Slants Of Humor

MOTOR ECONOMY.

Economy was the text of Mr. Jones' discourse one evening after he had been settling some household bills, while Mrs. Jones listened with true wifely interest. "I don't want to make you unhappy darling," finished the husband, "but really we must be a bit more careful in future. For instance, look at the bill for petrol. That motor car is costing us rather too much for the time being." "Yes, Henry, dear," agreed Mrs. Jones. "I'm afraid it is." Then her sweet young face brightened as she went on: "But just think what it saves us in carefrees and boot leather."

A SUGGESTION

The trolley car was crowded, She couldn't find a seat, A man in front of her snapped, Miss You're standing on my feet! Then sweetly she looked down at him, The daring little elf. And said: "Beg pardon, but why don't You stand on them yourself?"

DISAPPOINTED.

A merchant was visited by a friend and customer from the country whom he entertained by a visit to the theatre. When the lights were low, the merchant drew forth a pair opera glasses and handed them to his guest. A contented "Ah!" slipped from the countryman and then his arms in the air were discernable.

"What's the trouble?" asked the host. The answer came in a distressingly plain whisper of disappointment.

"Oh, nothing; only the thing's empty."

MILITARY CROSS FOR GALLANT FRENCHMAN

Paris, Aug. 7.—Corporal Coutaudier of the French light infantry, has been decorated with a military cross by President Poincare for capturing 100 Germans, including two officers, aided only by a single companion. The curt reference to Corporal Coutaudier's exploit in army orders reads:

"For bravery and contempt of danger, which struck terror into the shelters and trenches of the enemy. With a single comrade he has made 100 prisoners, including two officers, whom he took to the rear and then rejoined his post."

THE VACANT JUDGESHIP.

North Shore Delegation in Favor of R. A. Lawlor.

(Chatham World.)

A delegation of North Shore men went to St. John on Thursday to urge upon Mr. Hazen the appointment of Mr. R. A. Lawlor to the vacant seat on the Supreme Court Bench.

Among the delegates were the following: B. J. Hachey, M. P. P., Bathurst; Mayor Montgomery, Dalhousie; G. G. Gilbert, Bathurst; Everett Parker, Derby; J. W. Vanderbeck, Millerton; Richard O'Leary, Richibucto; Chas. Reinsborough, P. J. McIntyre, Chatham; Hubert Sinclair, A. A. Davidson, J. D. Creaghan, Newcastle.

Mr. W. L. Allain, M. P. P., was with, if not of, the delegation.

NO ALUM

In the language of flowers, orchids mean "a fool and his money are soon parted."

"Made Rich in Three Hours"—but then you lose it so quick when you wake up.

A bright young man from the country, if he goes to the city and works pretty hard for ten or fifteen years, can sometimes make enough money to go and live in the country.
