Premier Daladier Is Inclined to Dodge The War Debt Issue

Avoided a Definite Stand and Touched Lightly on Other Foreign Problems in His Ministerial Declaration—Makes a Strong Bid For a Vote of Confidence.

(Special to The Daily Mail by the British United Press)

PARIS, Feb. 3—Premier Edouard Daladier avoided a definite stand on war debts and touched only lightly on other foreign problems in his ministerial declaration, which was read in the Chamber of Deputies this afternoon.

The Premier based his bid for a vote of confidence on handling of domestic problems, chiefly balancing the 1933 budget.

To Settle Oil Dispute

GENEVA, Feb. 3—Great Britain and Persia agreed today to attempt to settle the Anglo-Persian oil dispute by direct negotiations between the Persian Government and the Anglo Persian Oil Company.

AN ECONOMIC DEBATE STAGED IN THE HOUSE

Co-operative Commonwealth Declare That the Capitalistic System Has Been a Failure.

Ottawa, Ont., Feb. 2—Capitalism is on trial, cried members of Canada's newest political party, the Co-operative Commonwealth Federation when they led the House of Commons today into a scholarly economic debate.

And from a far corner of the Conservative benches came the reply—it is democracy that is on trial, not capitalism, said J. E. Lawson, member for West York.

With Conservatives pounding their desks and Liberals mildly approving, the West York member asserted: "When I find in every session since I have been here, J. S. Woodsworth (C. C. F. Leader) always getting to his feet and being so concerned about a country in which there is complete state control, and find him now the leader of this new social movement, and find the utterances of his supporters lead to state control—then I think I am justified in concluding the C. C. F. is Communism. It may be Communism without the bloody revolution, Communism without what these gentlemen call bureaucratic control, but I say as a matter of fact the C. C. F. is Communism and Communism is the C. C. F."

Are Outnumbered

"Absolute rubbish", shouted member of the Labor-Progressive-United the C. C. F. banner. But they were outnumbered—when the West York member sat down Liberals joined the Conservatives in loud applause and the next C. C. F. speaker was forced to shout above the cheers that came from the Government lobby.

Henri Bourassa, Independent member for Labelle, offered some advice to the Government. "Do not raise the bogey of Bolshevism all the time", cautioned the picturesque former leader of Quebec Nationalists. The Canadian people, when new ideas were offered, would not be satisfied with denunciations—they looked for alleviation from present conditions.

"Either you have to reconstruct the competitive system and make it work or you must adopt the co-operative system—and that is all we mean by

THE MARITIME STOCK BREEDERS MEET MARCH 2

Amherst, N. S., Feb. 2—The Maritime Stock Breeders Association will hold its annual meeting in Amherst on or about March 2, according to an announcement made this evening by W. W. Baird, a member of the Amherst committee, which has worked for several years in conjunction with the Stock Breeders' Association and the Maritime Winter Fair. Mr. Baird said that a decision would be made at this meeting as to whether the Maritime Winter Fair would be held in 1933.

C. F. Bailey, Fredericton, president of the Stock Breeders' Association, will interview various departments at Ottawa, and will also meet the government representatives from Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island, who are favorable to the plan of conducting the fair at Amherst this year.

Mr. Baird intimated that New Brunswick was not favorable to continuing its grant, although a fair proportion of prize monies had been won in past years by New Brunswick exhibitors.

He declared that there was a fair chance of the fair being resumed this year, although on a slightly smaller scale.

Cup Donated

A large silver cup for annual competition in the Southern N. B. League has been donated by the Eastern Bakeries, Ltd., through the efforts of Mr. W. R. Tait who is employed in the local plant of the company. The cup was presented at a league meeting in Saint John on February 1st by G. S. Anglin, general manager of the firm. In making the presentation Mr. Anglin referred to the fact that the Eastern Bakeries had plants in each of the three cities that have teams in the league and the cup was to be known as the "Butternut Cup." Any team winning the cup for three successive seasons will be privileged to hold it permanently.

socialism", said Angus MacInnis, Labor, Vancouver South.

The capitalistic system had failed, said E. J. Garland, U. F. A., Battle River, and William Irvine, U. F. A., Wetaskiwin. It had failed on a score of points and must be replaced by a co-operative system where natural resources were developed by the people for the people.

HITLER WILL TRY TO RESTORE FATHERLAND

Guarantees That His Policies Will Succeed If He Stays in Office Four Years.

Berlin, February 2—Chancellor Adolf Hitler, who took over the cares of government four years ago, today renewed his plea for four years of power, challenging his countrymen to "crucify me or do anything else to me" if his policies have not succeeded in that time.

While he was talking to foreign newspaper correspondents, the police by his order, were raiding Communist meeting places and the homes of suspected Communists, arresting anyone implicated in the serious disturbances which have been continuing since the Hitler Government was formed.

The Chancellor interrupted a working schedule of rest to outline for the foreign press the board principles upon which he hopes to govern the country until 1937.

After 14 Years

"The other side had things all their own way for 14 years, and look at the result!" he told his visitors. "Give us four years, the legal period of a Reichstag, and then let the country sit in judgment. Let them crucify me or do anything they want to me if at the end of four years we have not succeeded."

"If I had wanted to make a campaign speech", he said, "I could have told them that by the middle of March unemployment would have been wiped out and by May the farmer would be back on his feet. You didn't hear me do that. I'm more honest than most of my opponents. I wouldn't make that kind of promise."

"Gentlemen, I never made a fire-brand speech. My speeches of even 10 or 12 years ago testify to that. Anybody who knows war as I know it knows what a tremendous waste of efforts or rather what a waste of strength it is."

Search For Peace

"We can only guess what the results of another war would be. And nobody wants peace more than I do—more than the German people do."

He spoke with tremendous earnestness. "But we must insist on equality with other nations and on our rightful place in the world. I cannot think that any patriot in any country would do any differently than we are doing for our country. Naturally my first concern is Germany."

The Chancellor's name will head the list of candidates in the various districts in the March 5 elections, he told his lieutenants at a meeting officially opening the Reichstag campaign.

Simultaneously Centrist leaders met and discussed the elections.

Saw A Snake

Newcastle Advocate: Mr. Ernest Russell of Northwest Bridge, while hauling wood on Friday, found a large snake wiggling its way through the snow just as actively as it would on the bare ground. It is also reported that a wild duck had been captured recently in the Northwest Bridge. Only for the recent snow storm we might be able to kid ourselves and call it spring.

ROOSEVELT'S PARADE WILL BE LONG ONE

New Route Decided On For the Inaugural Procession

SILK HATS WILL BRISTLE

Chief Justice Hughes To Swear in the New President

(Special to The Daily Mail by the British United Press)

Washington, D. C., Feb. 3—Silk hats will bristle like factory chimneys and flags will transform the parade route into semblance of a street fair when the Roosevelt inaugural procession swings down Pennsylvania Avenue, March 4.

After Mr. Roosevelt's indication by Chief Justice Hughes upon the broad steps of the Capitol, the dignitaries will step into automobiles and wheel away to the blare of bands.

It will be the longest mileage in history. Immediately behind the President's party there will tramp khaki-clad soldiers, sailors in blue, Marines uniformed in gaudy red, blue and gold and Coastguardsmen.

The next position is allotted to governors of states and their staffs.

Behind the silk-hat brigade will march National Guards units and representatives of citizens and reserve military training camps, and as a rear guard Knights Templar Rosess and George Washingtons representing various fraternal and patriotic organizations.

Turning off Capitol Plaza, the parade will wind down a new route, the construction of which has just been completed. It will travel on this part of Constitution Avenue for a short space and then turn into "The Avenue of Presidents" approximately at the spot where the first Bonus Army disorders occurred.

The parade is scheduled to continue beyond the White House to Twentieth Street. Usually it halts at Seventeenth, three blocks less.

This will bring it past the State and War departments Building and as far down as the square hulk of the Interstate Commerce Commission offices. There it will disband.

Sussex vs Caps

The stage is all set for another tussle with the Dairy Kings tonight. The weather is getting colder and it is expected that the ice will be in fairly good condition. Some of the fastest and most exciting games this year have been on soft ice, and, with the Caps leadership margin in the league cut down by the advancing Beavers, the local squad will be out for a win. The Sussex team is expected to arrive at six o'clock. They will make a desperate effort tonight to regain their fast diminishing hopes of a title. A win for either team will have a big effect on the outcome of the league.

(Special to the Daily Mail)

Saint John, N. B., Feb. 3—The approach of spring, heralded all too frequently by the weather this year, is beginning to be indicated by the passenger lists of Europe bound lines, and today's departure of the Canadian Pacific Liner Montcalm for Glasgow, Belfast and Liverpool, with well filled accommodation brings an almost vernal touch of Canada's year round seaport. Passengers who hail from all parts of the Dominion, and a number of whom are returning visitors from the Old Country, left Montreal last night by steamer special train from the Windsor Station at 6:45 P. M., and their embarkation will be the signal for the Montcalm's departure. Today's list will be headed by the Marquess of Zetland, whose two months' visit to the Dominion has been largely spent with Brother Masons. Lord Zetland is to join the Montcalm at Halifax tomorrow.

SALARIES OF TEACHERS ARE GIVEN A CUT

F. E. MacDiarmid, principal of Woodstock high school, reported that there would be about 79 pupils in grade 10 next year, and that this would mean the dividing of the class if satisfactory results were to be obtained.
