Columbia's Calendar
For Wed. July 4th

An Independence Day celebration at Arlington Amphitheatre with Senator Millard E. Tydings of Maryland as principal speaker, a patriotic program from the Byrd Antarctic Expedition, and the presentation of "Chantrelles", an obscure rhythm tune of W. C. Handy, by Andre Kostelanetz's 16 voice chorus during the Nino Martini concert, will be the outstanding features of the WABC-Columbia network on Wednesday, July 4. Details of these and other Independence Day follow:

SENATOR TYDINGS IN INDEPENDENCE DAY PROGRAM

An Independence Day celebration in Arlington Amphitheatre will bring Senator Millard E. Tydings of Maryland to the microphone in a talk over the WBC-Columbia network between 12:45 and 1:15 P. M., A. S. T., Wednesday, July 4: The ceremonies will be held under the auspices of the Jewish War Veterans of the United States, and all other service organizations in the country have been asked to participate. Music will be supplied by the U. S. Navy Band.

LITTLE AMERICA HAILS THE "GLORIOUS FOURTH"

Little America, the most remote spot in the world flying the Stars, and Stripes, will observe the "Glorious Fourth" during the regular broadcast TO and FROM the Byrd Expedition over the WABC-Columbia network Wednesday, July 4, from 10:00 to 12:30 P. M., A. S. T.

Charley Murphy, expedition communications officer and CBS announcer, has planned a gala broadcast celebration of Independence Day. Songs and instrumental music appropriate to the occasion will be supplied by the Knights of the Grey Underwear with Al Carbone as harmonica soloist. A feature will be the accompaniment by George Grimmer's newly-made drum.

The New York end of the program also will have a distinctly patriotic flavor.

NINO MARTINI WITH ANDRE KOSTELANETZ' ORCHESTRA

A little known rhythm number by W. C. Handy, called "Chantrelles" (Sing 'Em Low), will be presented by Andre Kostelanetz's 16 voice chorus over the WABC-Columbia network between 9:00 and 9:30 P. M., A. S. T., Wednesday, July 4. Nino Martini, tenor star of the concert, will sing the charming love song, "By the Waters of Minnetonka"; Grever's "Lamento Gitano", and "Musica Proibita", by Gastaldon.

The orchestral and choral feature will be a medley of tunes from "It Ain't No Sin", in a Kostelanetz arrangement. The medley will include "My American Beauty", "Troubled Waters", "When a St. Louis Woman Comes to New Orleans" and "My Old Flame". Other orchestral selections will be the waltzes, "You Are Free", from "Apple Blossoms", and "May the Sun Shine Brighter", and the foxtrot, "In a Little Red Barn".

"EVERETT MARSHALL'S BROADWAY VANITIES"

A variety program featuring Everett Marshall, baritone and master-of-ceremonies; Elizabeth Lennox, contralto; Victor Arden's Orchestra and a guest star to be announced later, will be heard over the WABC-Columbia network, Wednesday, July 4, from 8:30 to 9:00 P. M., A. S. T. Song dramas built around hit numbers from operettas and musical comedies of the past few years will include "Only a Rose", sung by Marshall and a chorus of eight voices; duet arrangements of "You're Devastating" and "Look for the Silver Lining" by Marshall and Miss Lennox; and "Desert Song" and "Old Man River", sung by the robust baritone.

PEDRO DE CORDOBA

Summer-time tunes will be featured by Will Osborne's Orchestra, the musical background for Pedro de Cordoba's "Friendly Philosophy", over the WABC-Columbia network Wednesday, July 4, from 11:15 to 11:30 P. M., A. S. T. The orchestral selections will include "Down the Old Ox Road", "Sleepy Head", "I've Got a Warm Spot in My Heart for You" and "Ridin' Around in the Rain".

CLOSE-UPS ON THE FASHION SCREEN

Going "beret picking" this summer? Despite the popularity of wide-brimmed hats, that's doing. For the beret, with its swagger air and its universal becomingness, refuses to be crowded from the fashion pictures. Its comfort and convenience too, are items not to be lightly overlooked in selecting the summer wardrobe.

There are lots of new VERSIONS this season, for the beret is always style-conscious. Some mounted on bandeaux, to give them new lines and a different look. With feathers of other ornaments set jauntily over the right eye. Others cut with more fullness, making them look like first cousins to the tam o' shanter. Berets with wire about their inner edge, to keep them shapely.

It's an old Spanish custom, and a brand new fashion, introduced by Schiaparelli. The wearing of manillas, we mean. With beach hats of widish brims, a mantilla of net is worn cascading over the shoulders and back of the neck. Fine for keeping your lily white neck out of reach of the sun's rays.

Pencil slimness is what we strive for in the season's silhouette, and here's a costume SLIP idea to further that effect. Slips fastening with dainty, light metal slide-fasteners. With the important shadow panel as a further feature.

Be a girl again, and tie a bow of RIBBON IN YOUR CURLS when you go out in hatless evening kit. Just a tiny one, about four inches long. It is a fashion recently evolved by several chic women, and a fascinating one.

Cool and delicious-looking as bonbons are the light SUMMER GIRLS. Lemon yellow, mint green, peach, turquoise blue, and pale violet are the colors.

CARTWHEELS that seem to have borrowed their trimmings from the SALAD BOWL are a late millinery conceit. Lovely leghorns and such straws, adorned with wreaths of tiny tomatoes, radishes and pearl onions.

O-o-o-o, how those EVENING NECKLINES are swooping DOWN! It seems we must have been quite weary of those chin sweating ones, so low are they descending now. Folds of tulle and such-like filmy materials are sometimes put about the top edge, lest they be too, too revealing.

Swank as can be are the HANDBAGS of seersucker or awning-striped material in gay, bright colors, with handles and frames of shining patent leather in a color to pick up the major tone of the material.

HOW PARIS
SKILLFULLY BUTTONS
ITS JACKET

Paris, France:—The word "button" has changed its meaning. It is today, even according to the dictionary a "knob, disk or the like, to be sewn on an article of dress, usually as a catch".

Modern buttons range in size from a fly speck to dinner plate. In fact, a Paris button being featured at the moment is the size of an American dollar and grooved finely in exactly the same way as a flat record.

Schiaparelli, of course, is the button bandit here. She has held up more ideas from this family, and extorted from it the entire family resources. This season her black and white "hands" have created the sensation they deserve. She also has created a "leaf" fastener, done in wood, crystal and ivory. These, it is suggested, will make excellent fall fastenings, tinted, varying shades of a rich golden brown, deep green and flickering yellow used on ensembles of solid color.

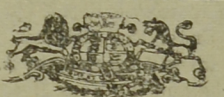

TRIM AND JACKETED

There are little tailored jackets of net looking romantically misty. They have trim revers, or tailored bows and are just below hip length. For evening dresses or even an afternoon net, if you can find the proper shades. But it shouldn't be hard with the colors to choose from—black, and amber brown, as well as red, green, blue and gold.

GORDON, DAVE AND BUNNY

Because it's Independence Day, Gordon, Dave and Bunny will sing "Here Come the British" for the benefit of WABC-Columbia listeners on Wednesday, July 4, from 5:45 to 6:00 P. M., A. S. T. The boys are to open the musical festivities with an original composition and later will sing "Moon Country", and "Why Don't You Practice What You Preach" Another feature of the presentation will be a guitar solo by Carl Kress.

Well! well, well, the chain store that is said to do the largest volume of business in the city doesn't pay sufficient taxes to get its name in the newspaper list.
