

A GLANCE AT THE LOCAL NEWS OF FREDERICTON 27 YEARS AGO

(From THE DAILY HERALD
February 7, 1907.)

Flag at Half Mast

The flag on the Parliament Building is flying at half-mast today out of respect to the memory of Lady Grenfell, daughter of the Governor-General, whose death took place at Ottawa on Sunday last.

To Fill Vacancy

It has been announced that the appointment to the rectorship of the St. Mary's Parish Church, made vacant by the resignation of Rev. Dr. Duffy, will be filled within a few weeks. The parishoners having been unable to agree on an appointment, the matter was left in the hands of the Bishop.

Steamboat Company

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Fredericton and Woodstock Steamboat Company was held at the office of J. H. Barry, K.C., this afternoon. The directors chosen were: Messrs. J. S. Neill, J. Johnston, Robt. Scott, David Munroe and M. B. McNally. Mr. Neill was elected president and Mr. Barry secretary-treasurer. The indications are that there will be no steamboat running on the route next season, the Aberdeen having changed hands.

Personal Mention

Hon. A. S. White of Sussex is registered at the Queen. P. J. Veniot, collector of customs at Bathurst is a guest at the Queen. Hon. C. W. Robinson, speaker of the Legislature is a guest at the Queen. A. B. Copp, M.P.P. and H. C. Reid of Sackville are guests at the Queen. T. H. Estabrooks and J. M. Scovil of Saint John are guests at the Queen. Dr. A. A. Stockton, M.P., of Saint John is at the Barker House. Premier Tweedie, Attorney-General Pugsley and C. H. La Billois are at the Queen.

Government Meeting

A meeting of the local government was held last evening at which John P. Legere, president of the Bathurst Electric and Water Supply Company and P. J. Veniot, secretary of the company were heard in regard to a complaint that their company was interfering with private rights. The government promised consideration in the matter. It is understood that Mr. Currie the new M.P.P. for Restigouche will either move or second the address at the House opening.

Played a Draw

The curling match between Saint Andrews of Saint John and Fredericton at Saint John resulted in a tie and a scene of considerable excitement. Until the last stone was curled the issue was in doubt as with one end to play, Saint Andrews led by two points. Amos Wilson of Fredericton and C. S. Robinson of St. Andrews were the skippers on whom the issue depended. When the Fredericton skip curled the last stone, a beautiful draw to the tie; tee, he tied the score. The totals were 93 to 93.

New Pastorate

It is understood that Rev. Father Hannagan, the popular curate at Dunstan's Church is to receive the appointment as pastor of the Parish Church at New Ireland, Albert county, made vacant by the death of Rev. Father McAuley. Father Hannagan has been curate at St. Dunstan's for several years and is highly esteemed.

Surgical Operation

James Laurie who works for Alexander Gibson of Marysville was brought to Victoria Hospital last evening suffering from appendicitis. He was operated upon this morning by Drs. Fisher and Vanwart and is doing as well as can be expected.

Telephone Meeting

An important meeting of the New Brunswick Telephone Company was held at the head office here last evening. Dr. A. A. Stockton, M.P. was elected president in succession to the late Hon. A. G. Blair. W. T. Whitehead, M.P.P., was elected vice-president in place of J. L. Black, resigned. The vacancy on the Board of Directors caused by the death of Mr. Blair was filled by the appointment of J. D. Hazen, M.P.P.

Angus McLaggan; Sec'y, Percy A. Guthrie; Fin Sec'y, Nathaniel Jones; Treasurer, John McNab; D of C, H. G. Veness, Lecturer, N. J. Smith.

Board of Education

At a meeting of the Board of Education here yesterday a committee composed of the Chief Superintendent, Chancellor Jones of the University and Solicitor General Jones, was appointed to inquire into the cost of text books with a view, where practicable, of procuring such books at a lower rate for use in the schools.

Narrow Escape

Timothy Murphy, manufacturer of Oxford sausages, had a narrow escape from a serious, if not fatal, injury yesterday and he says that the fact that his life was saved was due in a great measure to the cleverness of his fine trotting horse, Harry Wilkes, Jr. When driving out Regent street near the Lorne Hotel, a dog frightened the horse and it struck out at a rapid pace. Mr. Murphy in trying to check the horse knocked the dashboard over the front of the pung and it dragged between the horse's feet. Those who witnessed the accident expected to see Mr. Murphy dashed to death, but he spoke to the animal causing it to slow up.

The Risten Strike

The carriage workers of the city, held a meeting last evening in the rooms of the Fredericton Brass Band and adopted a strong resolution of sympathy with the wood workers of the J. C. Risten Company Limited, who have struck for a nine hour day.

Bowling Match

The Candle Pin Bowling Match at the Arctic Rink last evning between teams representing the Queen Hotel and the Arctic Rink Alleys, resulted in a victory for the latter by 134 pins. A feature of the game was the work of William Segee who made the splendid average of 108 for three strings. The Arctic Rink team scored 1674 pins and the Queen Hotel team 1450.
