The Obstinate Cough That Keeps You Awake

It's the cough that sticks; the cough that hangs on; the cough it is hard to get rid of that causes the nerve and throat wracking cough that keeps you awake at night.

Why not get a bottle of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup and see how quickly it will relieve this coughing condition. It loosens the phlegm, soothes the irritated membranes, strengthens the bronchial organs, and when this is done there is no more lying awake with the irritating cough.

Price, 35c. a bottle; large family size, 65c.; at drug and general stores; put up only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

GOVERNMENT DETERMINED TO PROTECT THE CENTRAL BANK FROM POLITICAL EXPEDIENCY

Ottawa, Ont., March 8.—The determination of the government to protect the proposed central bank from on the one hand, and private exploitation for selfish profit on the other, was voiced by Hon. E. N. Rhodes, minister of finance, speaking in the House of Commons today on second reading of the Bank of Canada Act. Mr. Rhodes vigorously opposed an amendment moved by G. G. Coote (U. F. A., McLeod), which would have the effect of altering the act so that the bank would be wholly government-owned and controlled.

The Coote amendment was subsequently ruled out of order and the debate, which continued on the main motion for second reading, was still in progress, when the 11 o'clock adjournment was reached. It will be resumed tomorrow by J. S. Woodworth (Labor, Winnipeg North Centre).

Authorities Cited

Mr. Rhodes quoted from many authorities and incidents to indicate the evils that might arise from establishing a wholly government-owned central bank, and admitting that similar weakness might be found in a wholly privately-owned institution, claimed that the safeguards thrown about the proposed Bank of Canada would mean following a safe middle course.

Rt. Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, Liberal leader, while of the opinion that the provisions of the bill did not go far enough in protecting the interests of the general public, said the official would not delay reference of the measure to the committee on banking and commerce.

"The main purpose of a central bank is, and ought to be," he said, "to protect the public. It is and should be a government bank, the government being representative of the interests of the public."

Bank Regulation

A series of notices of motion, which if adopted, would have a far-reaching effect upon the chartered banks of Canada with respect to salaries, investments and management, were given today before the Commons committee on banking and commerce. H. E. Spencer (U. F. A.—Battle River) would have ownership of bank shares restricted to British subjects ordinarily resident in Canada and would abolish the practice of shareholders voting by proxy.

Motion Delayed

The motion of Major C. G. Power, Liberal member for Quebec South, calling for an investigation into Canadian banks was today put over until the next meeting of the committee.

R. B. Hanson, K. C., Conservative member for York-Sunbury and chairman of the committee, said that he had been "considerably perturbed" over the motion in its legal aspect as respected procedure. He asked that it be allowed to stand until further consideration had been given.

HIGH SCHOOL PLAY PROVED SUCCESSFUL

Three Act Farce and Specialties Please Audience—To Be Repeated Tonight.

The three act farce comedy "She's a Good Fellow" was successfully presented last evening in the high school auditorium to a capacity audience for its first showing. The characters in the play are excellently chosen and it would be hard to single out any particular one for individual praise. The entire play is pleasingly natural with a spice of humor throughout with here and there situations which are truly melo-dramatic. The action of the play takes place in the living room of the Tyler's Summer Home where events occur rapidly.

Jack Thurrott in the role of Leo Lane, a misunderstood young man, took the audience with him in the main action of the play wherein he wins his heart's desire and all who have passed the tender age of sixteen can see and laugh at themselves as well as typical situations enacted by others of the cast.

Between Acts I and II "An Old Fashioned Frolic" was depicted ending up with a modern waltz which was received with much enthusiasm and easily earned an encore.

The directors and players deserve much credit for the excellence of the entertainment presented. This will be repeated this evening. The cast was as follows:

Rose Gardner—Millicent Ramsay, Ivy Gardner—Phyllis Wilby (Daughters of George Gardner).

Wright Gilmore, a young business man—Harold Tait;

Violet Gardner, daughter of George Gardner—Marjorie Dickison.

Corinne Tyler, daughter of Theodore Tyler—Margaret Brown.

Mrs. Beulah Tyler of Theodore Tyler—Charlotte Montgomery.

Theodore Tyler, business man—John Richards.

Briget McGerr, a cook—Leona Toner.

Leo Lane, a misunderstood young man—Jack Thurrott.

Miss Prudence Pepper, housekeeper for George Gardner—Sylvia Levine.

George Gardner, a widower—George Fletcher.

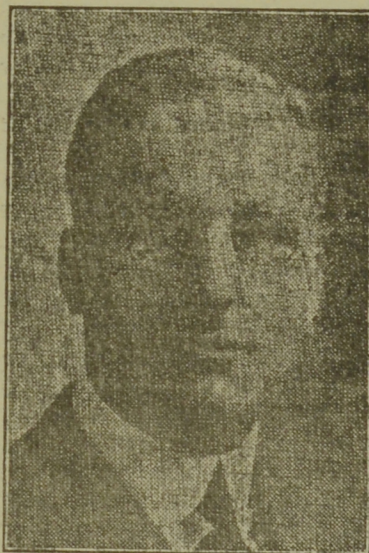

Mamie Clancy, another—Barbara McCunn.

al and Varietal Studies of Apples"; and W. R. Butland, District Fruit and Vegetable Inspector, Dominion Fruit Branch, Saint John, whose address was on "The Results of Researches on the Control of Soil-Borne Diseases."

The report of the secretary-treasurer, A. G. Turney showed the Association in good financial condition. President Dingee's address was principally taken up with a report on his attendance at the Canadian Horticultural Council meeting in Ottawa recently, where he was a representative from New Brunswick Fruit Growers' Association. He reported on the fruit and apple industry and mentioned the new fruit act, which when adopted will have a widespread inter-provincial trade effect. He referred to the clean-up program on apple maggots and reported that much progress had been made. "By 1927," said the president, "we hope to have a clean sheet in the cleanup of the apple maggot." He offered a number of suggestions regarding marketing, chief of which was his announcement that New Brunswick had a good market in the Near East—Egypt and Palestine—if it was properly developed. The shipments of fall apples in this way would have a tremendous effect on provincial apple marketing conditions.

The meeting continues this afternoon with election of officers and a number of important addresses.

The intention is to mark the late Harry Allen's grave in the little churchyard at Penniac with a granite boulder, simple testimony to the pioneer service of the late Mr. Allen. The rugged face of the boulder will be marked by a bronze plaque bearing a fitting epitaph. The unveiling ceremony will be held during the coming summer at the little church in Penniac, where during his lifetime Mr. Allen was a regular attendant.

A ROCKEFELLER TURNS SOCIALIST

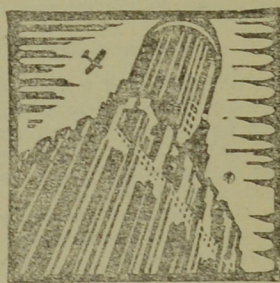

New York, N.Y., March 9.—Mrs. John D. Rockefeller, 3d, wife of the eldest son of John D. Rockefeller, Jr., is enrolled as a member of the Socialist party.

This was revealed by the official enrolment lists, which also showed her husband enrolled as a Republican.

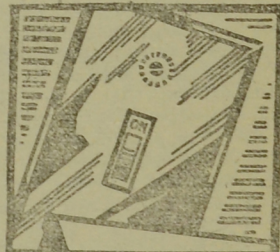

Mrs. Rockefeller who is the former Blanche Hocker, of Greenwich, Ct., would not comment. Party leaders were too surprised to comment.

The Rockefellers were married in 1932, a year after Mrs. Rockefeller was graduated from Vassar College. She is actively interested in social and welfare projects.
