Manager Follett of the Boston Show saw the exhibit in New York and applied to Surveyor General Sweeney to have it sent to Boston and the Surveyor General complied with his request. Arrangements for the show are being made by the Fredericton Tourist Association.

Fishing Leases Sold

The sale of fishing leases at the Crown land office this morning was fairly well attended. Five leases on the Restigouche river were sold at an advance of $50 on the upset price and there was very little competition.

The sale resulted as follows:

A Bereaved Senator

Friends of Senator Thompson will deeply sympathize with him in the bereavement he has been called upon to suffer within the last few months. Since he went to Ottawa to attend to Parliamentary duties this session he has been called to New Brunswick five times by the sudden deaths of relatives or others very near to him. First his esteemed wife died, almost without warning and before he could reach her bedside; then his book-keeper C. A. Miles was called away; next Hon. A. G. Blair, then successively his brothers in law the late Gov. Snowball and the late J. L. Black.
