BIG EVENTS OF 1933

The ten most outstanding news events of the year, according to J. M. Kendrick, executive news editor of the Associated Press, were as follows:—

1. The Roosevelt administration including his inaugural address, the bank holiday, the monetary policy, the national recovery act and other recovery measure, recognition of Russia, legalization of beer, repeal of the 18th amendment and many other governmental actions.

2. The unsuccessful attempt to assassinate Roosevelt and the fatal wounding of Mayor Anton Cermak of Chicago by Zangara at Miami in February.

3. The crash of the United States dirigible Akron in the Atlantic ocean, April, killing 74, including Rear Admiral William A. Moffet, chief of the navy bureau of aeronautics.

4. The record around the world flight by Wiley Post.

5. The California earthquake, which killed approximately 116 persons and caused millions of dollars property damage, in March.

6. The lynching of Holmes and Thurmond in San Jose following their arrest on charges of kidnapping and murdering Broke Hart, and the controversy which was aroused by Governor Rolph's approval of the lynching.

7. The Urschel, McMath, McElroy, O'Connell, Hamm and Factor kidnappings, marked by the state and federal government's drive against kidnappers and the heavy sentences given the criminals in the first cases.

8. The sudden death of former Calvin Coolidge, January 5.

9. The rise of Hitler in Germany and the controversy caused by his treatment of the Jews, withdrawal from the League of Nations and other policies.

10. Huey Long's Sands Point. L. I. affair, because it was one of the most amusing stories of the year and kept the country chucking for days.

THE RAILWAY TRUSTEES

The Federal government on Saturday appointed, under authority of an Act of last session the long awaited board of trustees for the Canadian National Railways. As was forecast last week the board consists of three members, Hon. C. P. Fullerton, of Winnipeg, chairman of the Railway Commission, F. K. Morrow of Toronto, who has agreed to work without remuneration, and J. Edouard LaBelle of Montreal. The Maritime provinces with their important railway interests, are not represented on the board, but Judge Fullerton, whose home is in Winnipeg is a native of Amherst, N.S., and will therefore be expected to look after the interests of both the east and west. Still many people will be inclined to apply the words of Kipling that east is east and west is west and ne'er the twain shall meet. The chairman is a former member of the Manitoba Supreme Court bench and is undoubtedly a man of great ability. With capable assistance he will undoubtedly discharge his important duties to the satisfaction of the country as a whole. The appointment of the trustee board automatically retires the seventeen directors of the Canadian National Railway.

A WONDERFUL BROADCAST

The Canadian Radio Commission certainly excelled itself over the weekend in the wonderful Christmas broadcast it provided for the entertainment and enjoyment of Canadians. On Sunday afternoon it participated in a world broadcast of a program from the Church of the Nativity at Bethlehem and in the evening came a broadcast from the famous monastery at Benedictine Germany, followed by a Children's Choir at Berlin. Christmas day was ushered in by the bells of St. Dominique's Church, Quebec and Trinity Church, New York. The empire broadcast on Christmas morning and the speech of His Majesty the King were wonderful features and greatly enjoyed. The Canadian Radio Commission worked in collaboration with the British Broadcasting Commission, the British post office, the Marconi Company of Canada, the C.N.R. and C.P.R. telegraph systems and the Bell Telephone Company. The Commission is deserving of hearty congratulations on the remarkable success of its Christmas broadcast.

His majesty the King was heard on Christmas day in a brief but inspiring address which was broadcast by radio to all parts of the world, including the United States. He declared among other things that the past year has shown sober progress towards recovery and the setting in order of our respective communities. His Majesty spoke from Sandringham and his every word was distinctly heard. A record of his remarks, together with the Christmas messages of the different empire countries was repeated by the Canadian Radio Commission late in the evening and broadcast all over the Dominion.

Walter Thompson took a book from the Atchison library thirty-six years ago, read half of the book, and then took it back to the library. A few days ago Mr. Thompson went back to the library, got the same book and finished reading it.

Parents whose admittions off-spring wants a $20 train of cars won't get anywhere by playing the old record about the 10 cent box of building blocks that used to content him when he was a boy.

Christmas comes but once a year and, sonny, you've got to make your drum last all that time; so don't try to get all the thumps out of it within twenty-four hours.

It always did seem queer to me to hear some folks say: "I just couldn't sleep a wink; my head was in a whirl the whole night through." While from others: "I slept like a top."

What the retiring Mayor of New York meant when he said he had won the recent election is indicated by the fact that he has been eased out of office on a pension of $15,000 a year.

THROUGH OUR SIEVE

"Peace on earth, goodwill to men," not now, alas, not now.

The church choirs of the city provided a swell article of music on Sunday.

President Roosevelt's problem seems to be to provide non-skidable prices for farm products.

So far December has been nothing but snow storms and zero-weather.

The disadvantage in a boom is that no people ever got rich by robbing one another.

It's all over except buying the ring when she begins to tell him she loves his neckties.

Reports show that in one section of Borneo a man doesn't know his wife until a month after he marries her. But why mention Borneo?

That German artist says there are no perfect women. What a swell society reporter he'd make!

How strange it seems for America's national anthem to begin "Oh say," instead of "Oh yeah."

Modes, manners and methods have changed a lot in the love game, of course. And prudes and "prissy girls and overly shy girls never were popular; but neither were man-chasers or go-getters. And men haven't changed an iota!
