

A GLANCE AT THE LOCAL NEWS OF FREDERICTON 27 YEARS AGO

(FROM THE DAILY HERALD
FEB. 14th, 1907).

Council Meeting.

The city council had a rather lively meeting last evening and while there was a great deal of talk not very much of a practical nature was accomplished. Two bills, one relating to the civic elections and the other to the police force sponsored by alderman T. H. Colter and discussed by him at the Citizens League meeting were thrown out root and branch. Another bill to amend the Administration of Justice Act for the County of York was favourably considered. It was midnight when the council adjourned.

Official Visit

F. A. Marr of Halifax, Chancellor-Commander of the Grand Lodge, Knights of Pythias for the Maritime Provinces paid an official visit to the Marysville Lodge last evening. He was accompanied by several members of the Fredericton lodge and they were very pleasantly entertained. On Tuesday evening the Chancellor-Commander visited Fredericton Lodge No. 6.

Here for Session

Hon. C. W. Robinson, speaker of the legislature accompanied by Mrs. Robinson and their daughter Miss Marjorie Robinson are guests at the Queen. Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Osman and son, Master Conrad Osborne arrived last evening and have taken rooms at the Queen for the session.

Street Lighting

At the city council meeting last evening W. H. McGinn superintendent of street lighting submitted his annual report which was adopted. He dealt with the improvements made to the machinery at the station and spoke of the new lights which had been set up during the year. He gave the figures to show that the total cost of maintenance during the year was $4,840.79 against $5,642.82 for the previous year. The cost of operating the fire whistle for the year was estimated at $75. The old board of assessors composed of Dr. E. W. Henry, H.C. Mackey and H. C. Rutter was reappointed.

Personal Mention

land has taken up his abode at the C. M. Legere M. P., for Westmorland for the session. Thomas Hartt, M.P.P. for Saint Andrews is a guest at the Windsor. George Robertson, M.P.P. for Saint John is at the Queen for the session. H. F. Paisley of the Saint John Globe staff is at the Queen. George M. Byron of Campbell is among the guests at the Queen. J. D. Hazen, M.P.P. leader of the opposition is a guest at the Barker House.

Fruit Men Meet

The annual meeting of the New Brunswick Fruit Growers Association opened here this morning. The president J. C. Gilman of Kingsclear delivered the annual address which was received with interest and the subject of an interesting discussion. He pointed out the many advantages which the farmer had right in his own province and suggested that the farmers should use his slate and pencil before going thousands of miles to the west to seek a home. Several fine varieties of apples were exhibited and prizes were given for the best plat of each variety.

House Opening

In the presence of a large and brilliant gathering of spectators His Honor Lt. Governor Snowball formally opened the fifth session of the fourth Legislative Assembly of the Province of New Brunswick. His Honor in his gorgeous Windsor uniform was the most conspicuous figure in connection with the opening. He was attended by Col. George R. White district officer commanding. A large number of ladies and gentlemen occupied seats on the floor of the House during the ceremony. Among the number were Mrs. L. J. Tweedie, Mrs. C. W. Robinson, Mrs. W. T. Whitehead, Mrs. G. W. Allen, Miss Florrie Whitehead, Bishop Richardson, Rev. Canon Cowie, Rev. Father Carney, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Loudoun Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Kitchen, Chancellor and Mrs. Jones, Mr. R. B. Hanson, Miss Eliza Campbell, Miss Hazen Allen and the Judges of the Supreme Court. The address was moved by William Currie of Restigouche and seconded by John B. Gogain of Kent. Mr. Hazen followed with a general review of the government policy and was replied to by Premier Tweedie. There were no other speakers and the address was passed without division on the opening day of the session.

CONFIDENCE IN OLDER MEN IS DISPLAYED

Pacifying France, beloved and trusted Premier Gaston Doumergue picks a cabinet made up largely of old men, called "the strongest French government since the war."

Why this confidence in old men?

First, proved integrity. Second, proved patriotism. Third, they have been tested by experience. Fourth, they are not tempted by material, political, social or financial lures.

In general, a nice balance fairly representative of all ages is essential to good government. In the crisis that faces France, old heads meet the situation with a calming influence. Once forward progress is resumed, it is likely that the oldsters willingly will return the power to another cabinet of younger men.

Yet these old men of France are likely to go down in history as the saviors of the republic in one of its blackest hours.

It is queer that nudism isn't popular. It's hard to imagine this country not falling for any sort of skin game.
