Henry Ford says that "as people get older they should associate more with young people." Isn't this likely to weaken their moral principles?

LAW TIBBETT
TRAINS WITH THE
"ROW, BOYS, ROW"

New York, N. Y., Jan. 2—Lawrence Tibbett, famous radio and operatic baritone, rides all over the country—and into perfect condition for his Voice of Firestone broadcasts over an NBC-WEAF network on Monday nights at 9:30 P. M., A. S. T.—in a row boat.

"You can't sing powerfully through out a performance unless you have a diaphragm like a heavyweight wrestler's," says Tibbett. "On tour I always carry a folding rowing machine with me, and every morning in my room I row—it seems to me—from New York to Albany."

The baritone, who alternates with Richard Crooks on the Voice of Firestone series, travels far faster than he can row, however. Recently he made the jump from a concert in sunny California to Hamilton, Ontario, Canada, where the weather was plenty cold, then hurried back to New York for the Metropolitan Opera and his "Voice of Firestone" radio series.

AL SPALDING WILL PLAY THE
"PRIZE SONG"

"The Prize Song", the lovely aria from the last act of Wagner's "Die Meistersinger", will be played in a violin arrangement by Albert Spalding over a nationwide WABC-COLUMBIA network, Wednesday, January 3, from 9:30 to 10:00 P. M., A. S. T. Conrad Thibault, baritone, and Don Voorhees' orchestra will also be heard during this broadcast.

Other selections to be offered by Spalding, accompanied by the orchestra, will include Sarasate's arrangement of "Guitarre", by Mozowsky and "Poeme" by Fibich. Vocal solos by Thibault will be "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes", from the new operetta, "Roberta"; "Kashmiri Song", "The Rosary", and selections from "Sally".

ONE DEMOCRACY
WILL HAIL LEADER

For the first time in history, the entire United States will be able to participate in a gala White House occasion honoring President Franklin D. Roosevelt on his fifty-second birthday, Tuesday, January 30.

Nationwide radio facilities of the CBS and NBC networks will link cities, towns and hamlets all over the country in simultaneous birthday celebrations for the President, and he will respond with a personal radio greeting from Washington.

A part of the proceeds of each gathering will constitute a birthday gift to the President to be expended by him for the relief of sufferers of infantile paralysis.

U. S. CONGRESS
OPENING TO BE BROADCAST

The opening of Congress, including the reading of the Presidential message, will be heard over the WABC-COLUMBIA network on Wednesday January 3, beginning at 1:00 P. M., A. S. T.

Henry T. Rainey, Speaker of the House of Representatives, granted permission to Columbia to broadcast directly from the floor of the House and set up microphones on the rostrum. Senators King of Utah and Cope land of New York, acting for the Senate, arranged for CBS equipment to be set up in the District of Columbia Committee room, which gives onto the floor of the Senate Chamber.

Paris, France, Dec. 30—The cabinet was understood today to be opposed to direct French-German disarmament negotiations on the basis of present German demands, Paul Hymans, Belgian foreign minister, was here today to discuss disarmament with Foreign Minister Joseph Paul-Boncour.

Query: If college professors know more about business than businessmen, why are they not businessmen instead of college professors?

The worst crank seems to be the one you can't turn.

VETERAN PAIR
WILL INSTITUTE
NEW SERIES

Trade and Mark, the merry sons of Rutgers otherwise known as Scrappy Lambert and Billy Hillpot, will inaugurate their first coast to coast broadcast series over WABC and the Columbia network on Saturday, January 6, from 9:45 to 10:00 P. M., A. S. T. The veteran radio troupers will be supported by the equally familiar music of Nat Shilkret's orchestra. Lambert and Hillpot will open Saturday's program with a duet version of "Roll Out of Bed with a Smile". Lambert's solo number will be "Without a Song", and the orchestral feature will be Shilkret's own arrangement of "My Heart Still". Other numbers by the duo will include "Lady with Fan" and "Oh Gee, Oh Joy". A solo by Lambert, an orchestral feature, and comedy patter by the duo will be included in each of the weekly periods. Their series is beginning its fourth consecutive year on CBS under the same sponsorship, the manufacturers of Smith Brothers' Cough Drops and Smith Brothers Cough Syrup.

Clara, Lu 'n' Em
Supply Own Effects

Chicago, Ills., January 2—Clara, Lu 'n' Em go easy on the sound effects men. They work their own effects except when it would keep them away from the microphone when they should be speaking.

If the action calls for the opening and closing of a door you can depend on it that the girl who is supposed to be walking into the room is actually operating the door. When they are washing the dishes the girls themselves rattle the plate and spoons.

On one program Em was supposed to be taking swimming lessons and all through the 15 minutes program she was thrusting her face into a basin of cold water, and emerging, choking and spluttering.

Clara, Lu 'n' Em are heard every day except Saturday and Sunday over an NBC-WJZ network at 11:15 A. M., A. S. T., under the sponsorship of Colgate-Palmolive-Peet, Inc.

Chicago, Ills., January 2—Soviet Russia's Five Year Plan doesn't hold a candle to Amos 'n' Andy's concentrated 13 year drive to popularity in the amusement field.

Each year since their association began 13 years ago New Year's Eve has found Charles J. Correll and Freeman F. Gosden together for consideration of the activities of the year closing and for making serious plans for the coming twelve months.

Out of each of these annual meetings comes just one resolution—that they will continue to give their radio audience the best they have and will hold the program at its high standard of merit.

APPLIED THEORY

I've wanted lots of silly things—
 And got a few—
 But those I never really had
 Alone are true. 4

And the little table of Duncan Phyffe
 The silver tarnished—
 The dress with twisted silver belt—
 Is now unvarnished.

The trailing plume on the tricky hat
 Was spoiled with rain,
 The prim rose plant in the shallow pot
 Won't bloom again.

Applying this to the case in hand—
 One just can't tell—

There's quite a chance that you, my dear,
 Might not wear well.

—HOLLY in Chicago News.

Terse expression is always valuable in public thought, "Life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness" will never be forgotten. In connection with the new order of things Franklin Roosevelt mentions three other considerations in memorable terms: "Health, morals and social integrity."

ASQUES ACCENT

HIPLINE IN PARIS

Paris, France:—Pert basques give accent to the hiplines of new clothes which Maggy Rouff designs for mid-season and advance spring wear.

The flared effects, placed over a slender hip, accent a line which designers have held to an ultra slim silhouette for several years.

Suits of heavily ribbed ottoman silk and velvet fashioned for late winter and early spring wear are designed with hip jackets having flared basques just over the hip bones, while both afternoon and evening frocks display a similar line.

One black moire afternoon dress with a high collar lined in cloth of gold has a trim basque bodice and a dark green faille evening gown has hip flares of dark green and gold lame.

BLACK LYNX ON COLLAR

A mid-season suit of black ottoman has basques made of the same fabric, slightly stiffened and placed just above the hipline. Black lynx is used on the collar, and a black eather tips the hat of black felt.

Fur gives the basque accent to early spring coats of black and sand colored wool. Fox is swirled down the front of the bodice, back of the arm and forward over the hipbones oth collar and pockets.

Tendency to accent the hips slightly, is seen in a number of designers' collections. Patch pockets appear just over the hipbones on some sports frocks, while a diagonal line of buttons accents others.

And to prove that there's no lack of variety along the Rue de la Paix, several dressmakers accent the back of the hips of evening gowns with a fan frill or a cascade of ruffles.

DEVILLED TURKEY

Cold turkey (legs, wings, second joints, etc); Salt and pepper; Flour; Two tablespoons butter; Two tablespoons chili sauce; One tablespoon Worcestershire sauce; One teaspoon prepared mustard; One cup turkey broth; Parsley.

Sprinkle cold turkey with salt, pepper and flour. In a skillet place butter, chili sauce, Worcestershire sauce and mustard. Fry the turkey and when it is delicately browned, add hot turkey broth and simmer for five minutes. Sprinkle with chopped parsley, and serve.

TURKEY CLUB SANDWICHES

Twelve slices buttered bread; Slices cold turkey; Slices broiled bacon; Six leaves lettuce; Six tablespoons mayonnaise; Ketchup or chili sauce.

Toast bread quickly so that it will not be hard throughout, and butter generously. Top with slices of cold turkey then with crisp slices of broiled bacon. Add a leaf of lettuce and spread with mayonnaise. Cover with another slice of toast and serve accompanied by ketchup or chili sauce.

TURKEY EN CASSEROLE

Two tablespoons butter; Two table spoons flour; One cup turkey broth; One fourth cup tomato ketchup; Salt and pepper; Two cups cold turkey; One cup cold cooked peas; Bread crumbs.

Melt butter in pan, add flour and mix well. Add turkey broth and ketchup, and cook until boiling, stirring constantly. Season with salt and pepper. Place cold turkey and peas in alternate layers in a baking dish or pan and pour the hot sauce over them. Sprinkle with bread crumbs and dot over with butter. Bake in a moderate oven (35 degrees Fahrenheit) until brown and serve.

RAGOUT OF TURKEY.

Two tablespoons butter; One table spoon browned flour; One to one and one half cups of stock; One teaspoon Worcestershire sauce; Pinch of nutmeg; One fourth teaspoon salt; Two or four cups cold turkey, cut in inch strips; One tablespoon cranberry or currant jelly.

Melt butter in frying pan; add browned flour. Mix thoroughly. Add heated gravy or stock, let boil until thickened. Add Worcestershire sauce; nutmeg and salt. Lay turkey meat in gravy and allow to boil for ten minutes, not more. Stir in jelly and wine and let whole come to boiling point. Serve at once in covered dish. This is delicious served over toast or rusks.

And, when using your plum pudding for the second time, the family won't complain at all if you vary it by serving with the following sauce instead of the usual hard sauce.

EXCELLENT, TOO

The schoolmaster, had been reading through his pupils' essays. Presently he came to Billy Jones's effort. After reading it he smiled knowing to himself and called Billy to his desk.

"Your essay is excellent, Jones," he said, "but strangely enough, it is word for word the same as Robinson's. What am I to deduce from that discovery?"

Johnny's face brightened. "Why, sir," he replied, "that Robinson's is excellent, too".

A PUBLIC ENEMY

Chicago, Dec. 30—The police of the entire middle west are now scouring the country for John Dillinger, who has been listed as a public enemy, along with twenty others. Four Chicago policemen who were killed recently are believed to have met death at the hands of the Dillinger gang.

As to making the most of themselves, some people seem to think brass as good as gold.
