

PROCLAMATION

BY HIS HONOUR JOSIAH WOOD,
D. C. L., LL. D., LIEUTENANT-
GOVERNOR OF THE PROVINCE OF NEW BRUNSWICK.

Whereas, the 4th of August, 1916, is the second anniversary of the declaration of war by Great Britain, and whereas it has been proposed by the Central Committee for National Patriotic Organizations, with the approval of the British Government, that public meetings be held throughout the Empire on that day, at which the following resolution should be passed:

"That on this the second anniversary of the declaration of a righteous war, this meeting of the citizens of . . . records its inflexible determination to continue to a victorious end the struggle in maintenance of those ideals of Liberty and Justice which are the common and sacred cause of the Allies."

And whereas the Executive Council of this Province has passed an Order-in-Council authorizing a Proclamation to issue requiring the assembling of the people together on that day for said purpose,

We therefore hereby request and enjoin that all loyal citizens throughout the province do meet on said 4th day of August and pass the said Resolution, and in view of the gravity of the situation and the solemnity of the occasion, the day be also observed by holding meetings of a religious and intercessory, as well as patriotic character.

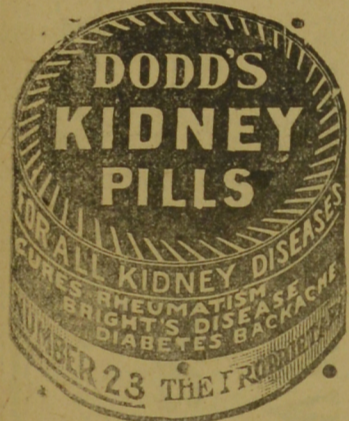

Given under my hand and seal at Fredericton, the twenty-fourth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixteen, and in the seventh year of His Majesty's reign.

By command of the
LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR.

A VETERAN TRAVELLER.

Among the recent visitors at the Queen Hotel was Mr. T. T. Cartwright of Toronto, district sales manager for E. W. Gillett & Co., Ltd. Mr. Cartwright was formerly well known in this vicinity, having been calling on the grocery trade for the past twenty years.

Mr. Cartwright is on his annual summer visit to the wholesale trade and visiting all the Gillette company's salesmen in the Maritime Provinces and Newfoundland. He says he sees a great difference in trade in Fredericton since he was here last.

TRIAL OF EX-MINISTERS IN MANITOBA NOW GOING ON

Winnipeg, July 30—"Prisoners, stand up!" From their seats behind their counsel and beside the prisoner's dock, Sir Rodmond Roblin, former Premier of Manitoba, George R. Caldwell, former Minister of Education, and Hon. James H. Howden, former Attorney General, rose this week and listened to the indictment charging them with conspiracy to defraud the province, and with conspiracy to dissuade a witness, William Salt, from giving evidence before the Public Accounts Committee.

It was a dramatic moment in Manitoba's greatest criminal trial. All eyes were focussed on the accused, seeking for some revelation of their real feelings. They gave no sign, facing their accusers with as much sangfroid as they ever displayed in the Legislature. As the trial proceeds the prisoners retain their composure. When the Crown's star witness, Victor Horwood, ex-Provincial architect, directly accused them of working with him to produce a fraudulent estimate, they appeared to be only mildly interested.

The commanding figure is the former Premier, who is the centre of attraction. Sir Rodmond watches the progress of the trial closely. He rarely advises his counsel and he seldom speaks to his fellow prisoners. He is still the "Old Roman."

Frequently, before the Judge takes his seat on the bench or just after adjournment of the court, the former Premier talks with the press representatives or with some acquaintance. He does not discuss the trial. Sir Rodmond appears to be in excellent health, but the hair on his massive head seems to be slightly grayer than it was when he controlled the political destinies of the province. A toothpick now replaces the cigar usually seen in his mouth on informal occasions.

Hon. George R. Caldwell is the most alert of the trinity. He is a lawyer, and like Howden, not a point escapes him. Frequently he confers with his counsel. He always takes notes. His smile is as ready as ever.

One would suspect that Hon. James H. Howden does not take much interest in the trial, if it were not for the force of circumstances. Several times he has roused himself while on the verge of going to sleep. But when evidence concerns him particularly he is very wide awake.

Though a lawyer, he does not consult his counsel frequently, and he rarely takes notes.

During the recent stifling sessions of the court his principal endeavor seemed to be to make himself as comfortable as possible.

AUSTRO-HUNGARIANS
TO EVACUATE LEMBERG

London, Aug. 1.—Telegrams from Vienna says that the Austro-Hungarians have made all preparations for the evacuation of Lemberg, the Galician capital, says a despatch from Copenhagen to the Exchange Telegraph Co.

Large quantities of goods have been removed from the city.

The Neue Frie Press of Vienna says it learns that a large number of the inhabitants of Lemberg have already left the place.

WORLDLY WISDOM.

Some people would feel awfully hurt if you should rob them of their belief in a personal devil—they were depending on him to help them get even with their enemies.

It always hurts a man's feelings to discover that just because he was generous and courteous enough to become "engaged" to a girl for the kissing season she expects him to marry her.

The difference between a tyro and an artist in love-making is merely that the former says "I love you," as though it were a jest, while the latter were a declaration of eternal devotion.

FIRE HAS TAKEN A TERRIBLE TOLL

Exact Number of Lives Lost in Northern Ontario Will Never Be Known.

WHOLE SETTLEMENTS
HAVE BEEN WIPED OUT

Haileybury, Ont., Aug. 1.—The terrible toll of life taken by the fire demon in the country between Ramore and Cochrane, grows in magnitude every hour, and there is no hope or belief that even 500 will be the limit, although the exact number will never be known.

When whole settlements are wiped off the face of the map, and reports come in that there are only eight survivors from a thriving settlement of 108 people, when one hears of 130 bodies being buried in a morning, charred beyond all recognition, of 57 bodies found in a railway cut, of 24 bodies in a roothouse, of 16 found in a pit, one realizes that it is impossible to estimate numbers, and that for every one found near the railway line by relief workers who went up, there may be a dozen lying dead among the ashes that spread for hundreds of square miles over Northern Ontario.

And because there has been such a holocaust it is equally impossible to get a list of names of the dead. That too will never be known, for the flames ate every means of identification and so scattered were the settlements in some quarters that even if one member of a family escaped, he or she could not give the names of neighbors, nor know what became of them, except in rare instances.

So relief workers who went up from North Bay, Cobalt, Haileybury, New Liskeard and other places, and who found bodies lying in every direction, could do nothing but dig deep trenches and put the remains in them unrecognized and unrecognizable, while others searched along creeks or walls for any who might have survived.

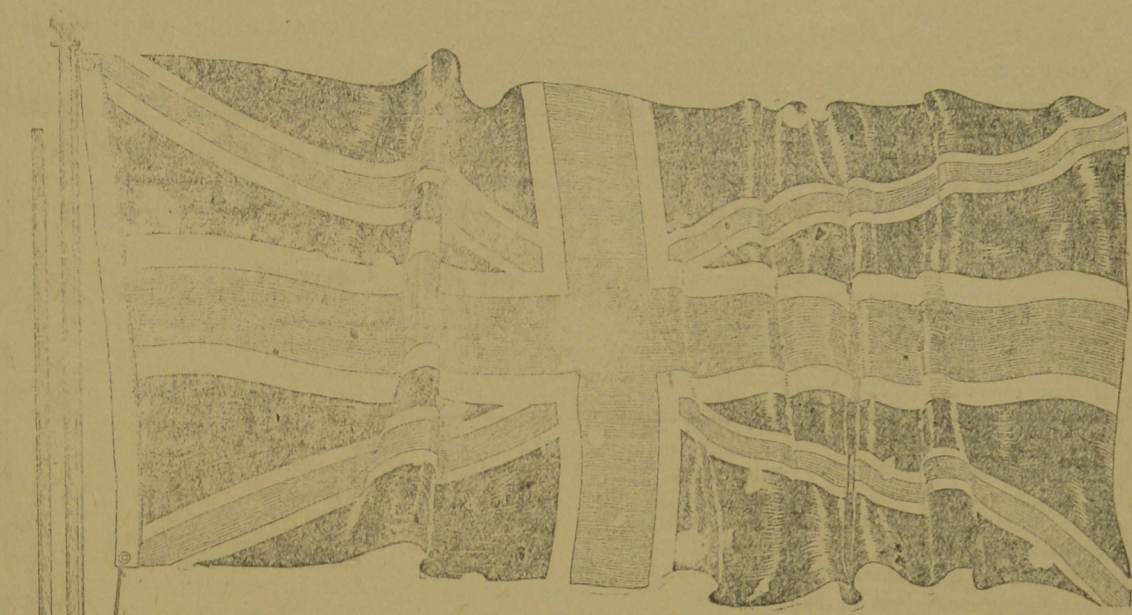

The survivors were pitifully few, and the first train that got back here last night only brought in forty-three passengers, of whom three women and seventeen men were terribly burnt, and the remainder, women and children, were refugees.

Cure Your Bad Cough
By Breathing
"Catarrhazone"

You may dislike taking medicines—but coughs are best cured without medicine. The modern treatment is "Catarrhazone." It isn't a drug—it's a healing vapor full of pine essences and healing balsams. It spreads over the surfaces that are weak and sore from coughing. Every spot that is congested is healed; irritation is soothed away; phlegm and secretions are cleaned out, and all symptoms of cold or catarrh are cured. Nothing so quick, so sure, so pleasant as Catarrhazone. Beware of dangerous substitutes meant to deceive you for genuine Catarrhazone. All dealers sell Catarrhazone, large size which lasts two months price $1.00; small size 50c.; same size 25c. . . .

Early to bed and early to rise—is a theory only.
