

Dr. Wood's The Croupy Cough Worries the Mother

Norway
Pine
Syrup

Mothers should never neglect the first sign of a cold or cough where their children are concerned, for if they do some serious trouble of the bronchial tubes may develop.

Half the battle in doctoring children is to give them something they will like; something they will take without any fuss, and this the mother will find in Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. It acts promptly, soothing the air passages, loosening the phlegm, strengthening the bronchial tubes and fortifying them against serious chest troubles.

HON. SENATOR M'RAE SEES ANOTHER EUROPEAN WAR WITHIN PERIOD OF FIVE YEARS

Ottawa, Feb. 1—Canada should retire from the League of Nations while the opportunity exists to do so "honourably" lest the Dominion become embroiled in a European war, said Hon. A. D. MacRae of Vancouver in the Senate today.

"In my judgement," Senator MacRae said "a European war is a certainty within five years." In suggesting an early withdrawal from the League of Nations he expressed the opinion that "no Canadian life should be sacrificed on the future battlefields of Europe." Senator MacRae is no stranger to war. He served with distinction during the Great War as quartermaster-general of the Overseas Canadian Forces, and as director of organization for the ministry of information in Great Britain. He holds the rank of major-general. His statements today were made in the course of the debate on the address in reply to the Speech from the Throne.

Recent Observations

Basing his conclusions upon observations made during a recent tour of Central Europe, Senator MacRae declared that the result of the Versailles Treaty had been to set up a group of countries filled with racial ambitions and racial hatreds.

He was unimpressed, Senator MacRae said, of the work done by the League in suppression of the narcotic and white slave traffic, but it had failed in its main objective of establishing international peace.

When we see great nations that are already over-populated, paying a bonus for large families," Senator MacRae observed, "it is not difficult to see what is in their minds."

Senator Black

Senator F. B. Black, of Sackville, N.B., also discussed the League of Nations during the debate this afternoon. He expressed regret that the League had not proved more powerful. One of the chief reasons for its weakness, he thought was, there was nothing to prevent any nation leaving it when it desired. In this way Japan and Germany and several South American countries, had dropped out when it suited their purpose.

A far more effective instrument to insure the peace of the world would be a union of the British Empire and the United States, Senator Black said. This combination could force any nation to prove the justness of its position before launching an attack. Great Britain was essentially a world nation, more interested, for example, in India, than in any countries in Europe. The dominions were scattered over the globe. On the other hand the United States was the world's greatest self-contained nation. Other nations, France particularly, might be added, but he thought that the two Anglo-Saxon nations were the best fitted to unite in such an undertaking. The central bank proposal received both criticism and support in the Senate today, while Senator MacRae urged an immediate move toward lowering interest rates, devaluation of the Canadian dollar to 60 cents, unification of management of the Canadian railroads, and removal of the 30,000 destitute farmers from the southern sections of the Prairie provinces to a more suitable soil.

The address was passed without amendment or division and the Senate adjourned until Feb. 20.
