SERG. HARTLEY FRENCH IS REPORTED KILLED

South African Veteran—Joined the 26th Battalion at St. John.

A telegram received last night from Mrs. Hartley French, of Boston, by friends in this city, stated that she had been officially informed that her husband, Sergt. Hartley French, had been killed in action.

He had been reported some days ago as missing. Mrs. French was formerly Miss Harris, of Fredericton, and her husband also was a resident of this city.

Sergt. French served in the South African war in a Canadian corps. On the outbreak of the present war he was residing in Boston. He went to St. John, where he enlisted in the 26th Battalion.

The news of his death will cause great regret to his many friends here. To Join R. F. C.

Private Cyprien Thompson, of this city, who was wounded in fighting last spring, has been in England since April. Medical officers have declined to permit him to return to the trenches, and he is now trying to enter the Royal Flying Corps.

Expected Home Tomorrow.

Chief of Police McCollom, who has been attending the convention of Chief Constables of Canada at Kenora, Ont., is expected to return to Fredericton tomorrow.

Escort for Prisoner.

An escort has arrived from St. John to take charge of Private Rankine Nobles, of Zealand, who is charged with being absent from the 140th Battalion without leave. They will take him to St. John tonight.

Wounded a Second Time.

Lieut. Frank M. Smith, of St. John, well known in Fredericton, is reported wounded a second time. He was a Rhodes Scholar at Oxford when he joined King Edward's Horse. Afterward he took a commission in the York and Lancaster Regiment. When attending Mt. Allison University at Sackville he was well known as a Rugby player.

Death of an Aged Lady.

Mrs. Susana Owens passed away this morning at her home, Charlotte street, at the age of eighty-four years. She was the widow of the late Edward Owens. Six sons and one daughter survive. They are John E., of St. John, Peter, of Moncton, J. Frank, of St. John, Joseph, of Fredericton, Louis, of St. John, Edward of Seattle, and Miss Mary E., at home. Interment will be made at the Hermitage. Announcement of the funeral will be made later.

Swedish Consul General.

Mr. David Bergstrom, Swedish consul general at Montreal, is a guest at the Queen Hotel. Mr. Bergstrom visited the Dominion Experimental Station this afternoon. He also visited other places about the city. He arrived from Montreal this morning.

Had Pleasant Trip.

Mr. Adam Moore, the noted guide, of Scotch Lake, has returned from a fortnight's trip to Cleveland, where he was entertained in a princely manner by sportsmen friends.

Band Concert Cancelled.

The band concert which would have been given tonight by the Fredericton Brass Band, has been cancelled in order that there will be no conflict with the Williams' Standard Attractions, which are showing at Queens square under the patronage of the Patriotic Committee. Probably two concerts will be given next week.

Three More Recruits.

Three recruits for the 236th Highlanders were enlisted yesterday afternoon and this morning. A fourth is being examined this afternoon. Mr. W. H. Ross, of St. John, a well known commercial traveller, who is to be instructor to the pipe band, was one of those enlisted. They are as follows: W. H. Ross, 43, St. John; Geo. Reilly, 18, St. Stephen; D. A. Murray, 32, Woodstock.

PERSONAL.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Chipman Whitehead and children, of Woodstock, were among the visitors in town on Thursday. Mrs. Whitehead and children were en route to Blackville, where they will spend the holidays with relatives. Mr. F. P. Hunter, of St. Stephen, is at the Barker House.
