H. G. WELLS TO SPEAK OVER WABC

H. G. Wells, novelist and historian will answer the question, "Whither Britain", when he speaks from London over the WABC-Columbia network, Tuesday, January 9, from 4:30 to 5:00 P. M., A. S. T. His talk will be the first of a series by distinguished Britons answering the same question. Others will include Winston Churchill, Lloyd George, Austen Chamberlain, George Bernard Shaw, Lady Rhonda, Ernest Bevin and Quintin Hogg.

Born at Bromley, Kent, in 1866, Wells attended the Royal College of Science. When he was twenty nine he embarked on his literary career and brought out four books. Since that time he has been one of the most prolific authors of this era. His early writings were concerned with science and friction and latterly he has turned to history in the broad sense, treating not only political affairs but also examining the economic, philosophical and sociology trends of the ages. In the field of fiction he is best known, perhaps, for his "Mr. Britling Sees It Through". Of his factual works, "The Outline of History" probably stands it.

Sino - American Relations Discussed

Japanese and American relations in 1934 will be discussed by Thomas Que Harrison, world traveller and peace authority, in an address over the WABC-COLUMBIA network, Thursday, January 11, from 4:30 to 4:45 P. M., A. S. T. He will talk under auspices of the National Student Federation. The highlight of the program will be a "music-drama" version of a new song, "On a Steamer Coming Over" with the ensemble vocalizing the roles of Captain and crew, and Irene Taylor and Kenny Sargent portraying the handsome heroine and hero who find romance on the voyage.

STEVE FOSTER'S LIFE WILL BE ENACTED ON AIR

An episodic dramatization of the exciting, triumphant and tragic "Life of Stephen Foster", composer of the most beloved of Southern American folk songs, will be presented by the Dramatic Guild on Sunday, January 14, from 9:30 to 10:00 P. M., A. S. T., over WABC and the COLUMBIA network. The play will be prepared by Charles Tazewell and produced under the direction of Marion Parsonnet.

Presented on the 70th anniversary of the composer's lonely death in the charity ward of Bellevue Hospital, New York, the play will be developed against a background of such famous Foster melodies as "Old Folks at Home", "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia", "Old Black Joe", etc.

One can laugh at himself, but can't endure others joining in.

BILLY SUNDAY ON COLUMBIA NETWORK

Billy Sunday, noted evangelist, who is said to have preached to more congregations than any other man in the history of Christianity, will be heard over the WABC-COLUMBIA network on Thursday, January 11, at 2:15 P. M., A. S. T. His remarks will be broadcast from a luncheon of the Rotary Club of New York in the Hotel Commodore. Dr. William Seaman Bainbridge, President of the Rotary Club, will preside.

A member of one of England's foremost families, the Marlboroughs Churchill was educated at Harrow and at Sandhurst. In using cleaning fluids always sponge the fabric with material of the same color if possible.

The blower attachment of the vacuum cleaner is useful for cleaning dampers and other furnace openings.

Can fruit juices without sugar and make the jelly in cool winter weather to have time, effort and expense during the fresh fruit season.

Dry celery leaves, green onion tails and parsley may be stored in an airtight container and used to flavor soups, salads, dressings and cream dishes.

Scrub vegetables with a stiff brush before paring them.

Attractive pictures, poems, stories and pages of paper dolls cut from current magazines and pasted on large sheets of wrapping paper of uniform size may be fastened together to make fascinating scrap books for the children on rainy and sick-a-bed days.

Light brown sugar gives a good flavor to baked apples or apple puddings.

Time is saved in making sandwiches by blending the sandwich filling with the creamed butter.

Washing out glass perfume containers in warm water to which a little borax has been added will help to keep them sparkling. After drying, polish with chamois.
