EVAN EVANS AND HIS CONCERT ORCHESTRA

One of the lesser known songs of Stephen Foster, "I Dream of Jeannie" will be sung by Evan Evans, baritone, on Thursday, July 5, from 8:00 to 8:15 P. M., S. T., over the WABC-Columbia network. "I Love the Jocund Dance" by the eminent English organist and composer, H. Walford Davies, and "Vale" by Russell will also be included in his program.

Howard Barlow and his concert orchestra will play "On Wings of Song" by Mendelssohn, and the "Satyr Dance" from "The Conqueror", one of the later works of German.

"PRESENTING MARK WARNOW"

Mary Eastman, soprano, will be the featured vocalist in the broadcast "Presenting Mark Warnow", over the WABC-Columbia network from 10:15 to 10:45 P. M., A. S. T., Thursday, July 5. She will offer "Estrellita" and Nevin's "Little Boy Blue" as her solos and the young conductor will present his special arrangement of "Star-dust" for four muted brasses and orchestra.

Another highlight will be a medley of selections from the recently concluded "Follies", including "What Is There to Say", "Suddenly", and "I Like the Likes of You". Miss Eastman will sing choruses of the first two. Other selections will include Clustam's "Mah Curly-Headed Baby", Kreisler's "Liebeslied", and the dance tune, "On Accounts I Love You" as orchestral offerings, and Brahms' "Wiegand" as the closing ensemble selection.

The final test of hospitality is to have your 12-year-old bring a few class-mates to spend the night.

Alexander Smallens will conduct musicians of the Philadelphia Orchestra in the inaugural program of a summer symphonic series, Lena Madelin Phillips, president of the National Council of Women, will speak from Paris, and the Detroit Symphony Orchestra will play selections of Saint-Saens and Tchaikovsky in the WABC-Columbia broadcast schedule for Thursday, July 5. Details of programs for the day follow:

PHILADELPHIA SUMMER CON-CERT

Alexander Smallens will inaugurate the second season of summer symphonic broadcasts by musicians of the Philadelphia Orchestra over the WABC-Columbia network from 8:30 to 9:30 P. M., A. S. T., Thursday July 5. Conducting the orchestra in Robin Hood Dell, Fairmont Park, Philadelphia, Smallens will present a program selected from the works of Weber, Mendelssohn, Wagner and Richard Strauss.

After the playing of the "Star Spangled Banner", the orchestra will be heard in Weber's brilliant overture to "Euryanthe". The nocturne and scherzo from Mendelssohn's incidental music to "A Midsummer Night's Dream" will follow, and then Smallens will conduct the dramatic music of Wotan's Farewell and the beautiful measures of the Magic Fire Music from Wagner's music drama, "Die Walkure". The program will close with Richard Strauss' colorful tone poem, "Don Juan", one of the musical masterpieces of the 19th century.

In a recent comment on the series Smallens compared summer symphonic concerts in America with those of Europe.

"All of Europe", he said, "presents nothing like the amount of serious music played by fine orchestras that we are privileged to hear during the summer months in this country, and I want to emphasize that it's symphonic music of the best—whether gay and brilliant or more serious and profound."

A complete schedule of the Philadelphia Summer Concerts series will be announced shortly.

FEMININE LEADER TO BROAD-CAST FROM PARIS

Lena Madelin Phillips, president of the National Council of Women will speak on "The Underlying Principles of Women's Right to Work" in a broadcast from Sorbonne Amphitheatre, Paris, over the WABC-Columbia network between 5:00 and 5:15 P. M., A. S. T., Thursday, July 5. Her address will be a feature of the congress of women from 52 nations to be held at the Sorbonne Amphitheatre for general discussion of the subject: "The Defense of Woman's Right to Work". Prominent feminine leaders expected to be present are Mlle. Marguerite Phibert, of the International Labor Office; Kerstin Hesselgren, president of the Swedish Council of Women; and Frau Marie Hobeisel of the National Council of Women of Austria.

DETROIT SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

The program of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra to be broadcast over the WABC-Columbia network from the Ford Symphonic Gardens at the Century of Progress between 4:00 and 5:00 P. M., A. S. T., Thursday, July 5, will be devoted to music of Saint-Saens and Tchaikovsky. With Victor Kolar conducting, the orchestra will play first the former composer's stirring march, "Heroique". The remainder of the concert will be given over to a performance of Tchaikovsky's magnificent Fifth Symphony.

PAUL KEAST

Baritone Paul Keast and Rollo Hudson's orchestra will entertain WABC-Columbia listeners Thursday, July 5, from 7:30 to 7:45 P. M., A. S. T. with popular songs and dance tunes. Paul's selections will be "I Love a Parade", "Among My Souvenirs", and "Funny Face" from George Gershwin's musical comedy of the same name. "Doll Dance" and "Chanson Bohemienne" are to be played by the orchestra.

STRAWBERRY CHIFFON PIE

(By Edith M. Barber)

"Would you mind sending me the recipes for strawberry chiffon pie, Bavarian pineapple rice and strawberry tarts?"

I am certainly glad to answer such a reasonable request. Chiffon pies have become exceedingly popular in the last few years. I do not know the origin of the name chiffon as applied to pie, but it gives us the idea of something light and delicate. Certainly this is true of a chiffon pie which is made with the foundation of egg whites, crushed fruit of fruit juice, whipped cream, with a small amount of gelatine. The crust may be made from the usual pastry or by one of those good cracker crust recipes which are actually foolproof.

The pastry is usually used for the tart shells, which are then filled with fresh berries, covered with what is known as a glaze. The Bavarian pineapple rice is a combination of rice fruit and whipped cream, which may or may not have gelatin in it. Strawberry or other fruit may take the place of the pineapple.

The chiffon pie and the Bavarian pineapple rice should be made long enough ahead of time to be thoroughly chilled, while the strawberry tarts are usually served cold. They should not be chilled.

STRAWBERRY CHIFFON PIE

One half cup boiling water; three-quarters cup sugar; one cup strawberry pulp and juice; one fourth teaspoon salt; two teaspoons granulated gelatin; one fourth cup cold water; two egg whites; one fourth cup sugar; one half cup cream; one baked pie shell.

Combine boiling water, sugar, strawberry juice and pulp and salt. Soak gelatin in cold water. Add gelatin into hot strawberry mixture and stir until dissolved. Beat egg whites until stiff and dry and fold in sugar. Fold in cream which has been whipped into strawberry mixture and when it begins to thicken, fold in egg whites. Pour mixture in baked pie shell, chill and serve garnished with whipped cream and strawberries.

PINEAPPLE BAVARIAN RICE

One half cup rice; one and one half cups milk; one fourth teaspoon salt; one tablespoon granulated gelatin; three tablespoons pineapple juice; one and one half cups cooked, sweetened pineapple or canned pineapple.

One cup whipped cream
Steam rice in salted milk about forty five minutes, until tender. Soak gelatin in pineapple juice five minutes and stir over hot water until dissolved. Stir carefully into rice with a fork, add one cup pineapple and more sugar if desired. Fold in whipped cream, put in greased mold, chill, turn out on serving plate and garnish with remaining pineapple.

STRAWBERRY TARTS

One quart strawberries; tarts shells one cup water; one half cup sugar; one tablespoon cornstarch.

Clean and hull the berries. Reserve six strawberries and divide the rest among the tart shells. Add the six berries, cut into quarters with the water, sugar and cornstarch and bring to a boil. Boil three minutes and then pour this syrup over the berries in the tart shells. Cool and serve.

HOT FUDGE SAUCE

One and one half cups water; one cup sugar; two squares chocolate or one fourth cup cocoa; one tablespoon cornstarch; Pinch of salt; one teaspoon vanilla.

Boil sugar and water two minutes. Add salt and cornstarch dissolved in a little cold water; boil and stir until clear and smooth.

Melt chocolate or dissolve cocoa in a little hot water. Add to syrup, cook three minutes. Then add vanilla. Serve hot.

RAISIN SAUCE

One fourth cup vinegar; one and three quarters cups water; one half tablespoon mustard; one half cup brown sugar; one half tablespoon flour; one fourth cup seedless raisins.

Mix dry ingredients, add raisins, vinegar and water. Cook to a syrup.
