Slants Of Humor

THE PRESCRIPTION
"Who's down there?" called Dr. Stitch thrusting his head, features and neck out of his bedroom window.
"It's me doctor," said the dark figure on the doorstep.
"Oh you!" said the doctor.
"The baby has been crying these four hours, and everybody in the house is up but nobody can quiet him," said the d. f. on the steps.
"The poor child I'll just throw down some sleeping powders," said the doctor.
And he did and Mr. Wee Gates—for it was he—hurried home with them, found the baby still crying and his family still awake and worrying.
"Here everybody," said Gates and he gave a sleeping powder to Mrs. Gates one to Aunt Iron and to Miss Garden Gates and took one himself.
They all fell to sleep immediately and didn't hear another sound from the baby until morning.

SLOW MOVEMENTS
Bill—Where did they get that new fielder on the college ball nine?
Jim—He's a produce of the college class club. Can't you see how slow he is?

A FARMER'S PROSPERITY
Farmer Corning was asked whether he had had a good year.
"Gosh Yes," he exclaimed "I had four cows and three hogs killed by train and two hogs and eleven chickens killed by automobiles. I cleared near a thousand dollars." Puck

TRUE FIGHTERS
Pat came home one night with a black eye, a broken nose and a split lip; a front tooth was gone as well.
"Tim Sullivan done it," he told his wife as he began to bathe his wounds in a basin of water.
"Shame on ye," Bridget cried "A big feller like you to be licked by a little hard-drinkin' cockroach like Tim Sullivan! why he!"
"Whist!" said Pat from his basin, softly "Don't shpaxe evil of the dead. Washin' ton, Star."

"Waiter, the steak is so tough I can't cut it with this knife."
"Very good, sir—I'll bring you another knife sir."

LOOK CLOSER
Teacher, (in rhetoric class) Johnnie give me a sentence with 'scene' in it.
Johnnie—"An' I seen her on his lap."
Teacher—"No Johnnie that wrong; now can you tell me what is wrong?"
Johnnie—"Well, perhaps she wasn't. It was sort of dark and how was I to know."

School Superintendent—Do you have trouble with any of your pupils?
School Teacher—Only with Willie Red-tape, the lawyer's son. He is constantly yelling to have school dismissed or at least have the session put off until next year.—Puck

Old Lady—My poor man! Here is a cent for you.
Polite Beggar—Can't you make it two madam?
Old Lady—What would you do with two cents?
Polite Beggar—Id buy a stamp and mail you an acknowledgment, madam. Etiquette forbids me using a past card.

WORLDLY WISDOM.

Industry is the mother of good luck. There's many an untied knot in a cord of wood.

Fools often find opportunities—wise men make them.

It's difficult to keep your circle of acquaintances squared.

Only the break of day prevents the night from going too far.

Ceremony was invented by a wise man to keep fools at a distance.

Solitude is better than a company—when the company is not congenial.

A promising young man may be all right, but we prefer a paying one.

Occasionally a married man goes home early when he knows his wife is away.

WHEN TO HAND THE LEMON.

Lemon juice diluted makes an excellent mouth wash, particularly refreshing in fevers.

A large glass of very hot lemonade just before retiring will prevent colds. A lemon poultice ill cure a felon. Cut lemon at one end, scoop out a little of the pulp and thrust the painful finger into the lemon.

The juice of one-half lemon in one-half glass water, taken before break-

A PAIN IN THE BACK COMES FROM THE KIDNEYS.

When a pain asserts itself in the back you may rest assured that it comes from some derangement of the kidneys, for were there not something wrong with the kidneys the back would be strong and well, and would be without a pain or an ache.

For backache, lame or weak back, there is no remedy to equal Doan's Kidney Pills.

They take out the stitches, twinges, and twinges, limber up the stiff back, and give perfect relief and comfort to all poor, suffering women who suffer so much from a weak, lame, aching back.

Miss Iva A. Ferris, Mill Cove, N.B., writes: "I suffered for two years from pains in my back. I tried several kinds of patent medicines, and was almost discouraged until I noticed your advertisement of Doan's Kidney Pills. I thought it would not hurt to try them. I had only used two boxes before I noticed a great difference, and after I had taken four boxes I was completely cured. I would not be without them in the house. I can recommend them to all I know."

Doan's Kidney Pills are 50c per box, 3 boxes for $1.25; at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Millburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

When ordering direct specify "Doan's."
