensational sire, giving the turf such formidable thoroughbreds as American Flag, Crusader, Mars, Edith Cavell, Scapa Flow and countless other winners of stakes. Equally distinguished success as a sire seems promised Mr. Woodward's Gallant Fox inasmuch as, in his first season, he produced more than a score of foals of fine conformation and rare promise. These foals are now yearlings and ten of them wintering at the farm near Bowie, Md., the master of Belair Stud declares to be as fine as any he has ever bred.

It is a worthy fact that any man is good looking in a soldier's uniform.

Thank goodness! There's a machine to deal bridge hands and now nobody will say: "Who dealt this mess?"

Solidity of character stands wear and tear. Look at the house with the jagged trimmings, twenty-five years after-ward.

SPORT BREVITIES

Cooke Released
New York N. Y., Jan. 17.—Allan ("Dusty") Cooke, an outfielder, was released outright yesterday to the Newark Club of the International League by the New York Yankees. Newark is a Yankee farm.

Cooke, acquired from St. Paul of the American Association about three years ago, looked wonderful in the spring of 1931 and appeared to have won a place for himself in the Yankee outfield. He fell, chasing a fly ball in Washington, and injured his right shoulder so badly he was out the remainder of the season and all of last season.

In Newark Cooke may have a chance to play regularly. If his arm is all right, the Yankees may repurchase him.

Advocates Pari-Mutuels
Boston, Mass., Jan. 17.—A pari-mutuel horse race betting bill, rejected by the last Legislature was introduced into the House again today by a group of petitioners, including several well known sportsmen.

The measure calls for the creation of a state racing commission to supervise the sport, including Grand Circuit harness horse meetings for the payment to the state of 3 1-2 per cent of the total amount wagered under the pari-mutuel system and for the distribution of this money for agricultural and old age assistance purposes.

ABBIES REFUSED PERMISSION FOR TRIP ABROAD

Amherst, N. S., Jan. 17.—The Canadian Amateur Hockey Association will not grant permission for the Charlottetown Abegweits to make a tour of Europe and Great Britain. Definite word to this effect was received by Harold F. Tennant, secretary-registrar of the M. A. H. A. today in a communication from executive officials of the C. A. H. A.

Mr. Tennant explained that five Canadian teams had originally been granted permission to make an European trip, but only the Edmonton Superiors were finally allowed to go. Financial conditions in Europe were responsible in part for the cancellation of other trips by the C. A. H. A. The C. A. H. A. had discussed the jaunts at the annual meeting last year and a Maritime team had been promised consideration, but recently the C. A. H. A. took steps to defer such journeys until the season of 1933-34.

ALEX. CONNELL SOUGHT BY THE MONTREAL CLUB

Montreal, Quebec, Jan. 17.—Maroons are after Alex. Connell. Negotiations are proceeding with Frank Ahearn, Ottawa's president, but the latter wants too much so far for the Senators' veteran goal tend. A basis of agreement may be reached before long, however. Failing to get Connell, it is probable Kerr will be brought back to alternate with "Flat" Normie Smith was given a thorough "once over" last week at Windsor but he failed to impress the Maroon management. Maroons are in the market mostly for a good experienced goal tend. Noble is expected to help the defence out considerably, while Frew will be given a good chance to show his worth though no great hopes are held out in his regard. He is merely getting a tryout.

JACK JOHNSON TURNS TO MAT

Brussels, Belgium, Jan. 17.—Jack Johnson, former heavyweight boxing champion of the world, yesterday was recovering from severe bruises and physical collapse, suffered Saturday night when he was thrown from the ring during a wrestling bout with Sailor Constant of Belgium.

After grappling for a while, the burly Belgian suddenly picked up the aged negro and tossed him from the ring to the floor below. Johnson gamely tried to struggle to his feet but fainted from the shock.

BOUCHER TO COACH

Quebec, P. Q., Jan. 17.—Billy Boucher, brother of Frank Boucher, of New York Rangers of the National Hockey League has been engaged to coach two local hockey teams this season—Anglos of the Railway-Paper League and Granites of the Nationale League. Billy is a member of the Ottawa family that has given so many gifted players to hockey.

Novellists who think up outlandish names for their characters don't realize the discomfort they bring on people who are unfortunate enough to be born about that time and are given the names.

Handbook betting and similar wagering would be prohibited under the terms of the measure.

TURNING the DIAL

Carnival date has been changed to Thursday night and on Friday night the Sussex Dairy Kings, co-leaders with the Capitals, will be entertained here in a crucial game. The rink management has been laboring under adverse weather conditions for several weeks, and the thaw of yesterday was no help. It necessitated the adjournment of the much planned carnival. Even Thursday's date is a bit uncertain, depending on whether the weather turns cold again. Today the weather turned a bit cold.

"Sixty six" two-year-olds were kept eligible to the Hambletonian Stake, to be trotted in 1934, when a payment was made on January 1", says Watler Moore, harness expert, in the New York Herald Tribune. "While the number is a sharp decrease from the ninety two that qualified January 1, 1932, it is possible that similar conditions might prevail a year hence, in which case there would be no outstanding two year olds in 1933", Mr. Moore continues.

Bud Steen, veteran of many capital hockey teams of the modern era, is still going big. In fact Bud looks to be in for one of his best seasons. "Si" Keenan who came along with Bud, has not shown as well as in former years, probably due to lack of practice. These two are the most prominent of Fredericton's veteran hockey stars, spending most of their ice career in their home town.

We can think of quite a number of good hockey players for an all-Fredericton team of, say the past ten years. Many of these are former U. N. B. stars, numbering Keenan, Orlo Keen, Creighton, Jewett Bill Lounsbury Fleet, Hickson, Chalmers and numerous others some greater, some lesser. Fredericton city itself and the environs of Devon and Marysville contribute many stars, among them being "Nucker" Irvine, Steen, Young, Ed Colwell Neill, the Wade boys, (even to the generation of Ron and Jack), the Sterling brothers, the Gullivers, Billy and Currie. But this is just offhand and we have left out many others, some of them even more illustrious than we have named.

It might be a good idea to select one of these teams, just to bring before the sport fans, the wealth of hockey talent which has sprouted in this locality.

Joe Vila in the New York Sun has a word to say of the temperamental peculiarities of some major league ball players. Discussing Cy Perkins, former star receiver of the Philadelphia Athletics, he recounts: "Perkins never was a fire brand. It is doubtful if he ever was put out of a ball game in his life or ever spoke a crossword to an opposing player."

Regarding Cy's abilities Vila says: "There isn't much, if anything, that Perkins doesn't know about pitching and he is well equipped by reason of his easy way of going about his work to inspire the confidence of the pitcher entrusted to his care. He attends carefully to every detail and hammers away at every point, but he does it in a manner that never is irritating and never conducive to causing a pitcher to think, no matter how slowly he may be learning his lessons, that he is a hopeless case."

Cy Perkins avid fans here will recall was in the party of big league ball stars that the late "Doug" Black brought down here for moose hunting. The writer had the pleasure of meeting with the A's catcher, who was then second string to the meteoric "Mickey" Cochrane.

We used to worry about future generations becoming soft, but no more. Not when we think of the bond issues they're going to have to pay off.

Maybe business could economize this year by using last year's trend charts. Teh tops of them are still good.
