THE PARLIAMENTARY SESSION PROROGUED BY HIS EXCELLENCY LORD BESSBOROUGH LAST NIGHT

Ottawa, July 3—Ending a session lasting five and a half months, Parliament was prorogued tonight by the Governor-General.

From 11 a.m. until 9.45 p.m. the House of Commons battled over the last items on the order paper. With an audible sigh, the last legislation went through, the customary money bill. About an hour later the members were running for trains, their duties ended for the session.

The red-walled Senate chamber was the scene of the closing ceremonies, drab and colorless in comparison to the official opening. In slow, measured words, Lord Bessborough read the Speech from the Throne while 50 members of the House gathered outside the rail and 10 senators sat behind their desks. Galleries were half filled.

The House had a varied program today, starting off with a discussion of the International wheat agreement, passing to penitentiary administration and ending with a general debate relating to Western Ontario farmers who lost money through a Montreal firm shipping their cattle to the United Kingdom.

It was the prime minister's 64th birthday and a large basket of red roses stood before his desk all day.

The Penitentiaries

A rifle, a revolver and a shotgun were used by guards to fire into the

TEMPORARY SETTLEMENT WITH MILLMEN

Fraser Companies' Men Go Back To Work As Result of Action of Premier Tilley.

Premier Tilley acted as mediator in the Newcastle strike area yesterday and the result today was a temporary lull among the striking Lower Miramichi sawmill workers. One hundred and two employees of Fraser Companies' mill at Nelson returned to work today. Others were expected to follow suit.

The Premier arrived here at noon today by auto from Newcastle and left shortly after one o'clock for Harvey, where he will speak this afternoon at the Jersey Field Day.

Sawmill workers of the several mills in the Miramichi area walked out last Friday with a demand for higher wages. Commenting on the matter during his short stay in the city today, the premier said that at his suggestion a vote was taken by the men as to whether they would return to work or not. Employees of the Fraser Companies, Ltd., who were the first to act, voted 102 for returning to work and 12 against. This morning the "yeas" were all back at work. The Premier had nothing to say as to any definite agreement between employers and employees in regard to wages. His main object yesterday was to gain some settlement between the two factions and to restore harmony between the workers and employers.

WAS HONORED AT NEWCASTLE

Newcastle, O. B., July 3—About 50 attended a complimentary banquet held at a local hotel tonight in honor of Premier L. P. D. Tilley, who is in town in connection with the lumber mill strike. Members of the Northumberland County Council, now in session, and friends were hosts. Warden J. D. Shanahan presided, and speakers included Premier Tilley, J. A. Craghan, C. P. Hickey, G. Percy Burchill, George M. McDade, M. P., John H. Wallace, Magistrate R. T. D. Aitken, A. B. McKinnon, F. E. Locke, J. Leonard O'Brien, Mayor R. Waldo Crocker, and Mayor H. S. Murray.

Toronto, July 3—The mace of the old Upper Canada parliament building, taken to the United States by American troops who burned Fort York on April 27, 1813, has come back to Canada. It was brought home aboard a United States naval vessel on orders of President Franklin D. Roosevelt.

cell of Tim Buck, Toronto Communist leader, during the riots of October, 1932, in Kingston Penitentiary, Hon. Hugh Guthrie, minister of justice, told the House today.

Buck, serving five years in Kingston as a Communist, was inciting the men to further rioting, the minister said. He was in the fourth tier of cells, 35 or 40 feet above the floor with the men surging below him, knocking off cell locks with planks and boards. He would rush to his cell door, exhorting the men to stand up for their rights and make a demonstration that would force changes in prison regulations.

To frighten the Communist prisoner and keep him quiet, guards fired into his cell from the floor below, the minister said, although he did not know who ordered the firing. There were three shots, one from a rifle, one from a pistol, the third from a shot gun. The shots were fired when Buck was in the rear of his tiny cell, away from the grilled door. Eleven bullets or shotgun pellets pierced the ceiling of the cell.

Hon. Hugh Guthrie

For two hours the justice minister presented a general defence of penitentiary administration with the following highlights:

"There is no 'hole' or dungeon in any Canadian penitentiary. In Kingston, there are nine cells under the keeper's hall used for recalcitrant prisoners. Lighted, without sanitary arrangements but well ventilated.

The paddle is used to punish prisoners only as a last resort, with three to 10 blows the usual application. "There is nothing brutal about it, the prisoners only resent the indignity of the thing."

John "Two-Gun" O'Brien, an American citizen, was kept from August, 1931, until a few weeks ago in the prison of isolation for leading an abortive attempt to escape. He has been considered one of the most dangerous men in the prison.

"There is no such thing in any Canadian penitentiary as solitary confinement and there hasn't been for at least 30 years."

Reports Denied

There has been no shackling to cell blocks for at least two years.

"The man who has instigated most of the unrest against penitentiary administration in Canada is A. E. Smith (of Toronto, secretary of the Labor defence League).

It seemed strange that most of the agitation in Kingston, culminating in riots, started soon after the seven Toronto Communists arrived there.

The Communists never have been in the punishment cells. They have been working on the prison docks, the lightest job in the prison, selected by themselves.

All Communists—five of the original seven are still there—are in good health. The five will be liberated as the others were, when one-half their term has been put in providing they are first offenders and their prison record has been good.

Warden W. B. Megloughlin, who resigned a few days ago, was lax in his administration of prison regulations.

NEW BRUNSWICK PROTESTANT ORPHAN'S HOME

Office: Room 12, No. 50 Princess Street

H. Usher Miller, sec'y-treasurer James W. Brittain, president.

TO THE PROTESTANT PEOPLE OF NEW BRUNSWICK,

SAINT JHON, N. B., July 3rd, 1934.

LADIES, GENTLEMEN and CHILDREN—

Do you realize that the entire Maintenance Overdraft of $35,000 that has accumulated in the past four years, has accumulated in the summer months of these years? In other words the Protestants of New Brunswick forget their Orphans in the summer time, as their responses to the July quarterly appeals have been the poorest responses of all. Won't this year be an exception?

Unless the response to this quarterly letter is the best that has ever been made to a July appeal, we will have no alternative but to further increase our Overdraft before the end of this month. Surely you don't want this to happen. And most assuredly there is no excuse for the 220,121 Protestant People in New Brunswick failing in this obvious duty of theirs.

It surely is just as much our duty to feed these children in the summer as in winter. The Protestant People of New Brunswick for many years past have paid the cost in the winter-time—why not do likewise in the summer-time when the cost is less?

It surely is just as much our duty to clothe the bodies of these children to protect them from the sun and rain of summer as from the frost and snow of winter. Again why not do it when it costs less?

The Shelter exists the same for summer and winter. Educational Costs are nil for July and August. Fuel costs are very little in the summer time. Your Home is full to its capacity of 252 Little Ones. We can only give Shelter to others as you adopt out or otherwise care for some of those that are now in residence. It likewise costs less to comfortably shelter the Children in the Summer, therefore why not pay this lesser cost?

Won't You Please Respond To This Appeal? Won't you please make your gift now? Won't you please speak to others asking them to give now? Won't you also organize an effort in your neighborhood. Let us make this summer the Best Summer Financially the Home Has Ever Experienced. Again the only thing that will prevent an immediate increase of the Overdraft is a far better response to this appeal than has ever been made to any previous July appeal.

Counting upon you to do your part for the sake of the 252 Children that are depending upon you, believe us to remain,
Yours very truly,
JAMES W. BRITTAI, President.
H. USHER MILLER, Secretary.

Bathing Houses Condemned by City

120 rods—was referred to the roads and streets committee.

On motion by Ald. Mitchell, seconded by Ald. McCaughey the water committee was authorized to purchase a new truck at a cost of $600 or $700. Ald. Mitchell presented the monthly report of the fire chief, Karl A. Walker, which showed that the fire loss during June had been small, totalling not over $600.

Pumps on Sidewalks

Some argument was held on the matter of an air pump in front of the garage of Roy Sutherland in Carleton street, called the Carleton Motors. Ald. McCaughey urged that Mr. Sutherland be permitted to put the pump on the curb. At present the pump is laid in an awkward place and is of no advantage to the owner. Ald. Mitchell opposed the move and referred to the city's policy to rescind in all cases where pumps had been placed on the sidewalks. The matter was put to a vote and Carleton Motors, as a result, were permitted to re-install their pump.

On motion by Ald. McCaughey, seconded by Ald. Wright permission was given to Lewis F. Charters to erect an electric sign at his place of business in the Peabody building.

The request of Wilfred Sullivan for permission to build a private garage in King street was granted on motion by Ald. McCaughey, seconded by Ald. Wright.

The local Improvement Association was granted $200 of its yearly grant on a motion of Ald. McCaughey, seconded by Ald. Doohan. The request of the Board of School trustees for $1,000, and which would be in the nature of a supplementary appropriation, was described by the council as "most unusual."

His Worship the mayor reported a letter of appreciation from Sir William and Lady Clark on the hospitality shown them on their visit to this city recently.

Liquor Case Aired In Police Court

West conducted the case for the crown. Judgment was reserved until tomorrow morning.

The case against Walter Legere, Moncton, another of the accused men was then commenced and in answer to the charge, he entered a plea of Not Guilty. The case against Eddie Gallant, the final member of the trio was also heard today.

STANLEY CENTENNIAL

Citizens of Stanley are all agog over coming Centennial celebration, which is slated for August 8 and 9. Stanley was first settled in the year 1834, making the present the one hundredth year of its history. A comprehensive program including a monster parade, sports and dancing has been arranged.

OFF FOR HARVEY

The members of the York Municipal Council met at two o'clock this afternoon and after roll call, boarded autos and left for Harvey to take in the Jersey Field Day. Premier Tilley is to be one of the speakers at the gathering.

DURHAM BRIDGE

JULY 3rd.—The Durham Bridge School, Parish of St. Mary's, District No. 7 held its closing exercises on Friday morning, June 29th.

The usual review of lessons took place. Demonstrations in Geometry were given by the advanced pupils, after which the school received a bountiful treat provided by the teacher, Miss Neola Narrad.

A number of the pupils of the higher grades presented Miss Narrad a fountain pen in appreciation of her excellent work during the year.

Winners of certificates were First certificate, Violet Sansom (91.03); Second certificate, Vaughn Ahernethy (80.4); Third certificate, Frederica Estey (78.3).
