: FOR THE WOMEN .

GRAPEFRUIT FIZZ

One half cup sugar; two tablespoons white corn syrup; two cups water; one cup pineapple juice (syrup from one No. 2 can); one can grapefruit juice; one fourth cup lemon juice (about one or one and one half lemons); one quart ginger ale; mint.

Segments of grapefruit.
 Boil the sugar, corn syrup and water together for five minutes to make a "simple syrup". Cool; add the pineapple juice, grapefruit juice, lemon juice and chill thoroughly. Just before serving, add ginger ale; pour the beverage over cracked ice in tall glasses. Stand stalks of mint in the sugar syrup while it is cooling, if desired then strain before adding the fruit juices. Garnish with the tops of mint and segments of grapefruit.
 Left over syrup from any canned fruits may be used for this recipe.

ENERGY DRINK

One cup orange juice; three quarters cup white corn syrup; one fourth cup water.
 Cook the orange juice, corn syrup and water together to make a heavy syrup. Cool and keep the syrup until ready to use. When ready to make that long, tall drink, mix two cups orange juice, two cups pineapple juice and one third cup lemon juice with the foundation syrup; add ice and about six pint bottles of ginger ale just before serving.

For a delicious grape champagne, mix white grape juice (which has been stored in the refrigerator) with equal parts of carbonated water.

GRAPEFRUIT FRAPPE

One and one half teaspoons gelatin; two tablespoons cold water; one half cup boiling water; one half cup sugar; one and one third cups sweetened fresh grapefruit juice (or canned juice); one fourth cup lemon juice.
 Soak the gelatin in the cold water; dissolve in boiling water. Add the sugar and cool. Add the grapefruit and lemon juice. Freeze to a mush in freezer or mechanical refrigerator tray. Serve as first course or dessert. To make a beverage, just fill a tall glass with the frappe and add chilled grape juice or ginger ale.

FROSTED CHOCOLATE

Three cups milk; one cup boiling water; five tablespoons cocoa; eight tablespoons white corn syrup; pinch of salt; Vanilla ice cream.
 Put the milk and boiling water in a saucepan. Add the cocoa, corn syrup and salt and bring to a boil. Beat and let cool. Then chill and pour in tall glasses. Put one scoop of vanilla ice cream in each glass; stir until frothy and serve.

LEMON-EGG FIZZ

Place in a cocktail shaker the juice of one lemon, one egg white, one half teaspoon powdered sugar, a scoop of cracked ice. Fill to equal one highball glass, with seltzer water. Shake until mixture foams, strain into highball glass and top with dash of nutmeg.

The poet's lore often runs the gamut from verse to reverse.

RED CHERRY BOUNCE

One third cup sugar; three tablespoons white corn syrup; one half cup water; one No. 2 can grapefruit juice; one fourth cup lemon juice; one and one half cups canned or fresh sweetened cherry juice.

Boil the sugar, corn syrup and water together for five minutes; cool and add cherry juice. Chill and pour over cracked ice in tall beverage glass. This may be stored in the refrigerator in covered containers.
