

THE VICTROLA AND THE COMMUNITY—NO. 5

Mrs. Doctor

says: "Really, since we got our Victrola, our home seems a different place."

"A doctor's life is so hurried and busy that regular hours are impossible and no plans can be made."

"The Victrola, however, is always ready and we spend many delightful hours as opportunity affords. My favorite artist is Alma Gluck and I simply adore her record of 'My Old Kentucky Home'."

"When other ladies begin to talk about their musical evenings or dances now, I do not feel out of it—we have them ourselves. It's wonderful what excellent ten-inch, double-sided Victor Records you can get at 90 cents each."

AUSTRIAN ONSLAUGHT ON LITTLE MONTENEGRO

London, Jan. 11—Montenegro is being treated to a steamroller attack, similar to that which crumpled up its friend and neighbor, Serbia. The Austrian onslaught, which has been a long time in preparation, is now being prosecuted with great violence, menacing several important positions close to the Adriatic coast.

The great Montenegrin stronghold, Mount Lovcen, has fallen, according to tonight's Austrian official communication. The attack here has been largely assisted by Austrian warships and the guns of the Cattaro forts. In addition, the Montenegrins say, the Austrians made abundant use of asphyxiating gas contrivances. A battle is raging on the whole of the northern and eastern frontiers of Montenegro. On the east the Montenegrins have been compelled to evacuate Berne.

For the British public the latest statements regarding the situation in Mesopotamia will not entirely relieve the anxiety. The British general, Aylmer's, column, which is advancing to the relief of Kut-el-Amara, has met and repulsed a strong Turkish force, but its present position is by no means satisfactory, for it finds in front of it a Turkish army greatly superior in numbers. Therefore, it is evident that a successful juncture of the two British forces, although they are only twenty miles apart, may prove a difficult matter.

There have been no fresh developments on the Russian front, where the cold weather again has set in, the thermometer at some points touching twenty degrees below zero. Although, for the moment, the Russians have ceased their attack upon the Austro-German lines from the Pripiet river to the Bessarabian front, information from German sources is that they have not given up the venture, but are merely reorganizing their forces for another formidable assault.

The Russians are reported as fortifying the positions recently won by them, and in this way their front has been gradually extended, until they occupy about thirty-four miles of the east bank of the middle reaches of the Stripa river, a position which it is deemed secure against recapture by the Austro-Germans.

PROOF AGAINST ATTACKS.

As far as the western front is concerned, the centre of interest is still the Champagne region. According to French accounts, there was clearly nothing casual or ordinary about the big German attack which the French claim they successfully stopped. The French lines here made a tempting salient, but the position evidently has been made correspondingly strong. Paris claims that the French, by vigorous counter-attacks, expelled the Germans from all except a small section of the trenches which they had won in Champagne.

The domestic crisis over the government's compulsion bill has become much less tense and it is now freely predicted that the government and the Labor party may again be placed on friendly terms and that the expected break in the coalition ministry may be prevented. John Redmond announced in parliament today that the Nationalists would not further oppose the Military Service Bill.

The resignation of Arthur Henderson, president of the board of coalition, and his two Labor colleagues, from the ministerial councils, have not yet been accepted and at the conference which the representatives of Labor will hold with Premier Asquith tomorrow some agreement may be reached by which they will be retained in the government.

WARDEN O'LEARY'S REPORT ON BIG GAME SEASON

Mr. A. E. O'Leary, Provincial Fire Inspector, Board of Railway Commissioners, and Chief Game Warden for New Brunswick, has prepared his usual comprehensive and very complete yearly report on the work of his department during the year 1915. The report calls attention to the fact that outside of two counties, Gloucester and Restigouche, there has been very little damage from forest fires, and it may be added that this gratifying condition is the result of the keen vigilance of the Provincial Inspector and his assistants, who were very active in suppressing fires in their early stages.

In regard to big game, Chief Game Warden O'Leary reports a considerable decrease in the number of moose, deer, etc., shot during the big game season as compared with 1914, this being due principally to the absence of so many former hunters at the front.

Shooting Accidents.

On Sept. 16th, Harrington, shot by Wm. Taylor, on Fredericton road, in Westmorland county.

Bathurst, Nov. 9th—Charles Roberts, aged 16, shot by young Curtis, aged 12.

Forest Glen, Nov. 18th—John Armstrong, aged 25 years, shot by Arthur Harrison and instantly killed.

Samuel Driscoll and Wm. R. Smith fired on Artemus Randall, Henry Rogers and Sydney Hudlin, killing Randall and wounding Rogers. This took place on Oct. 6th, near Lakeville Corner, Sunbury county, on the Portobello waters. Randall leaves a wife and five young children.

Stanley Akery was shot and killed at the edge of a wood near his home, Akery's Wharf, on Friday, Nov. 5th. He leaves a wife and three children. No information has as yet been received as to who shot him. His own rifle was not discharged.

There were nine shooting accidents in the fall of 1914.

The returns of game killed are possibly not quite complete, but in so far as it is able to secure figures the returns are:

LITTLE OPPOSITION TO COMPULSION BILL

London, Jan. 11—Opposition to the government compulsion bill dwindled to a meagre handful in parliament today, and predictions in the lobby of the House of Commons tonight were that the vote on the second reading tomorrow would find little more than twenty or thirty in opposition, as contrasted with 105 on the first reading.

The Irish Nationalists today announced abandonment of their opposition, in view of the fact that the bill does not apply to Ireland. John Redmond, the veteran Home Rule leader, who made this announcement, shared the most prominent position in the day's debate with his old enemy, Sir Edward Carson, who, in a fiery speech, pleaded that Ireland ought to be included in the bill. Sir Edward rose to speak as soon as John Redmond ceased.

"I welcome the announcement that has just been made," he said, referring to Mr. Redmond's withdrawal of the Irish Nationalist opposition, "but I regret that the honorable gentleman should not have gone a step further and led his party into the House in favor of the bill. It would have been even better if the honorable gentleman had allowed Ireland to be included. He and I are old opponents, but I can assure him, from the bottom of my heart, that nothing would be more likely to bring us together on a common platform than that we should find Ireland, together with England, Scotland and Wales, absolutely unanimous in what we believe necessary for winning the war."

Slants Of Humor

A JANUARY JINGLE.

A January jingle
We now proceed to write.
The air is all a-tingle
And stimulating quite.

The vows we manufactured,
The good resolves we made
Have not as yet been fractured
And are of highest grade.

With rapture in the dingle
And progress in the glen,
A January jingle
Is quite the thing to pen.

Two young naval officers were heard discussing their respective dearests and bests—for the time being.

"I think Clara is a dear little craft," said one.

"Dear and little," did you say?" snorted the other. "She's 'dear' all right, but I don't know so much about her being 'little.' She's the biggest revenue cutter I've ever seen."—Tit-Bits.

OF COURSE.

"What was the result of the flood?" asked the Sunday school teacher.
"Mud," replied the bright youngster.

A FUNNY ONE.

Small James, after attempting to make a picture of a horse on his slate asked:

"Mamma, does God see everything?"

"Yes, dear," was the reply.
"Well," continued the embryo artist, "I'll bet He'll laugh when He sees this horse."

GIRLS! GIRLS! TRY IT! STOP DANDRUFF AND BEAUTIFY YOUR HAIR

Hair Stops Falling Out and Gets Thick, Wavy, Strong and Beautiful.

Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy, abundant and appears as soft, lustrous and beautiful as a young girl's after a "Danderine hair cleanse." Just try this—moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt and excessive oil and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair.

Besides beautifying the hair at once Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff, cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair.

But what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use when you will actually see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair growing all over the scalp. If you care for pretty, soft hair—and lots of it surely get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drugist or toilet counter and just try it.

LATE TIP O'NEIL WAS WONDERFUL BATSMAN

"Tip" O'Neill, the most famous batsman Canada ever produced, was born in Woodstock fifty-two years ago. His funeral took place there a few days ago. He learned the game in that city and played with the Woodstock team in the old Canadian League, about 1880. He went to the Hiawathas of Detroit in 1882 and the next season joined the Metropolitans of New York, one of the three American Association teams, under Jim Mutrie.

O'Neill, when his pitching arm gave out, was taken by Comiskey for the famous St. Louis Browns. That team won the championship four years running, 1885, 1886, 1887 and 1888, and was made up of:

Comiskey first base, Robinson second, Latham third, Gleason short, Welch, Nichol and O'Neill outfield; Bushong, Carruthers and Fritz pitchers. O'Neill continued with the team for six years and finished his great career with Cincinnati.

His wonderful hitting powers was one of the features of his day, and his averages in the several years of playing were: .342, .329, .492, .332, .337, .302 and .324.

In 1887, when he hit the remarkable figures of .492 for St. Louis, he was in practically every game.

Help to Make Her Dream Come True

The agony of blood and tears which swept over Belgium has left nearly two millions of its people absolutely without food or money. Because they scorned to sell their national honor—because they dared to fight for the right, against odds that were overwhelming—because by their sacrifice they saved the day for us and our Allies—they are face to face with grim starvation.

The wives, mothers and children of King Albert's gallant soldiers, dream not of pleasures and luxuries, but of BREAD! They are helpless to provide it themselves—and the Belgian Relief Commission, efficient though it is, can only procure it for them with cash supplied by the voluntary contributions of people like ourselves. The is provided almost entirely by the British Empire and the United States, and administered by a neutral "Commission for Relief in Belgium", co-operating with the "Belgian Public Food Supply Society".

This Commission has for months been the sole means of providing food for the Belgian people—for the Germans positively refuse to feed their victims. Some 5,000,000 are still able to pay for the food, while nearly 2,000,000, absolutely destitute, must be fed free.

For money to buy food for these Belgians, the Commission appeals to us all. If we do not furnish it—if we sit back in plenty and let our heroic Allies seal their sacrifice with their lives—we shall be eternally disgraced!
