

BOSTON GROUP TO TAKE CONTROL OF FAMOUS GARDEN

Want To Rent Boston Garden For a Period of Five Years.

Boston, Mass., July 13—Negotiations for a Boston group to take control of the Boston Garden are in a progressive stage, it was announced after a meeting of the Garden directors held today.

At the close of the meeting, Col. John S. Hammond, president of the New York Madison Square Garden Corporation, which holds a controlling interest in the Boston Garden, issued the following statement:

"At the meeting of the directors of the Boston Garden today, we discussed the negotiations I had and am having with Henry Lapham, president of the Boston Arena. It is proposed that a Boston group would undertake operation of the Garden and the Arena with a view to operating the two properties with a common interest, not only so that both may be paying properties, but with the further view of operating them to the benefit of sport in general in Boston.

"Negotiations are under way with the Boston and Maine Railroad for a satisfactory arrangement as to rent of the Boston Garden for the next five years.

"It is my belief that if a Boston syndicate should take over the majority of Garden stock and if a satisfactory arrangement can be made with the Boston and Maine, the plan would be an advantageous one for all concerned and for sport in Boston".

Colonel Hammond said that no definite date has been set for another meeting.

THE BABE'S LEGS CREAKING, MAY TOUR ORIENT

Great Bambino Will Try Hitting Oriental Pitching In Barnstorm Trip This Coming Fall.

New York, N.Y., July 13—Loudly have the Ruthian dogs barked during the tropical heat of the last week. With the once soft and springy turf of the outfield now baked as hard as an asphalt road by the summer sun, the great man's underpinning is giving him a good deal of trouble and pain. After the Yankees got off to a four run lead in the first inning of yesterday's second game the Babe pulled out inlander without ever going to his left field post—he plays left field in Boston, since right field is the sun field at Fenway Park—and his tour of duty was finished by Myril Hoag.

Uttering low groaning noises like those usually heard from offstage ghosts, in mystery melodramas, the Babe revealed his present state of misery coming down on the train from Boston last night.

"In all the twenty one years I've been playing baseball", moaned the illustrious hero, "I've never looked forward to seeing October 1 roll around so much in my life. Boy, do my legs hurt?"

Yet, lying back in the imperial berth a few minutes later, his creaking underpinning stretched out comfortably over the cool white sheet, the Babe enthusiastically told of his plans to tour the Orient and Australia next fall with a troupe of major league ball players, under the guidance of Tom Shibe, one of the owners of the Philadelphia Athletics.

"I ought to get a million home runs off those Jap pitchers, eh?" chuckled the old rascal, all thoughts of his aching ankles lost in a reverie of alien fields to conquer. Wotta man!

JOHNSTON IS REFUSED PERMIT TO STAGE SCRAP

New York, July 13—Reiterating its recent decision the New York State Boxing Commission again today refused to grant Jimmy Johnston, Madison Square Garden matchmaker, permission to stage a world's light heavy-

WILLS RETURNS

London, England, July 13—Helen Wills Moody embarked for New York on the North German Lloyd liner Bremen. She had been reporting the international tennis matches at Wimbledon. Miss Helen Jacobs the American singles champion Miss Virginia Rice, of Boston, also sailed for the United States aboard the Olympic. Both are recovering from throat trouble which attacked them after the Wimbledon championships.

BRITISH OPEN CHAMPION A COOL GOLF PLAYER

Henry Cotton Is Nerveless and Methodical—Is An Amazing Player.

Sandwich, England, July 13—Henry Cotton, the new British open golf champion, is one of the most determined and methodical young men in the business.

While other entrants in the British open championship dined well and sat up late fanning over the days' play, Cotton had an early dinner and retired by 9 o'clock. At that hour it isn't even dark in England at this time of year.

To make doubly certain that his muscles would be flexible and every nerve in order, the tall Briton even brought along his own masseuse from Belgium. The latter, a short, plump, individual with sharply waxed moustache, has worked over Cotton with care twice daily.

The American professional here agree that Cotton is a vastly improved shotmaker over the player who made a swing around the American winter golfing circuit in 1929.

They recalled he was quiet and studious even then and anxious to learn the fine points of the game as it was played in America. Since he returned to England to take his post as pro at the Waterloo Club in Brussels, Cotton has practiced hours almost daily. Now he has attained such perfection that spectators complained it was almost monotonous to follow him around the course.

"It looks as if he has a string attached to the ball and can place it at any desired spot", said one fan.

The accuracy of his approaches was such that he seldom left himself more than a three or four foot putt once on the greens. Of the twenty clubs in his bag only the putter has a wooden shaft.

His amazing play here came as no surprise to those who have watched him this spring. Preceding the open he scored successive rounds of 78, 66, 69 and 68 in the Southport professional tournament.

Although quiet and not inclined to get boisterous at any time, Cotton is extremely popular in England. Before he teed off on his first qualifying round, it was noticeable the large number of well-wishers who shook him by the hand or slapped him on the back.

He's unmarried but is said to be very much in love with a comely Belgian miss, who played a spectator's role here, watching every shot he made.

He's on the tall side, well put together and slightly stoop-shouldered. His hair is so black and his face so sunburned and swarthy that he might easily be taken for a Latin.

weight championship fight between the titleholder, Maxie Rosenbloom, and the social slogger, Enzo Fiermonte. Johnston made a fiery plea for the bout but he could not win the commissioners to change their earlier decision.

Commissioner Bill Brown, offering fatherly advice, suggested that Johnston take the fight to Newport or perhaps one of the smaller clubs in New York.

PIE TRAYNOR OVERHAULS THE PIRATE TEAM

Pittsburgh, Pa., July 13—Five years ago Pit Traynor of the Pirates could have been manager of the Cincinnati Reds. Sidney Weil, then owner of that team, offered him the job, but the Pirate third baseman turned down the offer. Traynor said he wanted to devote all his energy to playing third base for Pittsburgh and to let someone else bear the burden of managing the Reds. The success Bill Terry had last season in winning the pennant and the world series evidently has caused Traynor to change his mind.

As manager Traynor knows what his prospects are. The Pirates are weak on the mound, and the outfield that on paper should be a sensation is a disappointment. Otherwise the team is not so far out of the race that a burst of sound pitching and lusty hitting would not put it at the top.

Star ball players do not always make first class managers, but Terry and Frisch have proved that they can get a lot of work out of their players. Frisch has the Cards in the fight this year, and Terry feels confident that he will be able to push the Giants through for another pennant. Traynor, as a third baseman and all around man, ranks as high in the sport as do Terry and Frisch.

NICHOLS BEAT MARYSVILLE AT COTTON TOWN

Score 3 to 1 Last Night; Win Puts Pets Solidly In Second Place—'Nick' Fans P. Minue With the Sacks Loaded.

Fredericton Pets won a 3 to 1 verdict from the Marysville Maroons in a regular York County league game last night, the home team being unable to hit Charlie Nichols, the Pets' elongated hurler with any degree of regularity. Nichols' mound performance was one of his best this season.

One of the features of the evening was a home-run by George Arnold, the Maroons' star second baseman. The hit was a hard drive through the infield. The victory puts the Pets into a strong second place position within firing distance of the league leaders. Marysville's chance to get into one of the playoff positions is now in jeopardy.

The summary:—
R. H. R.
Marysville 1 3 3
Fredericton 3 7 0
Batteries—Estey, and McCafferty; Nichols and Boyne.

Make the Most of Summer Use the Railways for Touring.

Public opinion in Canada has enthusiastically endorsed the movement for increasing tourist travel. From every point of view only good can result. There is, however, a tendency to associate this movement almost wholly with the bringing in of visitors from other countries.

Of course these guests are welcome and their numbers cannot be too great; but Canadians should themselves share in the pleasures of their own country to the fullest extent possible.

To enjoy Canada it is not necessary to traverse hundreds of miles. Quite frequently a short railway journey will open up unexpected avenues of happiness and health at little cost of time and money. Longer trips will naturally provide more decided changes of atmosphere and scene and will prove well worth the time and expense involved.

Let us show our visitors that we ourselves appreciate what our country offers so bountifully. In doing so all business will be stimulated. A vacation tour, or a short trip, can therefore be not only a source of pleasure to oneself but of distinct advantage to the country.

The railways through their transportation systems, hotels, lodges, and summer resorts are very important contributors to the comfort and happiness of the pleasure seeker, whether he be the welcome stranger within our gates or the resident Canadian. Canadian National Railways are equipped to provide full and satisfactory service and the cost is pleasantly low.

You can wholeheartedly recommend the C. N. R. to your friends abroad, and you can use it yourself, feeling that in your search for pleasure, no less than at other times when in quest of business, it is your safe, dependable, and willing helper.

Railways provide special summer fares and excursions. You should enquire about them.
