

DON'T SCOLD, MOTHER THE CROSS CHILD IS BILIOUS, FEVERISH

Look at Tongue! If Coated, Clean
Little Stomach, Liver, Bowels.

Don't scold your fretful, peevish child. See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign its little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with sour waste.

When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally, has stomach-ache, indigestion, diarrhoea, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul waste, the sour bile and fermenting food passes out of the bowels and you have a well and playful child again. Children love this harmless "fruit laxative," and mothers can rest easy after giving it, because it never fails to make their little "insides" clean and sweet.

Keep it handy, Mother! A little given today saves a sick child tomorrow; but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Remember, there are counterfeiters sold here, so surely look and see that yours is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Hand back with contempt any other fig syrup.

RESULT OF U. S. ELECTION IN DOUBT

New York, Nov. 6.—Last minute election betting just before the close of business on the Broad street curb today saw a narrowing of the odds to ten to nine on Hughes to beat Wilson. At the same time, bets were being made on the floor of the stock exchange at ten to eight.

At the opening of business this morning the betting was ten to seven on Hughes, the same as on Saturday. At noon the odds were ten to eight and a half.

This is the first time in the history of Wall street betting that the odds have narrowed the day before election.

DEUTSCHLAND HAS VALUABLE CARGO

Bridgeport, Conn., Nov. 6.—That the cargo of the German merchant submarine amounted in value to approximately $10,000,000, was announced here last night by James L. McGovern, collector of customs for Connecticut.

Of this sum, he said, $9,000,000 was represented by stocks, bonds and other securities shipped from Germany for the purpose of strengthening German credit in the United States.

About $1,000,000 or the value of the cargo, McGovern said, consisted of dye-stuffs, medicine and chemicals.

A very small proportion was represented by diamonds and other precious stones, he declared.

TRAIN BROKE AWAY ON GRADE.

Accident on Pennsylvania Railroad Results in Four Deaths.

Altoona, Pa., Nov. 6.—Dashing uncontrolled down the ten mile grade of the Newport branch of the Pennsylvania Railroad near Hollidaysburg today, a coal train of sixty cars crashed into four light engines standing near Newport Junction, with the result that four railroad men were killed, two are missing and three were injured.

LONGSHOREMEN WANT INCREASE

St. John Ship Laborers Can't Wait Until Next Spring.

St. John, Nov. 6.—The St. John Ship Laborers have appointed a commission wit steamship line heads to ask that an increase in wages arranged to become effective on May 1, 1917, go into effect at the beginning of the winter port season, now about starting.

They give as a reason for the request the increase in the cost of living.

The opinion prevails tonight that it is still anybody's election. The view is apparently held by Lloyds, which is offering even money on either Wilson or Hughes.

A SPIRIT MESSAGE FROM HARTLEY FRENCH

Boston Medium Claims Communication with a Fredericton Man Killed in Actoin.

The following is from a recent issue of the Boston Post. Hartley French, referred to by Mr. Thomas, was a resident of Fredericton for years and well known in this city. He was a veteran of the South African war.

Messages from the dead—soldier heroes slain in the war—are claimed to have been received in Boston.

"I was killed on the battlefield in France," began a message to Mrs. S. Mitchell, of Tremont street.

"Nobody in spirit land can say when this awful war will end," said another to F. H. Williams, also of Tremont street.

That scores of these men who have passed from earth are constantly manifesting themselves to friends and relatives in Boston is declared by F. A. Thomas, doctor of Spiritual Science.

What is equally surprising, adds Mr. Thomas, is that most of the messages have arrived ahead of letters from Europe conveying what he asserts is exactly the same information.

After telling of the spirit message he conveyed to Mrs. Mitchell, Mr. Thomas related the following unusual incident:

"I called at the home of F. H. Williams, 708 Tremont street, where I now live, and Mr. Williams answered the bell. I had never seen Mr. Williams, did not know any of his family or anything about him. While we were talking I saw a spirit standing beside Mr. Williams.

Described the Spirit.

"I described the spirit so closely that Mr. Williams told me his name was Hartley French, 38 years old, who with his family had lived in Mr. Williams' house for three years. While in Boston he was employed as an automobile chauffeur, and after he went to the war his family went to live with some of their relatives in Roxbury.

"When the war broke out Mr. French went to his old home in St. John, N. B., and enlisted in the Canadian army. He felt it was his duty to go, as he was a British subject and wished to prove loyal to his country. But he did not believe the war would last long and planned to return to Boston just as soon as it was ended.

"He was fighting in the trenches in France when he and several others were literally blown to atoms by the explosion of a shell.

"As the spirit appeared there beside Mr. Williams, who had known French so well and liked him very much, it said:

"I want to send a message to my family to tell them I am happy. Some day I will manifest directly to them. I have found things much different in the spirit world from what I was taught to believe."

"Mr. Williams suggested that I ask him when the war would end. I did so, and he replied:

Cannot Tell When War Will End.

"All Europe will be in it yet, and perhaps the United States, unless some change takes place. There is no one in the earth plane who is perfect and knows it all. And here in the spirit world nobody knows it all, and no spirit here can say when the war will end.

"The men in the trenches know very little about the war. It will never be known how many men are killed. The suffering in the trenches is so dreadful that the soldiers prefer death to remaining there."

"The spirit of Mr. French then ceased manifesting," said Mr. Thomas. "He insisted he was happy even though he passed out under such awful conditions—his material self being literally wiped out of existence in the fraction of a second. Mr. Williams told me that if the man had been standing right there I could not have given a better description of him."

INCREASES SUBSCRIPTION.

Will Outfit One Company of the 236th
MacLean Highlanders.

Mr. E. W. Beatty, director and general counsel for the C. P. R., has increased his subscriptions to the 236th Battalion fund by guaranteeing to meet the cost of outfitting one company. Reports from Fort William, Ont., are to the effect that the 236th MacLean Highlanders will get a considerable number of recruits from that town and vicinity.

Lieut. Colonel Guthrie and Officers of the 236th Overseas Battalion (New Brunswick Kilties—Sir Sam's Own) appeal to every man who is physically fit to put on the Tartan of Clan MacLean.

THE TARTAN OF GOOD CLAN MACLEAN.

(By Major C. G. Geggie.)

Oh, men of the Thistle, the Shamrock, the Rose,
You men of a land where true Liberty grows,
Come fight for the women and bairnies at home,
And put on the Tartan of good Clan MacLean.

Come, follow the leaders who gave of their blood,
That the flag of their country be never down trod.
Come, fight ye with might, and come fight ye with main,
Come, put on the Tartan of good Clan MacLean!

We want you, we need you, oh, men of the Gael,
And you of the Green Isle, we know you'll not fail.
Come out, lusty Saxon, and strike for your ain,
Come, put on the Tartan of good Clan MacLean!
