THE OPENING SESSION OF THE LEGISLATURE WELL ATTENDED

of special comment are the camp for single men recently established in the counties of Sanjour and York and the proposed building of hard-surface highways.

The former enterprise giving these young men useful work to do while at the same time providing them with comfortable accommodations, seems to be working out successfully.

New Highways

The building of hard-surface highways with financial assistance from the Dominion Government should provide work for a large number, while at the same time giving us improved roads requiring less upkeep and free from the dust nuisance. Such highways will be a valuable asset to our province.

All these projects planned for the purpose of relieving unemployment should be so carried on that it will be in the interest of those who may be engaged therein to accept work in normal, self-sustaining industry whenever such an opportunity may offer. If this is not done we will be faced with the necessity of continuing such schemes long after they may be needed and at a cost in excess of the value of the services rendered.

Should Take Stock

There have been, in recent years, growing demands upon governments to interfere and assist where before it was never found necessary. Such assistance has no doubt been needed during the period of industrial depression and social unrest through which we have been passing, but now, with signs of returning prosperity it is not a good time for us to take stock of ourselves.

We should not forget that this province has in the past gone through many periods of stress but has always emerged to go forward to greater progress than ever before.

Important Anniversary

This year we will commemorate the 150th anniversary of the founding of New Brunswick as a separate province, a most appropriate time to recall the troubles and trials of our hardy forefathers and compare their lot with our own. In 1784 this province had a population of only 16,000 scattered over what was little better than a wilderness, the only means of communication being the waterways and rough forest trails. The early settlers were faced with obstacles that might well have seemed insurmountable, even to the most courageous, but in spite of these untold difficulties they determined here to establish a community under the British flag where future citizens might enjoy the blessings of British institutions. From humble homes, disciplined by toil and frugality came scholars and statesmen, leaders in the professions and in industry, men and women, who both in our own land and beyond its borders have won fame for themselves and brought lasting honor to their native province. Adversity to all these was not a hindrance, but developed in them such self-reliance, determination and diligence that they became capable of overcoming every obstacle.

Pioneers Praised

Down through the years they labored for the moral and material advancement of our province, fought in this legislature for greater political freedom and won for us responsible government.

They laid the foundations and built thereon peaceful and prosperous communities that have become our heritage, the benefits and blessings of which we often seem to so little appreciate.

Let us pay a tribute of honor and respect to the memory of these, who against great odds, have struggled and triumphed. Let us, in the spirit of their great sacrifices, face our difficulties with courage and hopefulness, having a firm faith in the future of our province and an abiding loyalty to our British institutions, every working together toward that ideal, which seeks after justice and liberty, happiness and prosperity for all our people.

MR. DYSART moved the adjournment of the debate.

HON. MR. TILLEY moved that further consideration should be the order of the day for Tuesday next.

HON. MR. TILLEY moved that a committee of five members, Messrs. Tilley, Brooks, Atkinson, Dysart and Doucet should be a committee to nominate all standing general committees.

HON. MR. LEGER submitted the reports and calendar of the University of New Brunswick also the agreement for preparing the synoptic report with W. W. Hubbard. The agreement was concurred in by the House and the official reporter assigned a seat on the floor.

A PROMISING COWBOY LEARNS ONE FROM AUTO

Port Pierce, Florida, Feb. 8.—The cowboy business just about brought death to Paul Collins, aged ten, and henceforth some other fellows will have to perpetuate traditions of the old West.

Stationed by the highway, the youngster lassoed everything that came in sight, including an automobile.

His rope was tied around his wrist and when the loop caught the bumper of the passing car, Paul was jerked off his feet and away he went.

The injuries were superficial and Cowboy Collins was able to limp home, but he left his lasso behind.

Unprecedented Winter For New Brunswick

the Loyalist building here has been delayed time after time. Ice cutters working on the river, have not been at work for several days.

Here's a Lucky Dog

Chicago, Ills., Feb. 8.—A pet puppy of the late Mrs. Allie Heafer, who died last December 16, won't have to live much of a dog's life.

A total of $3,000 was left in trust by Mrs. Heafer for the dog providing for a $15 a month board bill, to be paid Mrs. Stella Freyer, its keeper.

NEW HATS

Many lads with none too high scruples are swaggering around in new apparel picked up in the general rush last evening at the close of the Ball. On the other hand there are some minus their cherished belongings. We hope there will be another nice get-together soon where we can trade off some "lost" apparel.

Mrs. J. K. Hazen 96 Years Old Today were noted for their kindness and hospitality.

Cold Friday

Mrs. Hazen recalls the cold Friday Jan. 8th 1881 at which time her son, now Sir Douglas was the baby and at that time she recalls having had difficulty in keeping him warm. Mrs. Hazen chuckled when she referred to the Supreme Court in New Brunswick. There was much suffering at that time but Mrs. Hazen doesn't recall a winter during her long span of life in which there was such prolonged severe weather at the present weather. She is looking forward to the safe days of spring with eager anticipation.

Styles Changed

Enjoying excellent health Mrs. Hazen believes that people are extending their terms of life more so than formerly. With regard to ladies apparel Mrs. Hazen is very tolerant and a comparison of styles afford her keen enjoyment. The music of the radio gives Mr. Hazen much pleasure, especially when the severity of the weather compels her to remain indoors.

FRENCH JAIL WOMAN SPY

Strasbourg, France, Feb. 8.—Franz Sophie Drotz, of Germany, woman spy chief went to jail today for three years.

"La Belle Sophie", as she is known here, was given two terms; two years for espionage and one year for complicity in stealing a new model French machine gun.

Five men convicted of taking orders from here were jailed for one to five years each.

The woman spy chief was arrested last October in a night automobile drive toward the mandated Saar area. Her companion, French soldier, was charged with the actual theft of the machine gun found in the car.

Baltimore, Maryland, Feb. 8.—A ruby ring, stolen by a purse snatcher from Mrs. Elizabeth Hallie was sold at a pawnshop for one dollar.

Mrs. Hallie said it was appraised at $40,000 but the pawnshop dealer considered it just an ordinary red stone.

After recovering the ring, police arrested a Negro, Lee Maddox, as the purse snatcher.

A DOG TRACKED CONCRETE POURED IN YEAR 720 B.C.

Chicago, Ills., Feb. 8.—The troubles of concrete layers with people who leave tracks on freshly laid sidewalks are nothing new. The same thing bothered King Sargon of the Hittite empire in what is now Turkey in 720 B.C. A clay tablet on which Sargon's seal had been imprinted and left to dry also bears the footprints of a dog which ran across the tablet before it had hardened.

NEW BRUNSWICK PROTESTANT ORPHANS' HOME

Office, Room 12, 50 Princess Street, P. O. Box 796.

SAINT JOHN, N. B., Jan. 31, 1934.

TO THE PROTESTANT PEOPLE OF NEW BRUNSWICK, Ladies, Gentlemen and Children:

On January 1, 1933, there were 229 Children in Residence. On January 1, 1934, there were 233 Children in Residence. Of these 233 Children, 108 are available for adoption out; and they are entirely dependent for their necessities upon your generosity. The other 125, we call nominal boarders, because they each have a relative or guardian who is able to provide in part for them. Not more than one-quarter part on an average. The other three-quarters must come from your generosity.

In the past calendar year 92 Children have been admitted; 40 as wards for adoption out and 52 as nominal boarders. During the same time 88 Children have been removed. In 51 instances the circumstances of the relatives or guardians concerned had so changed that it became possible for them to otherwise care for the children. In 34 cases children have been placed under agreements of adoption into family homes where today they are loved and loving sons and daughters. Three Babies, all girls, of 5 months; 11 months, and 4 years old, respectively, passed away. In all 321 different children were helped on the road to good citizenship.

The Overdraft on January 1, 1933, was $27,000. On January 1, 1934, the Overdraft was $35,000. In spite of this increase of $8,000; hundreds of new contributors responded during the year to help meet the Children's needs. What is needed is at least a small gift from every Protestant in New Brunswick.

Without making any provision to reduce the Overdraft, it is estimated that it will cost about $62,500 to operate during 1934. Where is to come from? About as follows: For Children's Support, $5,000; from church collections, $5,000; interest on investments, $10,000; Grand Orange Lodges, $2,000; Knights of Pythias (Saint John) $500. A total of $22,500. Leaving $40,000 to come in as General Contributions. Or less than 25 cents apiece from Everyone of the over 200,000 Protestants in New Brunswick. Or $1.00 apiece from the head of every Protestant Family in New Brunswick. If the Protestant people of New Brunswick cannot unanimously respond to the cries of these Little Children, what can they unanimously respond to.

The Treasurer, P.O. Box 796, Saint John, N.B., awaits the privilege of sending you a receipt of thanks for your 1934 contribution.

We remain, on behalf of these Children;

Yours very truly,

JAMES W. BRITTAIN, President.
H. USHER MILLER, Secretary.
