SINGING STAR

Chicago, Jan. 8—Lucille Long, NBC contralto had an early ambition to be a nurse, but her father, a doctor, vetoed the idea. She then decided on singing, and made her debut during Children's Day exercises in Sunday School back in Akron, Ohio.

Her first professional job came about

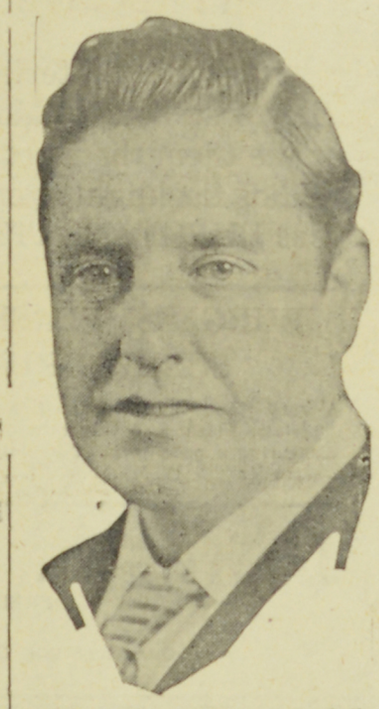

Lucille Long, NBC Contralto Heard on Many Programs From The Chicago Studios.

when she decided she was not cut out to be a book salesman. She had gone to Canada to sell books, but after three days she went to the Canadian Pacific railway and secured a position as singer and hostess on one of the excursion steamers plying from Montreal up the St. Lawrence river.

JOHN McCORMACK TO SING ON C B S

John McCormack, renowned Irish tenor, just returned from a concert tour of the British esles, will give his first recital of the year in America as guest soloist in the Five Star Theatre program over the Columbia network at 11.00 P. M., on Tuesday, January 10th.

Q—Who are Eugene and Abie in the Goldberg Shows?

A—Eugene is Curtis Arnall and Abie is Martin Wolfson.

Q—Who plays the part of Jimmy Bradshaw in the Charlie Chan mystery stories?

A—John Brewster.

Q—What is the "Revolving Stage" theme song and who wrote it?

A—"Cavalcade", by Harold Sanford.

Q—Can you give the birthdates of Ethel Shutta asd George Olsen?

A—Ethel Shutta was born on December 1, and Olsen on March 18.

"Stop Coddling Youth, College Head Warns."—Headline. Yes, but the question is, how to stop him, especially if the girl doesn't mind.

FAN FARE

Arnold Moss, who plays the role of Chancellor von Schleicher on the "March of Time", is an instructor of speech at the Brooklyn City College. The other day, he read some poetry to his class for purposes of illustration. "Say", said one of his students, admiringly, "you ought to be on the radio."

Ben Alley, CBS tenor, celebrated New Year' Eve by attending his own wedding. Promptly at the stroke of midnight Ben married his former secretary, Miss Mildred Mauger of Columbia, Ohio. Following the ceremony which was performed in the singer's Riverside Drive home, there was a gay wedding party for the bride and groom attended by many celebrities from the radio world.

A handsome West Point cadet, resplendent in gray cape and shinning buttons, stood in Columbia's reception room the other evening, teh cynosure of admiring eyes. Visitors poured out of the elevator and the eager lady with three little boys rushed up to the embryo officer.

"Please", she cooed, "let us in Studio 2 so we can see Bill Hall and the Do Re Mi girls, won't you??"

The Army hastily retreated to a less conspicuous front line position, while Columbia's own boys in grey took charge of the field.

Jack Benny, one of the Columbia's and Broadway's favorite comedians, is spending several days in Atlantic City. "I'm simply going for the walk", said Benny. "I'm going to spend the first two days counting the boards in the boardwalk and then I'll just rest."

Just before Chesterfield inaugurated its new 1933 programs over Columbia on Monday, January 2, Ruth Etting, the sunny haired songstress chosen to launch the new series, tuned Leonard Hayton's Orchestra by singing a full throated 'A' for the instrument. Maestro Hayton congratulated her on her perfect pitch.

Fred Allen, CBS Sunday night comedian, received a letter from Galena, Illinois, the other day, and here it is: "Dear Mr. Allen: Have frequently heard you refer on your programs to Joe Miller's jokes. Will you ask Joe if he is the Joe Miller I used to play with when a small boy. This Joe Miller ran away from home when he was eight years old to become a banjo player. I never heard from him again." Mr. Allen regretfully informed his admirer that he didn't think it was Joe Miller from Galena. In fact, among comedians Joe Miller is a collonialism—any old stale joke is a "Joe Miller." And the only and original "Joe" died in London in1738. He was a comic actor born in 1684, and the year after his death a famous jest book appeared with Joe Miller's name on the title page. He was never known to have written a joke, however and he has become a legendary character among the funny boys.

Stokowski and Phila. Orchestra in Special Program from Toledo

Leopold Stokowski will direct the Philadelphia Orchestra in a special musical program dedicating the new five million dollar Toledo Museum of Art during the broadcast over WABC and the Columbia network, Tuesday, January 10, from 10:30 to 11:45 P. M., A. S. T.. The program will be picked up direct from the Museum and transmitted to the Columbia network through the facilities of WSPD, Toledo, Ohio.

Bad colds are the result of civilization, says a physician. Maybe so, but one doesn't stay civilized long with a bad cold.

BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS

Rheumatism Kept Her In Bed

Mrs. W. H. Pushee, Lorenzo, Sask., writes:—"For about two years I suffered with rheumatism which kept me in bed for weeks.

A friend advised me to take Burdock Blood Bitters, so I took two bottles, and they gave me new life. I am thankful to say that I feel fine now, and have not been bothered with rheumatism since taking B.B.B."

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

Save kindling. Take large paper sacks from grocer, place in kitchen wastebasket and stuff with daily accumulation of papers, etc. When full, pile in basement like wood, and throw two or three in furnace when starting a fire.

Save left-over toast until you have a small supply. Then dry it out thoroughly in the oven (or over the radiator in winter), run it through the grinder and you will always have a supply of bread crumbs on hand .

If placed in empty coffee can or glass jar they will keep indefinitely.

Often an otherwise good pair of stockings shows a small darn above shoe top at back. For this I run a small seam in bottom of heel, which lowers the darn so that it no longer shows.

When polishing the baseboard with furniture polish or wax hold a piece of cardboard or corrugated board against the wallpaper to prevent staining.

To preserve cut left-over cheese bits place in a tightly covered fruit jar in a cool place. The cheese will keep fresh for a long time.

Rub chicken inside and out with a cut lemon before cooking. It will make the meat white, juicy and tender.

PRUNE BAVARIAN

2 4 1-2 ounce cans or
2 1-4 cups strained prunes
1 cup cream
1 1-4 teaspoons gelatine
1-2 lemon, grated rind and juice
1-4 cup sugar
1-8 teaspoon salt

Soak gelatine in 1-4 cup cold water. Boil lemon rind in 1-4 cup water for two minutes. Add lemon juice, sugar and strain prunes and let stand in refrigerator until nearly set. Then fold in whipped cream and chill thoroughly.

Good Skating: a glorious moon, and a girl. What more could any fellow want?

HOT HAM SANDWICH GRILL

Hot French toast
Lettuce
Hot broiled ham
Sliced sour pickles
Mayonnaise

Allow two slices of French toast for each sandwich. Cover first slice with a crisp lettuce leaf and a thin slice of hot broiled ham. Cover ham with a layer of thinly sliced sour pickle. Spread with mayonnaise if desired. Top with second slice of French toast. Serve immediately.

JELLIED ORANGE AND ONION SALAD

2 tablespoons gelatin
1-2 cup cold water
2 1-2 cups boiling water
1-2 teaspoon salt
12 cup sugar
1-2 cup lemon or orange juice
2 onions minced
2 oranges, cut in sections

Soak the gelatin in cold water. Add the boiling water and dissolve thoroughly. Add the sugar, salt, lemon and orange juice and the fruit, and pour into mold. Chill until set. Unmold on a bed of lettuce and garnish with mayonnaise and sliced oranges.

TWO SAUCE RECIPES
Chocolate Sauce

1 ounce unsweetened chocolate
2 tablespoons butter
1-2 cup boiling water
1-2 cup sugar
1-2 teaspoon vanilla extract

Melt chocolate in the top of the double boiler. Add butter and when mixed pour water on slowly, stirring constanly. Then add sugar. Bring to boiling point and boil five minutes without stirring; add vanilla and a few grains of salt and serve piping hot.

BUTTERSCOTCH SAUCE

1 1-2 cups brown sugar
3-4 cup water
4 tablespoons butter
1-2 cup cream

Cook sugar and water together until thread stage. Add butter and beat in cream.
