ANNUAL "CON" HELD TONIGHT AT UNIVERSITY

Color and Gaiety of the University of N. B.'s Big Social Affair This Evening—The Architectural Decorations.

The sixtieth annual conversation "Con" as it is popularly called, conducted by the undergraduates of the University of New Brunswick takes place this evening in the Memorial Hall.

Formerly, and up until the year of 1930 this college social event was held in the "grand" style, both public and students alike attracted hundreds here from all parts of the province. But in the year 1931, the students through their council decided to place the "Con" more within the college itself and it was made into a reception and dance for the undergraduates, with the students given the privilege of inviting a few of their friends.

Scene of Gayety

But the gaiety and festive color of the "Con" has not lost any by the change. If anything, the last few have been even more gay and decorative. Undergraduate decorators vie with each other in attempting to erect new and more beautiful scenic effects about the orchestra, and in the basement, where refreshments are served. This year, according to report, there is an architectural structure of roses and greenings that might be the envy of any Viennese carnival convener.

Harrison Morgan and his Collegians will play a program of eighteen dances and three extras for the dance. The committee in charge of arrangements is composed of James Peters, Miss Grace Olts, Gerald Griffin and J. H. More, the alter of whom is secretary of the committee.

The chaperones will be Mrs. C. C. Jones, Mrs. John Stephens and Mrs. R. H. Wright. It is U. N. B.'s big social whirl of the college season and there will likely be a number of local citizens present besides the college array.

CITY AFFAIRS

Entertainment Postponed

The entertainment by the students of the F.H.S., that was scheduled to take place in the auditorium of the High School this afternoon, has been postponed until next week. An interesting program of music, readings etc. is being planned by the students.

Died in Somerville, Mass.

The Countess of Ashburnham was in receipt of a telegram this morning bearing the sad news of the death of her nephew, W. Arthur Thompson, at his home in Somerville, Mass. Death was unexpected. He was the son of Alexander F. Thompson and Mrs. Thompson, nee Jennie Anderson, of this city and had been general manager of the Ford automobile plant in New England. The remains will be brought here for burial on Monday.

U. N. B. Debaters Lost

The U. N. B. ladies' debating team, of Miss Vesta Webster and Miss Edith Simms, both of this city, lost a decision to the University of Western Canada team, composed of Miss Marjory Penn and Miss Isabel Jordan, travelling debaters, in the High School Auditorium last evening. The visitors upheld the affirmative of the resolution, "Canada is Over-Governed." Prof. Malcolm McPherson and Rev. J. W. Bartlett were the judges and H. C. Creighton was in the chair.

CAPITAL HAS CHAMPIONSHIP BADMINTON

Play Began This Morning at Armory--Keenly Contested Play--Good Galleries--Men's Singles Play.

The capital city of the province is holding its first Maritime Badminton tournament here today and tomorrow the eleventh annual championship matches. Spectators and players from Halifax, Edmundston, Amherst, Kentville, Saint John, Sussex, Sydney and other places are congregated here today.

The matches began on the Armory floors this morning with two players reaching semi-finals in the Men's Singles events. Prof. C. W. Argue, of this city and R. Reade of Edmundston are the two players to reach the semi-finals. The two other brackets were uncompleted when play stopped for the noon-day luncheon.

Completed Early

The remainder of the Men's Singles play was arranged to be completed early this afternoon and a start made on the Ladies' Singles.

The tourney here is held under the auspices of the Fredericton Garrison Badminton Club. Consolations are to be decided at courts at the Brunswick Street Baptist Club. Play will continue this evening until 11:30 o'clock, and will resume early tomorrow morning lasting until late Saturday evening.

The tournament committee consists of the following members: Major T. C. Barker, Major H. I. Evans, Mr. E. O. Turner, Lt. Col. H. H. Ritchie, Mr. I. B. Rouse, Prof. C. W. Argue. Major Evans is the official referee. His Honor the Lieutenant Governor of New Brunswick, Hon. Hugh H. McLean, His Honor the Lieutenant Governor of Nova Scotia, and His Worship Mayor W. G. Clark, are patrons.

Spirited play marked the initial morning's play, and the third round round matches were particularly brilliant.

MORE THAN HALF OF APPEAL COURT DOCKET HEARD

Court Adjourns This Afternoon Until Next Week—Doaktown Dr. Appeals Order Involving Payment of $4372.

When the New Brunswick Supreme Court of Appeals adjourns this afternoon for the weekend, more than half of the docket of fifteen cases will be concluded. It is expected that only five cases will be heard next week, 3 of them from the Chancery Division and two that will be left over from the King's Bench Division this week. Both Mr. Justice Baxter and Mr. Justice Grimmer, regular judges on the appeal bench, will be replaced in different cases from the Chancery Division when they are appealed since they were the trial judges.

The case of Thomas Hardy, Summerside, P. E. I., vs. F. W. MacDonald, Doaktown was commenced this morning with R. W. McLellan for the defendant moving to set aside an order of Chief Justice Barry given Chambers whereby the defendant was ordered to pay to the plaintiff sums owing to the total of $4,372 plus interest. A writ was issued against the defendant on the 4th of November last and an appearing was made on the 22nd of the same month. The writ contained a statement of claim to the amount of $4,372 plus interest. J. J. F. Winslow, K. C., is arguing contra on behalf of the plaintiff.

The St. Stephen case of Mrs. Josephine Buchanan vs. Harry L. Leeman administrator of the estate of the late George L. Leeman, is being considered by the court. Mr. E. Earl B. Smith, St. Stephen, moved for a new trial. Associated with him was W. J. West, Fredericton. G. F. Nicholson, St. Stephen argued on behalf of the defendant. The action on the part of the plaintiff claiming over $2,000 from the estate was dismissed by Chief Justice Barry following certain findings by a jury on question of fact.
