A Saddened Home

After a lengthy illness which she bore with remarkable fortitude and patience, Miss Helen W. Coulthard, only child of Mr. and Mrs. W. Byron Coulthard, entered into rest at her home on Waterloo Row at two o'clock this morning. Seldom if ever in the history of Fredericton has the death of a young person in the community brought forth so many genuine expressions of sympathy as are being heard on all sides. The deceased young lady was taken ill from an attack of typhoid fever while pursuing her studies at Mount Allison Ladies' College last fall and never fully recovered her health. She gave up her studies and returned home. A few weeks ago she was stricken with meningitis of the brain which was the cause of her death. The deceased young lady was in her nineteenth year and was a general favorite with all who knew her.

Dr. L. W. Bailey, his daughter Miss Laureline Bailey, his son, J. W. Bailey of Boston and Mr. and Mrs. Gabriel de Veber of Gagetown are to leave this evening for Quebec where they will take passage on an extended trip to Europe.
