

A GLANCE AT THE LOCAL NEWS
OF FREDERICTON 27 YEARS AGO

(FROM THE DAILY HERALD
MARCH 7, 1907).

Farewell Address
A pleasant incident took place in the executive council chamber on Tuesday when His Honour Lt. Governor Tweedie was waited upon by officials of the local government and presented with a complimentary and farewell address. The address was read by R. W. L. Tibbets, deputy provincial secretary, and His Honor who was much affected made an appropriate reply. The address was signed by T. B. Winslow, R. W. L. Tibbets, G. N. Babbitt, J. R. Inch, J. Howe Dickson, T. A. Peters, T. G. Loggie, Frank S. Sadler, R. S. Barker, C. A. McVey, Peter Hughes, G. F. Coy, A. R. Wetmore, J. A. McPeake, Frances J. Tibbitts, W. P. Flewelling, E. A. MacKay, W. A. Loudoun, Mary W. Thompson, C. Sterling Brannen, Gertrude MacDonald, James Lynn, T. C. Allen, R. B. Wallace S. W. Babbitt, J. R. Hanlon, and John A. Donahue. (Messrs. W. A. Loudoun, E. A. MacKay, C. A. McVey, J. P. McPeake, and R. B. Wallace are the only ones in the above list who are now in the public service).

City Council
The last regular meeting of the present city council was held last evening with all the members present. Tax collections for the month totalled $7,710.12 an increase of $2,425.53 over the corresponding month of last year. A tender from the Bank of Montreal for the city account was accepted. His Worship the Mayor announced his retirement from office after two years of service. Farewell addresses were delivered by Ald. T. H. Colter, Ald. W. W. Boyce and His Worship Mayor McNally.

In the House
When the legislature resumed yesterday afternoon the new Premier Hon. Dr. Pugsley announced the appointment of his predecessor Hon. L. J. Tweedie to the office of Lieutenant Governor. In paying a tribute to the new governor he said that he had the unique record of having held office in the government a period of seventeen years—a record since confederation. J. D. Hazen, Leader of the Opposition paid tribute to the late Governor Snowball and spoke highly of his successor with whom he had sat in the House for eight sessions. He thought it was but natural that Hon. Dr. Pugsley should have been called upon to form a new administration.

Snared at Last
A report comes from Sussex that Ora P. King a good looking and popular member of the Legislature, tiring of single wretchedness, has decided to enter the matrimonial condition at an early date. The ruture Mrs. King is a much esteemed resident of Sussex, Miss Connolly, daughter of Robert Connolly the well known lumber operator. The date of the wedding has not yet been fixed but it will likely be before Mr. King makes his next appeal to the yeomanry of Kings.

The New Government
In the Legislature yesterday, Hon. Dr. Pugsley announced the personnel of the new government as follows:—Premier and Attorney-General Hon. William Pugsley; Chief Commissioner of Public Works, Hon. C. H. La Billois; Commissioner for Agriculture, Hon. L. P. Farris; Surveyor General, Hon. F. J. Sweeney; Solicitor General Hon. W. P. Jones; without portfolio Hon. C. W. Robinson. He added that Hon. Mr. Robinson had been offered the position of provincial secretary but it had not been deemed advisable to made the appointment during the session as it would mean a bye-election. Hon. Mr. Robinson vacated the Speaker's chair and was succeeded by Hon. C. J. Osman member for Albert.

Veteran Legislator
Urban Johnson, M.P.P. for Kent who is in the city attending to his Legislative duties was first elected to the legislature in 1869 and has held his seat almost continuously since that date. With the single exception of Hon. George F. Hill, Mr. Johnson's experience as a legislator dates further back than any other member of the House. Mr. Johnson says that Hon. Mr. Jugsley will make one of the most successful Premiers New Brunswick ever had and he is satisfied and pleased with Hon. Mr. Tweedie's appointment as Lieutenant Governor.

Personal Mention
Aaron Lawson, barrister of Edmundston is among the guests at the Queen. Messrs James Barner and Urban Johnson, M.P.P.'s for Kent took their seats in the Legislature yesterday for the first time this session.
Fred M. Tweedie, C.E., eldest son of His Honor the Lieutenant Governor is among the guests at the Queen.
L. A. Dugal of Edmundston is a guest at the Queen.

A SNOB GETS HIS
A wealthy retired tailor once remarked to King Edward VII that he did not intend to go to a certain party because the company was usually "so mixed." "Mixed?" retorted the King. "Confound it, man, what do you expect? We can't all be tailors."

REPORT OF THE FREDERICTON
HEALTH BOARD

Many Public Patients
Received Treatment at Clinics—Other Activities Carried On.

To Wm. Watwick, M.D. D.P.H. Chief Medical Officer, Fredericton, N. B.

I beg to submit the following Annual Report, for transmission to the Hon. Minister of Health, for the year 1932-33.

O. E. Morehouse, M. D.
District Medical Health Officer
Edna M. Farrell, Secretary.

Cases of, and Deaths from Notifiable Diseases. A total of 119 cases of notifiable diseases was reported, being a considerable increase over last year. This increase was due to an epidemic of measles of a mild nature which prevailed among school children. Every case was promptly investigated and the Board feels that all cases were reported.

Inoculation Clinics— Dr. Loggie, Medical Inspector of Schools, is at the present time holding inoculation clinics in each of the City Schools and the press is being freely used in an attempt to impress upon parents the advantage of having children receive the complete toxoid treatment. The number receiving complete treatment to date is as follows: pre-school, 210 school, 540 and adults, 5, making a total of 755.

Nuisance—Our Sanitary Inspector made a thorough inspection of the City starting as early as possible in the spring. Regular monthly reports of his work have been filed; these have been compiled quarterly and forwarded to your office. Dairies, barns and milk dealers' premises were inspected and milk samples collected each month.

Inspection of Camps—Lumber, Construction, Tourist — Tourist camps were inspected and found in good sanitary condition.

Hotels—Six hotels were inspected and received licenses.

Plumbing and Drainage. — Plans have been filed and all new work and repair work has been inspected. Fixtures installed by unlicensed plumbers early in the year were ordered removed. Later these were installed by a licensed plumber.

Work of Sanitary Inspector and

NOTABLES AT THE CENTENNIAL CELEBRATION

Toronto Begins Its Second Century With An Impressive Event.

Toronto, March 6—In an impressive service of thanksgiving and prayer, Toronto today closed its first century with a covenant of allegiance, fellowship and honor. The city opened its second century to the reverent strains of Stanford's Te Deum and the victorious staccatos of Handel's Hallelujah Chorus.

Twelve thousands persons attended a service in the Coliseum. His excellency the Governor-General, Earl of Bessborough, sat with Mayor W. J. Stewart and the city fathers in the centre of the great audience.

Prime Minister R. B. Bennett and Rt. Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, Dominion Liberal leader—the latter the grandson of William Lyon Mackenzie, Toronto's first mayor—sat in the boxes. The faculties of the University of Toronto, leaders of the church, representatives of the military services, the police force and the fire departments of the city, occupied reserved blocks on the floor of the great hall.

The singing was led by the centennial choirs of 2,500 voices, under the direction of Dr. H. A. Fricker.

Staff, Generally— The work of the Sanitary Inspector has been highly satisfactory. Nuisances were promptly removed or abated; schools were disinfected after all outbreaks of notifiable disease and the sanitary condition of the City has maintained a high standard.

Medical Inspection of Schools—This service is being carried on to the satisfaction of the Board.

Closure of Houses—No houses were closed by the Board during the year.

Legal Proceedings—Charged with practising plumbing without a license, a resident of this City and a resident of York County were summoned to appear in the local court having pleaded guilty. A fine of $25,000 each was imposed and allowed to stand with the defendants paying costs of the case.

A Jewish resident charged with keeping pigs within the limits of the City was convicted and paid a fine of $25.00 and costs.

Board and Staff
Members of Board— O. E. Morehouse, M.D., D.M.H.O., Chairman, Upper Keswick; Dr. A. F. VanWart (C); Dr. A. L. Gerow (G); Alderman M. Mitchell (C); P. Farrell (C); D. J. Shea (C); B. Green (C), Secretary— Mrs. E. M. Farrell; Sanitary Inspector—A. C. Fleming; Plumbing Inspector—A. K. Limerick. Analyst—Dr. H. Hagerman; Sub-Deputy Registrar— Mrs. E. M. Farrell; Medical Inspector of Schools—Area 11 (part), Dr. W. S. Loggie, Chatham.

INTELLIGENT
CANINE KNEW ALL
ABOUT POLITICS

(Halifax Herald)

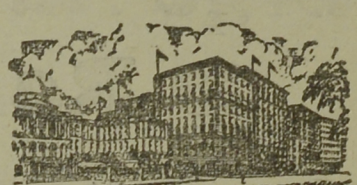

"Case dismissed!"
Cleverness of a politically-minded dog called "Mutt" saved his master, William Day, of Jeddore from conviction in the County Magistrate's Court yesterday.

Day was charged with being the owner of a dog which attacked Eldridge Dooks, a 9 year old boy without provocation. Evidence had been given at a previous hearing that the dog had torn nine holes in the boy's arm. Yesterday, however, Patrick Day, William Myers and Lester Day were called by the defence to show that the dog was only "playful". Patrick Day said that the boy had annoyed him by taking a bone away from him.

Knew Its Politics
One witness suggested that the dog was so intelligent that it knew its own "politics."

"Is it true that your dog Mutt is a Conesrvative dog?" counsel for the defence, W. N. Wickwire, asked the accused "Yes", said Mr. Day. And just to prove it, called the dog to the witness stand.

"What would you do if you were a Liberal?" witness asked the canine. Promptly the dog lay down on the courtroom floor, rolled over and lay as if dead.
