Notice to the Holders of Debentures of:

ASSOCIATED GAS and ELECTRIC COMPANY

You, of course, wish to do your utmost to safeguard your investment in the Debentures of Associated Gas and Electric Company. To do this we believe you should exchange them at once under the Plan of Rearrangement of Debt Capitalization.

About $100,000,000 of the Debentures of all series have been exchanged by well over 40,000 holders.

Realization by important banks, trust companies and investment dealers of the need for the Plan has been growing steadily. Many, who heretofore showed no interest or were opposed to it, have recently changed their opinion. They are now exchanging their own Debentures and advising others to do likewise without delay.

Options 1 and 2 are the more conservative and have been the choice of almost all holders. Regular payment of interest is more certain with Option 1.

Nearly three-quarters of the new Debentures which are reserved under Option 1 (subject to the terms of the original offer) have already been issued and are outstanding. Certain expected large deposits make quite likely the early closing of Option 1.

All Debentures sent in for exchange under Option 1 will be exchanged under Option 2 if Option 1 is closed prior to their receipt unless the holder otherwise directs. Those who send in their Debentures by return mail will be reasonably certain, however, of having their Debentures accepted for deposit under Option 1.

In figuring the interest adjustment on exchanges made from now to the first of the year, you will be allowed full interest to January 1, 1934, on your present holdings.

Holders who wish to do their part to protect their own interests should act immediately.

SIR JOHN SIMON, BACK IN ENGLAND MAY RECOMMEND A COURSE OF ACTION BY CABINET

London, Jan. 7.—The conviction that aid on Monday and the cabinet confers the peace of Europe depends on the later in the week.

In the past three months the government leaders, including the foreign secretary, have pursued a cautious course and have declared from time to time that Britain is in accord in principle with Germany, then France, and even Italy.

Germany seeks arms equality with an army of 300,000. It has been reported; France is said to be willing to allow the Reich an army of 200,000 with two international arms control periods, and in the Rome conversations it was concluded that arms proposals capable of immediate inauguration were preferable to "Utopian" efforts at agreement.

It was believed in well-informed quarters that Britain's anxiety for some sort of an armament pact as soon as possible indicates that proposals for a restricted re-armament of Germany may likely win at last.

"I cannot say anything about that matter."

To Await Settlement

The United States, it is recalled, withdrew from active participation in the Geneva negotiations until Europe settled her political differences.

Meanwhile, the projection of a definite British policy concerning both the League of Nations, which Premier Mussolini wants changed, and the disarmament deadlock—for the first time since Germany withdrew from Geneva in mid-October—was anticipated in informed quarters, as a result of the foreign secretary's return.

The British stand that a disarmament agreement must come first and that any steps to reform the League must be postponed at least for several months was regarded here as having clearly prevailed in the conversations in Rome of Sir John and Mussolini.

May Be Recommended

Particular courses of action on these points, it was said, may be recommended by Britain after Sir John talks with Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald.

MRS. P. M. MacDONALD PASSED AWAY TODAY AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Was For Many Years Prominent In Business And Social Circles In This City.

Mrs. Sarah Grace MacDonald, widow of J. M. MacDonald, passed away this morning at the home of her sister, Mrs. E. A. Bell, St. John Street, after a lingering illness. She was a daughter of a well known Taymouth resident and was widely known in this section because of her prominence for many years in the millinery business. For many years she conducted a large establishment here in Queen Street under the firm name of the Misses Young, disposing of this eventually to Miss Julia Morgan. For the past twenty years she has lived in retirement. She was prominent in musical circles and was in earlier life connected with a number of organizations in the city including the Daughters of the Empire, of which she was a charter member. She had reached the advanced age of eighty three years. Her husband who was a native of Scotland and associated with his wife in the millinery business, predeceased her a number of years.

The deceased lady is survived by two brothers and three sisters. They are John A. Young, registrar of deeds for York; William J. Young, of Taymouth; Mrs. E. A. Bell, of this city; Mrs. John R. Buchanan and Miss Aimee Young of St. Stephen, and Mrs. Charles VanWart of this city. Another sister was the wife of G. A. Grant of this city. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon from the home of Mrs. Bell, St. John Street, with services conducted by Rev. R. D. George E. Ross. Interment will be made in the Rural Cemetery.

TO MEET NEXT WEEK

A meeting of the provincial government will be held here on Wednesday and Thursday of next week. On Thursday evening a caucus of government supporters in the Legislature will be held to consider the legislative program for the session of the Legislature, which opens on February 8th.

HAD NO MEANS TO REFER TO HIS MAJORITY

London, Jan. 7.—Sir Stafford Cripps, aspirant to Labor Party leadership, undertook today to reply to a storm of criticism raised against a speech he delivered at Nottingham yesterday in which he referred to Buckingham Palace.

Cripps said he did not mean to refer to the King at all, but only those who advised His Majesty.

In his Nottingham speech Cripps was quoted as saying, in reference to what the Labor Party must overcome when it attains power in Great Britain, that "there is no doubt we shall have to overcome opposition from Buckingham Palace and other places as well."

Enthusiastic Watch Dog

Chicago, Ills., Jan. 7.—A job's a job, but Lawrence Lieport doesn't care for the one he recently got.

He was employed to help Kaiser, a police dog guard a meat market, but shortly after going to work was observed by police running at top speed with a large rip in his trousers and Kaiser at his heels.

"I guess he thought I was cutting in on his racket", Lieport told police, refusing to go back to his job with the dog.

"I resign".

FOUR-INCH SNOWFALL

The capital and vicinity was visited by a four-inch fall of heavy snow this morning. The storm commenced early last evening and lasted throughout the night. The storm is in the wake of a general thaw all over the province.

PARAGUAY NOT TO EXTEND ARMISTICE

Buenos Aires, Jan. 7.—Flat rejection by Paraguay of a last minute plea to extend the armistice today plunged the Chaco Boreal into renewed warfare after a truce of 18 days.

While reports of armed activity in the Chaco were lacking, a Paraguayan reply to the plea of the League of Nations Chaco commission left no doubt of their intention to resume hostilities against Bolivia.

The Paraguayan reply stated that that country offered to join an armistice on Dec. 18 to save thousands of Bolivians wounded and lost in the Chaco jungle area after the strenuous campaign preceding the truce.

BOOTLEG WHISKEY

Chicago, Jan. 9.—It is claimed that 75 per cent. of the liquor now being sold here is faked stuff. An investigation is now being conducted by government agents. It is claimed that a syndicate of ex-bootleggers are flooding the city with hooch and home made wines.

ON BUSINESS TOUR

Moncton Times: Major J. Hazen Flemming, of Fredericton, well known manufacturers' agent, arrived in the city last evening in the course of a business tour of the eastern section of the province. While here he is a guest at the Brunswick.

MEAT - EATING PLANTS DINE ON HAMBURGER

San Diego, California, Jan. 7.—E. F. Sloan, San Diego botanist, buys hamburger—for his plants.

The plants really are insect-eating; but chopped meat brings no complaint when insects are scarce.

Sloan brought back nearly 2,000 specimens, commonly known as "snakeheads", "pitcher plants" and "calvesheads", on a recent expedition to northern Oregon.

CROUPIER TOSSES AWAY FORTUNE

Monte Carlo, Jan. 8.—People of title and wealth, and others made their kin by the fascination of games of chance, were crowded round a roulette table at the Casino the other night.

The routine noises of the table were interrupted when a croupier, his mind unhinged by strain, rose with a shout and tossed into the air a fortune in chips that were worth 10,000 francs, $6.23 each.

Women and men scrambled for the chips negotiable as if currency in the Casino, overturning tables and trampling attendants who sought to intervene.
