A VALUABLE ASSET

The Fisheries' News Bulletin, an official publication issued by the Department of Marine and Fisheries, carries the following:

"Approximately 73,100 pounds of salmon, trout, pickerel, bass, and perch were taken by anglers last year in what is known as the inland fisheries district of New Brunswick, or, in other words, in Kings, Queens, Sunbury, York, Carleton, Victoria, and Madawaska counties and part of Northumberland county. Seventy-three thousand pounds wouldn't be a big haul in the commercial fisheries, where nets and weirs and other catching devices are used, but it's a fairly tidy weight to be pulled ashore, fish by fish, with rod and line. And, of course, it is also to be remembered that this quantity includes the angling catch in only part of New Brunswick. More than half of it, or about 42,300 pounds, was made up of salmon, and trout accounted for approximately 27,800 pounds. The total catch was slightly larger than in 1932, and in reporting to the Dominion Department of Fisheries the supervisor of Fisheries for the district says that "more foreign sportsmen came to the province than in the past" and he adds that the value of the rods and lines and canoes used by anglers in his district was only slightly less than $20,750".

It is pretty hard to keep tab on the number of salmon taken by anglers, and while seven counties are supposed to have contributed to the total as given above, Madawaska, Sunbury and Queens might as well be eliminated from the list. York, Carleton and Northumberland've the best water for salmon angling, but the combined catch, in those counties, we are inclined to think fell far short of 42,300 pounds. Guides and camp-owners from the Miramichi district who attended a conference with the deputy minister of fisheries at Newcastle last fall, complained of poor catches by non-resident sportsmen.

Almost unique is the present affluence of John Coogan, erstwhile Jackie of "The Kid," "Oliver Twist," "Long Live the King" and numerous other silent features. Young Mr. Coogan is at present attending Santa Clara College and is so well endowed with trust funds, bank accounts and gilt-edged securities that he has few worries about his future, which may or may not include a return to the screen. Jackie, however, got the breaks, not only in the form of a lavish salary, but also in the person of astute parents who capitalized Jackie's popularity while it lasted by arranging in lucrative commercial tie-ups of all sorts, reputed to have netted the youngster almost a million dollars.

Right Hon. Ramsay MacDonald, Prime Minister of Great Britain now on his way to Canada on the S. S. Duchess of Richmond is expected to reach Saint John on Friday of next week. He will cross by boat to Digby, N. S., but will be invited by Premier Tilley to return to New Brunswick. The British premier is on a three-months' holiday and plans to spend considerable time in the Maritime Provinces, which shows him to be a man of good judgment.

His Excellency the Earl of Bessborough and his son, Viscount Dunsborough, who have been on a fishing trip to Anticosti Island arrived in Saint John yesterday by way of Bathurst and continued on to St. Andrew's today. His Excellency and his son will remain in the province about a fortnight and plan to visit Fredericton next week. The vice-regal party will be centred with delphinium Canterbury New Brunswick at its best and bury bells were used effectively in the drawing room.

A great deal of mystery is made out of the fact that Greta Garbo gets fifteen new hats every three months from Madame X. of Paris. The only mystery is how Madame X. has managed to keep from telling who she is.

A British biologist says that the world is unfit for babies, as if that were something new. Maybe he does not know that babies have yowled about the state of the world for untold generations.

Persian women are reported to be wearing hair to match their costumes; which seems to be exactly what is done by the bald-headed man who joins a nudist colony.

Boys and girls are off in the annual rush for summer camps, putting the younger generation closer to nature and the older closer to the wind.

Military tribunal in France has acquitted five soldiers shot for mutiny in 1915; but the trial seems to have come a trifle late.

Hitler says the Nazi movement will go on for 1,000 years. That will involve an amendment of the customary form of lease, which runs for 999 only.

Chief pride of grumpy people is that no one takes them to be soft, and tries to impose on them. There's satisfaction in that.

The day before the wedding, the bridegroom is apt to wonder if any woman is worth going through all that sort of thing for; a year afterward the bride sometimes wonders.

Before marriage a man seems to think that a girl's clothes simply grow on her, after marriage he is surprised and aggrieved when she doesn't go right on producing them in the same inexpensive way.

A SOCIAL EVENT

Miss Flora Loudoun, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Loudoun, Lansdown avenue, entertained on Friday at tea in honor of Mrs. Frederic Ashby Harrison of Clova, Que., who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Douglass. Those assisting the hostess were Miss Margaret Jones, Mrs. Roland Loughlin and Miss Louise Sterling. The dainty tea table was centred with delphinium Canterbury New Brunswick at its best and bury bells were used effectively in the drawing room.
