DINED COMMITTEE
W. T. Whitehead, M.P.P., entertained the members of the Public Accounts Committee and officers at dinner at his beautiful new residence in Church street last evening. The function was a very enjoyable one and Mr. Whitehead proved himself an ideal host.

DR. CHOWN'S ADDRESS
A large number of people gathered last evening at the Methodist Church and listened to an able address by Rev. Dr. Chown on the work of the department of temperance and moral reform. The audience contributed nearly $50 to the work.

STUDENT'S ILLNESS
G. P. Burchill who is a student at the U.N.B., son of the Hon. G. P. Burchill of Nelson, was taken to the hospital this morning suffering from rheumatism.

PUBLIC ACCOUNTS
The public accounts committee of the legislature held a meeting this morning and further investigated horse hire, telephone and telegraph bills. Mr. Morrison got after the New Brunswick Telephone Company in connection with a warrant of $92.50 for rent and tolls for the Agricultural department. Mr. Smith called for warrants for on expenditure of $301. for telegrams for the Board of Works office. Objection was made to a payment of $45 for typewriting during the session. Mr. Smith thought the typewriters employed by the government should do the work. Mr. Murray replied that they were kept busy typewriting answers to enquiries made in the House by opposition members. A payment of $163.05 for firing a salute at the opening of the Legislature was criticised by several of the members and the consensus of opinion was that this formality might be done away with.

J. A. Dona hue, Joseph Cain, Patrick Donolly and H. C. Mackey.

THE SEWERAGE BILL
The opponents of Fredericton Sewerage plans threaten all kinds of things because of their defeat on the legislative vote, but what they promise is not likely to happen. Under the vote Fredericton has been told that it may proceed to the completion of its sewerage system and all that is ity embodying the principle of the necessary to give the specific author resolution has been passed by the House. The same majority that carried the resolution will see to it that the measure is enacted.

INCREASED SUBSIDY
An Ottawa despatch says: Sir Wilfrid Laurier last night gave notice of an address to His Majesty asking for an amendment to the B.N.A. Act concerning the scale of payments to be made by the Dominion to the several provinces. One amendment states that where the population of a province is 200,000 but does not exceed 400,000 there shall be an increased subsidy of 180,000. (This takes in the province of New Brunswick).

DR. STOCKTON DEAD
An Ottawa despatch announces that Dr. Alfred Augustus Stockton, M.P. for Saint John, died in the Water Street Hospital this morning after an illness of four weeks. The immediate cause of his death was acute pleurisy. His daughter was with him at the time of his death and Mrs. Stockton arrived from Saint John yesterday. The death of Dr. Stockton has caused a feeling of great sorrow among his colleagues in Parliament. He was 64 years of age. (Dr. Stockton practiced law in Saint John for many years and in 1883 was elected to the Legislature as successor of Hon. Dr. Elder. He was a supporter of the Blair government until 1889 when he differed with his leader over the appointment of a police magistrate in the city of Saint John. He was re-elected and soon afterwards became leader of the opposition which position he held until 1899. He was elected to the House of Commons as a Conservative in 1904.)

ASSESSMENT BILL
The much talked of Fredericton Assessment Bill was under fire before the municipalities committee of the Legislature for nearly two hours this morning. The sections relating to the taxing of church lands and insurance companies were considered and it was announced that the fixed income men would be given a hearing on Monday morning. The delegation present at today's meeting included: Rev. Father Carney and Patrick Farrell representing St. Dunstan's church; Rev. Canon Cowie and Dr. E. W. Henry, City clerk McCreedy, Ald. J. S. Scott, J. H. Barry, E. R. Machum, W. H. Gibson and others.

THE GERMAN
MIGRATION GOOD FOR FRANCE

Paris, March 15—The German "invasion of 1933" is over. France has absorbed it at the gross expenses of only 8,000,000 francs. Now the Greater Paris area shelters a little more than 8500 refugees. More than half of these, according to police statistics, are not only paying guests but represent a worthwhile investment. The eight millions spent on their less lucky brethren long since have been repaid.

(New York Sun)
Advice from the college campuses this winter says that garters are back again. The campus haberdasher again has calls for them; they're actually being worn. And to the collegian who can remember way back when the collegians on the rougher campuses of the country wore sweatshirts and corduroy trousers and were properly ostracised if they so much as admitted they wore garters with evening dress. The rumple of sock above the shoe of the collegian of the past few years was notorious; the more rumpled the better. The mannerism came in, it may be, when the coed began to roll her hose below the knee. Anyhow, it was one more than a hundred items symbolic of the "new freedom" or something of that kind.
The ero of the pocket flask passed with prohibition. With it evidently, has gone the garterless collegian.
Samuel Insull has to be careful not to engage one of these doctors that make you travel for your health. A woman doesn't marry a man for his money till she knows him like an open pocket-book.
