A GLANCE AT THE LOCAL NEWS OF FREDERICTON 27 YEARS AGO

(From the Daily Herald June 7,1907)

A Rhodes Scholar

Fredericton felt a pride in the great success of one of the city's young men J. Arthur Estey who besides graduating with honors and capturing the Governor-General's medal at Acadia College has been selected as Nova Scotia's Rhodes scholar for this year. This brilliant young student is a son of the late Ald Henry A. Estey, for many years a member of the People's Bank staff and his paternal grandfather was the late Rev. Dr. Spurden, who was a prominent educationalist in this city.

Dr. Pugsley Honoured

The great esteem in which the Hon. Dr. Pugsley is held by the officials of the provincial government departments was attested at one o'clock today when they assembled in the executive council chamber stocked with all the attendant toilet requisites. Besides officials there were present several members of the government and legislature, including Hon. Mr. LaBillois, Hon. Mr. Jones and Messrs. Whitehead, Lanthalum, Robertson, Gogain, Burgess and Allen M.P.P.'s. The presentation was made by George N. Babbitt, the senior official. Before reading the address he told the gathering that he had been in the employ of the government since 1861, having received his appointment unsolicited from Sir Leonard Tilley from among a legion of applicants. He had served under thirteen provincial secretaries an dalthough he had enjoyed the acquaintance of many illustrious men who had been connected with the government he could say truthfully that there was no one whose acquaintance he prized more than that of Dr. Pugsley. He then read a farewell address to the ex-premier which was signed by the following officials: W. P. Flewelling, T. G. Loggie, W. A. Loudoun, T. B. Winslow, A. R. Wetmore, J. Howe Dickson, T.C. Allen, Jas. Hanney, George Y. Dibblee, C. B. Morgan, R. S. Barker, F. S. Saddler, C. S. Brannen, R. B. Wallace, Eldon Merrithew, H. B. Rainsford, D. B. Winslow, J. P. McPeake, Joseph Hanlon, S. W. Babbitt, E. A. MacKay, Dr. E. B. Fisher, Peter Hughes, R. A. S. Malloy. (Of the above only Messrs. Loudon, Mackay, Hughes, Wallace, McPeake and Malloy are now in the government service.) Hon. Mr. Pugsley replied to the address in feeling terms. After briefly sketching his career in public life, he thanked the officials for the appreciation they had shown of his work and said he felt sure it was felt by members of the government and legislature.

The Normal School

The closing exercises of the Provincial Normal School took place this morning at 10.30 o'clock and were attended by a large number of people, principally ladies. A very interesting programme was carried out and included addresses by Gov. Tweedie, Principal Bridges, Premier Robinson, Hon. J. Sweeney and Chancellor Jones of the U.N.B. The Silver medal was awarded to Miss Margaret White of Sunbury county and the Bronze medal to Miss Ethel Hanson of Carleton county.

Government Caucus

Mr. Barnes of Kent presided over a government caucus heled here last evening in response to the call of Premier Robinson. The vacancies in the cabinet were not discussed as it was generally felt that the matter could very well be left in the hands of the Premier. Most favourable reports were submitted from the several counties and nobody appeared to feel the least bit uneasy over the results of the next provincial election which under the law must come within a year. (The election took place in March 1908 and resulted in the defeat of the government).

SEES VOICE RECORDS USED TO TREAT ILLS

New York, June 6—Your voice is the key to your emotional and mental troubles, and the day when phonograph records of the patient's voice will be used to help cure such ills is within sight, says Dr. Joseph Tiffin, University of Iowa.

People with and without trained voices, the college freshman just arrived form the country and the cultured professor of English, speak in the same way when under the influence of anger or grief, Dr. Tiffin found by tests made at the University. His results are reported to the American Institute of Physics.

People with trained voices, he discovered, pitched their voices slightly higher than the untrained when expressing both anger and grief but both groups pitched their voices a great deal higher than averaging when expressing anger and somewhat less for grief.

"That persons differing so widely in training and experience tend to execute almost identical movements of pitch when expressing sepcific emotions is a fact of great importance to the psychologics," says Dr. Tiffin. "It indicates vocal expression is a definite barometer of emotional experience and behavior."

Small temptations are as timid as pie; don't be so stubborn.

Make yourself agreeable to people; don't be so stubborn.

On might rather encounter bad manners and a kind heart than politeness with a cold one.

One way to meet prominent people is to get a job with a collection agency.

Ignorance of the law excuses no man; and ignorance of the loop-holes in the law excuses no lawyer.
