Britain Will Make A Partial Payment To United States

Right Hon. Neville Chamberlain To Make Announcement in the House of Commons This Afternoon—The Cabinet Reported to Have Decided Against Default.

(Special to The Daily Mail by the British United Press)

LONDON, June 13—Chancellor of the Exchequer, Right Hon. Neville Chamberlain, in his war debt speech before the House of Commons this afternoon, will announce that the cabinet has decided upon at least a partial payment of the $79,950,000 war debt annuity due Thursday, June 15, to the United States; the U. P. learned from well-informed British and American sources today. Whether the payment would represent approximately 10 per cent of the sum due, as an acknowledgment of the debt or a full payment in silver, was still a closely guarded secret. But contrary to all other reports the United Press was assured that the cabinet had decided against default.

SATISFACTORY SALE OF N. B. DEBENTURES

Government Accepts a Bid of 98.18 For a Block of $2,474,000.

Saint John, June 13—Following the announcement on Friday last of the sale of a $1,000,000 issue of New Brunswick five percent, 30-year debentures, to a syndicate at 98.18, together with an option for an additional amount, it was disclosed last evening by Hon. A. J. Leger, provincial secretary-treasurer, that a total issue of $2,474,000 had been fully subscribed.

The bid of 98.18 was accepted by the government Friday in Fredericton for the $1,000,000 issue, and an option given for the balance under the same terms and conditions.

The sale was made to the highest bidder, a syndicate comprising Bell Gouinlock & Co., Ltd., T. M. Bell & Co., Ltd., the Dominion Bank, Fry, Mills, Spence & Co., Ltd., MacLeod, Young Weir & Co., Ltd., and John M. Robinson & Co., Ltd. Two other syndicates submitted bids.

Credit is Good

"The quick response that the bonds brought from the buying public is an indication that the credit of the province continues to stand high and firm, whilst the price offered is also above the average price of provincial bonds," commented Mr. Leger, announcing completion of the flotation here last evening following a provincial government meeting. Word was received from Toronto during the afternoon that the entire amount had been subscribed.

The fund will be devoted to floating indebtedness of the province, bridges, roads, direct relief and the New Brunswick Electric Power Commission.

"Cynara" at Gaiety

The Gaiety Theatre featured the photoplay "Cynara" at its showing on Monday and today. The picture stars Ronald Coleman and Kay Francis and is a treatment of a more delicate phase of modern marriage, patterned after the famous quotation of Edward Dowson "I have been faithful to thee, Cynara, after my fashion." King Vidor was responsible for expert direction. Paramount News and a Two Act Comedy also were on the bill.

YORK REGIMENT TO GET BOER WAR HONORS

Has Been Given Permission to Carry "South Africa, 1900" On Colors of Regiment.

Ottawa, June 12—Thirty-two years after the Peace of Vereeniging, which brought the Boer War to a close, 26 units of the Canadian Militia have now been awarded the battle honor, "South Africa" to be embroidered on their regimental colors. Announcement to this effect was made from the headquarters of the Defence Department here today.

The Department has been advised of the approval of this honor by His Majesty. The units whose colors are thus enriched obtain the award under the same conditions as governed that of similar honors to the yeomanry and volunteer regiments of the British Army.

All of the seven provinces of Canada which were in existence at the time of the South African campaign are represented in the list. In Ontario 12 regiments secure the honor; in Quebec, five; in Nova Scotia, three; in New Brunswick and Manitoba, two each; and one each for British Columbia and Prince Edward Island.

One of these regiments, the Saint John Fusiliers, get the honor for the two periods—"South Africa, 1899-1900, 1902."

Nine regiments will carry the honor "South Africa, 1900," including 17th Duke of York's Royal Canadian Hussars, of Montreal; the York Regiment of Fredericton, N. B.; and the Prince Edward Island Highlanders of Charlottetown, P.E.I.

Normal School a Busy Place

Close to 450 young people are today writing examinations for teachers' licenses in the Provincial Normal School building. Throughout the province others are writing, but the concentrated student-teacher strength is here. About 150 candidates are, apart from the regular classes of the Normal School, coming from various parts of the county and province. The papers started this morning and a Latin paper will be written tonight. The exams continue until Friday. R. B. Wallace of the Department of Education, and Dr. H. H. Hagerman, Principal of the Normal School, are in charge. The papers are being written in eight rooms of the building, including the gymnasium. The classes are divided as follows: Grammar School, 71; superior, 13; first class, 193; second class, 170.

Run Over by Truck

Clowes Hall, 13-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hall, York street, suffered a broken leg and injuries to his head and face during recess of the Model School this morning. The boy ran down over the roadway, back of the school, in pursuit of some of his young comrades, not noticing an oncoming truck. Before the driver, R. J. Hurley, of McAdam, could swerve the truck aside, Hall fell beneath the wheels. His leg was run over by the rear wheel of the vehicle. Luckily, his injuries were not of serious nature, and this afternoon he reported resting much easier, though in pain.

More Rainy Weather

A flurry of rain occurred again last evening, following a dull day of cloudy weather followed on the heels of a week of perfect summer temperature.

Jimmie Mattern Reported Overdue At Nome, Alaska

Some Apprehension Being Felt For Safety of the Globe-Circling Flier—Heavy Fogs Reported to Have Settled Over the Bering Sea, Pathway of His Hop From Khabarovsk.

(Special to The Daily Mail by the British United Press)

NOME, Alaska, June 13—Apprehension for the safety of Jimmie Mattern, globe-circling flier, was felt today with reports that heavy fogs had settled over the Bering Sea along the route of his flight from Khabarovsk. The fact that Mattern was several hours overdue here if he maintained the speed of Post and Gatty on the Khabarovsk-Nome lap of their world flight added to the anxiety.

Post and Gatty flew from Khabarovsk to Nome in 15 hours and 45 minutes. The same schedule would have brought Mattern to Nome at about midnight Nome time, or 3 a.m. Pacific Coast time. Mattern, however, said before leaving Khabarovsk that if he encountered bad weather, he might land at Petropavlovsk, on the Peninsula of Kamchatka, until conditions improve.

CHURCH TRIAL DENIED PROF. THOS. EAKIN

Peterboro, Ont., June 12—The Presbyterian General Assembly turned thumbs down today on an application for a Church trial for Prof. Thomas Eakin, deposed Knox College principal. At the same time it delayed until tomorrow consideration of a committee report to appoint a temporary head of the college, investigate this year the school's administration and, in the meantime at least, leave Prof. Eakin outside the principal's office. For an hour and a half today the Church court reviewed the contentious Knox College problem. Through it all stood two men in featured roles, Rev. Stuart Parker, Toronto, and Prof. Eakin, who made another dramatic plea to be confirmed in the principalship or to be granted a Church trial "which will disclose all the facts bearing on my occupancy of the principalship of Knox College."

Dr. Parker, the slight, dynamic pastor of St. Andrew's Church, Toronto, was the self-appointed leader of the pro-Eakin forces. He charged the deposed principal had been removed "as a janitor would be removed." Once or twice he almost shouted, particularly when he said "the truth is always out of order unless surrounded by sugar or candy." This remark was greeted by hisses, cries of "Shame" and "Order" but the demonstration did not seem to ruffle the pro-Eakin leader.

Wants Publicity

"We are not afraid to have everything known," said Dr. Parker, pressing for a regular Church trial for Prof. Eakin. "Then who is? Are these people who would crucify this man without a trial, are they afraid of the facts while 'hush-hush' is voiced over his grave?"

Excursion Rates

Only two more days remain in which advantage may be taken of the cent-a-mile excursion rates to all points in the west via the Canadian Pacific Railways. The rates went into effect on May 31st and end on June 15th. A number of local persons have taken the opportunity to make a trip to the western provinces at the small expense. The time limit for returning is thirty days from the date of departure.

BOSTON MAN MADE CATCH ON RESTIGOUCHE

Arthur L. Race Lands a Twenty Pounder—Son of Henry Ford Fishing on the Restigouche.

News of fish, fishing and fishermen on the sporting waters of Northern New Brunswick seems to be picking up.

To Arthur L. Race, managing director of the Copley-Plaza, Boston, goes the palm gorf being the first non-resident of the season to land an Atlantic silver salmon on the government open water of the famous Restigouche River. His big moment came last Saturday when he hooked a twenty-pounder.

Jack Russell, who has recently opened a commodious sporting lodge on ground fronting directly upon the open water, is host to Mr. Race. In addition to the Boston hotel proprietor, Robert Beal, Dr. H. L. Baldwin and H. Maunsell, all of New York City and F. W. Pirie, M. P. P., of Grand Falls, New Brunswick, are at present enjoying the hospitality of the Russell establishment.

But even at that, the influx of United States sportsmen is by no means confined to the Restigouche. Just now Charles Francis Coe, well known sports writer and criminologist of the N.B.C. Network, is fishing on the Kedgewick and Edsel Ford and his son of Detroit are also trying their skill on New Brunswick waters. From the Tobique too, come reports of a heavy run of bright salmon and Gulquac Lodge at Oxhow, operated by the Ogilvy Brothers, is at present accommodating no less than fourteen fishermen.

Applications for reservations on the Government open water on the Restigouche River are coming in daily to Mr. G. H. Prince Deputy Minister of Lands and Mines, Fredericton, N. B.

Good Run of Fish

Shad fishermen have been busy with their drift nets the past few nights and have made some fair catches. There is a good run of salmon on at present and this morning Jack Darlington took a twenty-six pounder from his net, which he sets near the Mouth of the Nashwaaksis.
