Meeting in Moncton.

Concerning the meeting of the Moncton Police Commission yesterday morning, the Moncton Transcript has the following:

"The trend of public opinion that some steps should be taken to prevent if possible, the Chief of Police leaving Moncton and going to Fredericton, found expression this morning in a large and somewhat informal delegation, which waited upon the newly constructed board of police commissioners. His Honor Judge Borden was present in the chair and His Worship L.
W. McAnn and the newly-appointed commissioner, Capt. J. E. Masters.

"After the delegation retired, Capt.
Masters moved that the Chief's salary be increased to the former figure of $1,400 a year, and that he be paid the back salary during the period of deduction.

"This motion was not acceptable to the board, but a motion to restore the salary to the old figure of $1,400 a year was carried, to date from the first of August."

Other Possibilities.

There are several applicants for the position of police chief of Fredericton.
The two which appear to be most highly considered are Chief William Finley, of Newcastle, and Police Constable Bain of Montreal.

Chief Finley interviewed the Fredericton Police Commission on Friday last. He served twenty-one years on the St. John police force before going to St. John.

Constable Bain is highly recommended. He is a native of Scotland and served for some years on the force at Glasgow before going to Montreal.

Fire in Gibson.

A cottage owned by Councillor A. B.
Neill and situated near his residence in Gibson, was totally destroyed by fire at about 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The cottage was beyond the Gibson fire limits, and a bucket brigade did what it could toward fighting the fire. A neighboring cottage was saved. Mrs. Harland Yeomans occupied the house. Her property was all removed. There was no insurance on the dwelling.

Moonlight Excursion.

The Fredericton Brass Band ran a moonlight excursion on the steamer D. J. Purdy last night. A fairly large number of people attended and the band will at least meet expenses. Music was furnished by the band.

THE URBAN COMPANY DRAWS A BIG HOUSE

The Powerful Drama "Sinners" Delighted Large Audience Last Evening.

The popular Urban Stock Company began what promises to be a very successful three night's engagement at the Opera House last evening.

There was a large and representative audience and the play was thoroughly enjoyed. The great drama "Sinners" was the bill, and the strong features were well presented by Miss Mary Johnston, the talented leading lady, who had able support from the other members of the caste. The play pictures real people and real life, and is entirely free from vulgarity and profanity. The specialties put on between the acts were of the gill-edged variety and were thoroughly enjoyed.

This evening the company will put on the great New England drama,
"The Old Homestead." This play, although before the public for many years, has lost none of its old time popularity. It is undoubtedly one of the best pieces in the company's repertoire. An entire reproduction has been constructed for this play, and every detail will be reproduced faithfully and accurately and the play presented just as it was by the original company.

"The Old Homestead" has become a familiar story, but its rural characters are as sweet to the senses as ever. It was first presented to the public at the Boston Theatre in 1886—over thirty years ago—and it may be interesting to know that the character of Joshua Whitcomb is a reproduction of two actual personages in Swansey, N. H., known there as Captain Otis Whitcomb and Joshua Holbrook. Captain Otis furnished the comedy and Joshua the serious elements of this unique and life-like combination.

The many well known features such as "The Quartette," "Happy Jack," the tramp whom Uncle Joshua befriends, and who in turn later assists him while in New York city, where they accidentally meet in front of the famous Grace church. The singing of the choir, the passing of the Salvation Army and the return to the farm, the quarrelling of Cy Prime and Seth, etc., all of which are always remembered and looked forward to, will be found in this great play when presented by the Urban Stock Company at the Opera House on Tuesday night.
