

-- The World of Sport in Review --

FREDERICTON HIGH HOCKEY TEAM

"CLEANED UP" ON ANNUAL ROAD TRIP

Beat Saint John High and Rothesay by Scores of 7-1 and 6-1—One of Yellow & Black's Best Teams—Cubs Away.

Saint John, N. B., Feb. 19.—Lifting their second "Big Three" interscholastic championship without a defeat, Fredericton High School hockey artists returned to the Capital on Saturday night after a two day stay in Saint John during which time Saint John High and Rothesay Collegiate fell in turn to the powerful Black and Yellow sextet 7-1 and 6-1.

Coached this year by Ralph Gooding, former interscholastic hockey star, the champions of Section 4 of the New Brunswick Interscholastic League, will immediately commence training for the first of the provincial semi-finals which are scheduled to begin of March 3, with the winner of the St. Andrews-St. Stephen-McAdam loop invading the Capital.

LOCAL CUBS TO SAINT JOHN

Saint John, N. B., Feb. 19.—With a three-goal lead, Fredericton Cubs, winners of the York County Hockey League invade Saint John tonight for their second game with Rangers, Saint John champions, in the provincial intermediate playdowns. Total goals will decide the winner, Fredericton captured the opener at home, 6-2. Tonight's game will start at 8:15 o'clock.

In the City Junior League finals Rothesay Oaks and Saint John High are scheduled to meet in the third game of their series. Each has won one.

HIS AMBITION

(New York Sun)

As the Woman was walking along Dykeman street, she was attracted by the sound of children's voices. Then she observed that there were two small boys in front of her who were engaged in very serious discussion. The one who was apparently the older was giving his opinion about various occupations. Finally he proclaimed in loud tones that he knew what he was going to do when he grew up.

"Well, what are you going to be?" "A detective, just like my dad. He's a swell detective and I'm going to be just like him."

The other boy seemed slightly crestfallen at first, but after a little hesitation, he drew himself up to his full height, threw out his chest and an-

GEHRIG SAYS GOLF IS NO GOOD TO THE HITTER

New York, N.Y., Feb. 18.—Lou Gehrig, baseball's Iron Man, who has played 1,350 consecutive games at first base for the Yankees, is in better physical condition at this time than a year ago. The reason? He has abandoned the golf links. Gehrig has come to the conclusion that playing golf during the winter months is injurious. He is convinced that it affects his skill as a batsman.

Last summer Gehrig for a time was in a quandary as to why he couldn't slug the ball as he did in former seasons. He asked the other Yankees to tell him what was wrong with his style at the plate. But they couldn't discover a fault and finally Gehrig, through sheer perserverance, regained his batting eye.

Gehrig says that winter before last his visit to Japan, which kept him playing the game long after the American League race ended, proved harmful to his batting in 1932, while last winter incessant golfing, in his belief, also handicapped him when the time came to size up opposing pitchers.

"As long as I can play ball I never will nwing a golf club again," said Gehrig yesterday. "I have been spending this winter resting most of the time. Now and then I have gone on a fishing trip or visited Boy Scout camps or talked baseball to kids. But no more golf for me and you'll see that I have the right dope when I begin to play with the Yankees in Florida. I can't get there quick enough to answer Joe McCarthy's call."

The trials and tribulations of professional hockey in the Maritime Provinces is illustrated by the present situation of the Moncton Hawks.

Winter sports include skating, skiing, tobogganing and taking pictures of girls in snow drifts.

New York taxi drivers don't miss radios from their cabs. In traffic jams the customers sing: "Get along, little buggy, get along."

Not many men are two-faced, but quite a few have two voices, one for outside and one for home.

Highly colored stories are never in the white lie class.

nounced with gusto:

"I don't want to be a detective. I'm going to be George Washington."

RICE PICKS RUTH AS BEST OF MODERNS

Jones, Cobb, Ruth, Tilden and Dempsey Most Colorful of All, He Says

(By Grantland Rice)

New York, N. Y., Feb. 18.—As Charlie may be checked but it is never wholly dull.

A letter has just arrived, signed by a rather formidable looking group numerically, asking me to decide an argument which seemed to have led to several wagers. It is to this effect: "Will you please help us to decide a club argument, which seem to have stirred up quite a controversy—

"1—Who are the five greatest ball players you have ever seen?"

"2—Who are the five greatest figures in sport you have ever followed, seen or written about?"

The best way to treat a simple request of this type is not to employ too many words.

Five Greatest Players

The five greatest ball players — everything considered — that I have ever seen are Ty Cobb, Babe Ruth, Hans Wagner, Christy Mathewson, and Napoleon Lajoie.

Three of the five starred more than 20 years—the supreme test—and a fourth is starting his 21st season. I hate to leave out Tris Speaker, Grover Alexander, Rube Waddell, Eddie Collins, Has Chase, Joe Jackson, Johnny Kling, Bob Grove, Hornsby and several others. But there is stands.

Query, No. 2 is even tougher. But I'll take this list—Bobby Jones, Ty Cobb, Babe Ruth, Bill Tilden and Jack Dempsey.

They have made more headlines than any other athlete I have ever known, and that is a big part of the answer.

In addition to an unnumber of details, they had color to an amazing degree. They drew the crowds and they furnished the main thrills for at least one or two decades.

Good Ones Left Out

I hate again to leave out such names as Jim Thorpe, the greatest all around athlete I ever knew, Francis Ouimet, Walter Hagen, Tommy Hitchcock, Red Grange, Jim Corbett, Jim Jeffries, Billy Carr, Devereaux Milburn, Gene Tunney, and more than all—Paavo Nurmi—but I will stick to my selections.

There is the chance that a squawk may arise in picking Jack Dempsey. I'll stick to my teeth into that one. For eight or nine years—from Fred Fulton, to his last stand against Gene Tunney—he furnished more thrills

Yanks To Have Revamped Infield

New York, N. Y., Feb. 18.—The New York Yankees may take the field this season with a completely revised infield, according to indications in the club's 1934 roster, issued Wednesday.

Don Heffner, from Baltimore, one of the few newcomers on the list of 1 players, will fight it out for second base with veteran Tony Lazzeri. Lyn Larry, utility man of last season, and Jack Saltzgeber, who was recalled from Newark, will battle for third base vacated by Joey Sewell. The latter is a Yankee coach.

Bob Rolfe is back from Newark and is expected to give Frank Crosetti a tussle for the shortstop job. Lou Gehrig will be back at first.

The Yankees still are trying to obtain another starting pitcher. The mooned staff proved unexpectedly weak last year, and the roster shows that little has been done to bolster it. Allen, Gomez, Ruffing, Van Atta and Devens are expected to form the nucleus of the staff.

MANNERS NEVER BECOME OBSOLETE

Dean of women of a celebrated Eastern female college, as all colleges for women used to be called, said to the girls under her supervision the other day: "Manners have rather come in again. For some years they were out of fashion, in public and elsewhere. Cultivate these outward tools. I commend manners to you. Pleasant manners add enormously to the attractiveness of life. Manners are a real asset in any career or line of work." Wise exhortation. Should we not take the utilitarian view of manners if they have temporarily been dislodged for their ethical and aesthetic domain? Good manners get one along in the world when nothing else will.

and more action, per minute, or per second, than any single entry that ever stepped beneath the great, white spotlight.

For thrills I give you Ruth and Dempsey. But don't overlook the consistent brilliancy of Bobby Jones. Ty Cobb and Bill Tilden in the way of skill and class.

I can hear the adverse surf beating. "What about Willie Hoppe—what about a dozen others—?"

Well, whom would you throw out—Jones Cobb, Ruth, Tilden or Dempsey? I am not including the non-playing contingent, such as Knute Rockne, Connie Mack, John McGraw or others in that lineup. I'm taking in only the competitors.

SENSATION CAUSED IN AMATEURS IN QUEBEC AND A PROBE IS AFOOT

VINES MADE $26,000 SINCE HE TURNED PRO

New York, N. Y., Feb. 18.—Bill Tilden and Ellsworth Vines have drawn more than $100,000 at the "gate" in the first 17 matches of their tennis tour, and Vines's financial goal of $50,000 in his first year as a professional is almost certain to be reached, with plenty to spare.

Expects to Clear $50,000

On the basis of a 40-40-20 split with Tilden and Bill O'Brien, co-promoter of the tour, Vines already has earned $26,000, with prospects of doubling that total by the time he and Tilden have completed their series of international team matches with Henri Cochet and Martin Plaa. After three more tussles with Tilden, Vines and Big Bill will start the international series against the French stars here February 19-21.

O'Brien revealed that 106,387 fans had paid $101,212 to see the 17 matches Tilden and his young California rival have played so far. Twelve of these were sell-outs.

"Vines should clear at least $50,000 this year", O'Brien said, "and my guess is that he will have about $49,500 of it at the finish. He is a very shrewd business man as well as a good tennis player."

Tilden and O'Brien do all the financing for the other members of the troupe. Vines's "cut" is diminished only by his own personal expenses.

As a general rule, when a man knocks matrimony it's equivalent to a confession that he was too dumb to pick the right sort of wife.

Winter weather is back with a wallop.

President Sylvester of Outremont League Institutes a Finding--One Team Faces Disqualification.

Montreal, Feb. 17.—The result of certain findings this week, by President H. W. Sylvester of the Outremont Hockey League, may prove something of a sensation for certain teams ready to enter the play-offs next week. No official information was given out as to the nature of the investigation which was carried out after several complaints had been received by the executive. A special meeting of the directors and managers of the Intermediate section has been called in an effort to settle matters before the play offs of these teams. It is believed that at least one team will be disqualified for the playoffs from the information at hand. The situation will not interfere with play-offs in the four other sections of the league, the president declared, as these have been scheduled to begin on the afternoon of the 18th in the Senior section, when Rangers and St. Germain meet in the opening fixture. St. Viateur and Ouimet-Wilson C. who were originally slated for the second game probably will not meet until next Tuesday night, it was stated. Final arrangements will probably be made for an Intermediate opener in their pay-offs for the third hour on the afternoon of the 18th. Officials for these games will not be announced until later.

What's the use? If you use bad English, you are common. If you use good English, you are putting on airs to hide your common origin.

The Japs aren't so secretive. When they start a fuss, nobody has to ask what their war aims are.

For simile collectors: Farical as a Nazi election.

Modern
as the Empire State

Convenient
as the Electric Light

Clean
as a China Plate

Accurate
as a Stop Watch

Speedy
as an Airplane

That's Electric Cookery

See the modern electric ranges on display at our store. A small down payment will install one in your home. Just ask us or see any dealer.

More for the Money—

and Better Cigarettes with

TURRET FINE CUT

If you want to get more tobacco for your money—and better tobacco—join the increasing thousands of other wise smokers who are swinging over every day to Turret Fine Cut.

The larger package of Turret Fine Cut enables you to save more than enough money to buy the best papers—"Vogue" or "Chantecler"—in addition you'll get valuable Poker Hands which you can exchange for handsome, useful free gifts. And you'll enjoy the satisfying cigarettes that only Turret will roll.

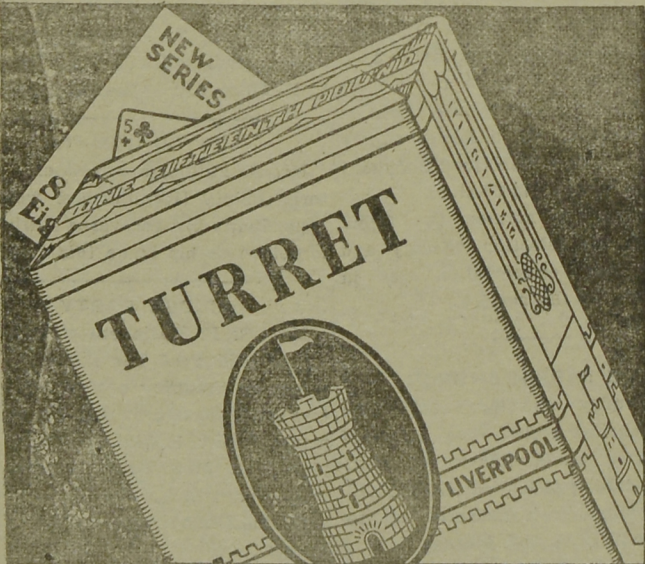

It pays to "Roll Your Own" with

TURRET FINE CUT

CIGARETTE TOBACCO

SAVE THE POKER HANDS

Imperial Tobacco Company of Canada, Limited

Save Poker Hands to get Better Cigarette Papers FREE

Everybody agrees that "Vogue" and "Chantecler" are the best papers—you can get 5 large books of either brand—free for only one complete set of Poker Hands, from your nearest Poker Hand Premium Store or by mail.