

MR. ONELINER

Of whom you all have HEARD, and
Also have seen,
PROBABLY,
Only you don't
IT. (This is a JOKE on you),
Came home last Night from a shopping trip all EXCITED.
SHE
Was so nerved Up that it took her the Best part of an hour to tell me About it.
She was so worn Between indignation and Pride that she didn't Know whether to Be mad or
PROUD.
I finally Gathered what the Matter was.
Some masher had Tried to flirt
With her on the street.
"I never was so Surprised in my Life," said she
"He must have thought I Was a kid.
The shameful thing!
He came right Up to me and he Said, 'Where are You going, little
ONE?'"
"Well," I asked, "What did You say?"
"Say? I was so

Flustered I couldn't say ANYTHING."
(INTERMISSION.)
About two a.m. I felt a Prod under the Fifth rib
And I came to. My JOY and PRIDE Was Awake. "I've Got it," said she. "I know What I should have said to That masher. When he asked 'Where are you going?' I Should have said
NONCHALANTLY
(Whatever that is)
'Oh, I'm only going as far As that policeman
Over there.
I'm going to report You.' I bet that would make Him sit up. But we Never think of those Good lines till afterward."

(Canadian Press.)
Paris, Feb. 7.—A number of Swiss

Notice of such intention has been given in letters received by manufacturers and directors of establishments, against which the threats were directed.

The Journal du Jura is published in Jura, a department of France bordering on Switzerland.

SOME COMMENTS ON
COL. HOUSE'S MISSION

(Canadian Press.)

Paris, Feb. 7.—Georges Clemenceau, formerly French premier, commenting in his newspaper, L'Homme En-chane, on Col. House's mission, which, he says, "seems to be characteristic of President Wilson's spirit of hesitation," writes:

"Europe has suddenly seen a dumb missionary disembark on its shores for a tour of inspection among the combatants. He has passed everywhere, appearing and disappearing by turns, like the Flying Dutch in the mists of the horizon. He said nothing, his whole mission evidently being to observe. His task, I suppose, is to report faithfully to the President-candidate, the conclusions he draws from personal observation as to the balance of force between the belligerents."

"I know nothing about Colonel House," concludes M. Clemenceau, "but the fact that he has been chosen for this investigation by the first magistrate of the American republic leads me to infer that he has at least the qualities of observation and good sense."

"This is enough to satisfy me as to the results of his mission."

"CASCARETS" FOR A
COLD, BAD BREATH
OR SICK HEADACHE

Best For Liver And Bowels or Biliousness, Sour Stomach and Constipation.

Get a 10-cent box now.

Furred Tongue, Bad Colds, Indigestion, Sallow Skin and Miserable Headaches come from a torpid liver and clogged bowels, which cause your stomach to become filled with undigested food, which sours and ferments like garbage in a swill barrel.
That's the first step to untold misery —indigestion, foul gases, bad breath, elbow skin, mental fears, everything that is horrible and nauseating. A cascaret tonight will give your constipated bowels a thorough cleansing and straighten you out by morning.
They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist will keep you feeling good for months. Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then to keep their stomach, liver and bowels regulated, and never know a miserable moment. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a good, gentle cleansing, too.

HIS FAVORITE BEAST.

Harris Dickson, on a hunting trip in Sunflower county, Mississippi, met an old darkey who had never seen a camel in his life. When the big show came in the following season to Dick-son's town of Vicksburg, he sent for the old man and treated him to the whole thing—arrival of the trains, putting up the tents, grand free street parade, menagerie, main performance, concert, side show, peanuts, red lemonade and all.

afternoon they came back to the Dickson home.
"John," said Dickson, "you enjoyed it?"
"Boss," said John fervently, "Ah shore did."
"What did you like the most?"
"Mistah Dickson," answered John,
"Ah shore laked hit all."
"Well, what impressed you most?"
"Well, sah, boss," he said, "Ah reckin' hit waz dat dere animal you calls de camuel."
"The camel, eh? Well, what was so remarkable about the camel?"
"He suttinly is got such a noble smell,"—Saturday Evening Post.

Opposition Platform

The following platform was adopted at the Opposition Convention held in St. John recently: In the event of the Opposition being returned to power, we pledge ourselves:—

NO PARTIZAN CONTROL OF CROWN LANDS.

1. We pledge ourselves to completely reorganize the Crown Lands Department, so that its administration shall be entirely severed from politics and administered on sound business principles under systematic plans by a non-partizan commission specially appointed for that purpose, responsible to the Legislature and working in co-operation with the Dominion Commission of Conservation.

TAKE THE HIGHWAYS OUT OF POLITICS.

2. We pledge ourselves to take the highways out of politics, giving the expenditure of the money collected from the people and the control of the labor, together with the Government appropriations, into the hands of supervisors, chosen by the people of each parish, to whom a detailed and audited account must be rendered every year at the annual meeting, and a duplicate thereof forwarded to the Department of Public Works, the work of the supervisors to be under the inspection of a competent provincial engineer.

We also pledge ourselves to set aside the money collected from the licenses upon automobiles and other motor vehicles, together with an equal appropriation from the revenues of the Province each year, to pay the interest upon the bonds to provide for permanent roads, which shall be constructed as rapidly as possible.

PROHIBITION PROVINCE WIDE.

3. We pledge ourselves at the first session of the Legislature to pass a law prohibiting the sale of intoxicating liquors within the Province to the fullest extent allowed by the Constitution, and within three months after the passage of said Act to submit the same by referendum to the electors of the Province, and should the majority of votes cast be in favor of the said law, then to bring the same into force by proclamation within one year thereafter.

ELECTION LAW.

4. (a) To amend the electoral law so as to make it impossible for members of the Legislature to traffic with the Government and still retain their seats.

(b) To make it possible for young men, when they reach the age of 21 years, to register their names and be placed forthwith upon the voters' lists, instead of waiting for the tedious machinery of revision as it now exists.

(c) To divide the counties into electoral districts which shall each be represented by one member.

(d) We will also consider amendments to the election law to make bribery in municipal as well as provincial elections impossible.

PROVINCIAL FINANCES.

5. To obtain at once a correct statement of the financial condition of the Province in order that the people may have definite knowledge of the vastly increased public debt and the enormous obligations of guaranteed bonds they will be called upon to pay; and to so reduce the cost of the administration of affairs and the number of useless officials as to avoid the necessity for direct taxation now confronting us.

AGRICULTURE.

6. To give the farmers all the practical assistance that the resources of the Province will permit, to improve agricultural methods and the quality and quantity of the stock upon the farm; to reduce the enormous salary list in the department, and to spend the educational grant received from the Federal Government without regard for political patronage.

VALLEY RAILWAY.

7. To complete the Valley Railway from a point on the Transcontinental Railway at or near Grand Falls, to St. John, and insist upon the Dominion Government carrying out the terms of the original legislation and allow the Province forty per cent. of the gross earnings thereof.

EDUCATION.

8. To always maintain and improve the educational service of the Province and to co-operate with the Federal Government in carrying out the recommendations of the commission upon technical education.

IMMIGRATION.

9. The inauguration of a vigorous immigration policy to properly place before intending immigrants, whose number will be large after termination of the war, the advantages of the agricultural possibilities of New Brunswick.
