

CARLETON CAMPAIGN ENTERS ON LAST FULL WEEK

Government's Booze Contingent Already Active -- Opposition Sticks to Its Pledge For Clean Contest -- P. J. Veniot Made Vigorous Reply to Landry and Murray.

Woodstock, Sept. 11.—The last full week of the campaign opened with a swing today. The forces of the Government realize that this is going to be a "hoss race" and the man who can pick both winners can win a pot of money. The election "influences" are making their appearance, but the Opposition have not wavered in their resolve not to use liquor in the election. Considerable quantities are reported in the hands of some government supporters in different parts of the county. It must not be supposed that the big wigs take any open hand in this. They protest ignorance and disgust—and furnish the funds to buy the stuff.

"It is early to start that game," said a prominent political worker today, and the men who have started the orgy will get good and tired of it before long. Rum openly distributed will disgust honest Conservatives and win votes for the Opposition.

Rev. Mr. Howard made a forcible reference from the pulpit to the letter sent the clergymen by Hon. W. P. Jones and Messrs. John Y. Flemming and C. F. Gallagher when the campaign opened. If the clergymen of the county took a united stand on the corruption in the elections this by-contest would be conducted differently.

But, win or lose, the Opposition will not flood Carleton county with liquor. Tonight Messrs. Carvell and McCann were at Bloomsfield and Hon. W. P. Jones and R. L. Simms at Victoria Corner. Fred E. Sharp and others at Windsor and P. J. Veniot, G. H. Adair and Geo. W. Upham at Glassville, while E. S. Carter and others spoke at Farmington.

Mr. Veniot's Reply.

Mr. Veniot in his speech at Glassville made a complete answer to many of Dr. Landry's arguments.

Thursday night at Centreville, Hon. Dr. Landry spoke, and among other things told the people that the graft charges by P. J. Veniot in connection with the Gloucester and Kent county bridges only amounted to some slight errors in keeping accounts. In his speech at Glassville, tonight Mr. Veniot produced the verdict of Commissioner Chandler to show that pay sheets had been padded and the names of persons who had never worked on certain bridges had been forged on the endorsement of checks made out in their names, and that this money had been handed over to John Sheridan, a member for the county of Kent, who resigned his seat in the Legislature before the Commissioner gave his decision.

To prove the untruthfulness of the statement made by Dr. Landry, Mr. Veniot read the answer given in the House by the Minister of Public Works to the question asked by Mr. Dugal, M. P. P., inquiring if it was the intention of the government to proceed against Sheridan to recover the money paid to him through these fraudulent checks.

The answer was that the government had already taken steps to force Sheridan to refund these amounts.

"In the face of these facts," said Mr. Veniot, "how can the people of Carleton rely upon what Dr. Landry says?"

Gloucester Graft.

Mr. Veniot then proceeded to deal with Dr. Landry's statement in connection with Gloucester county graft, and reading from the records, showed how a foreman had to accept $70 instead of $223, as sworn to by him, on a padded pay sheet; how hundreds of dollars were padded and checks issued for work on numerous bridges, the proceeds of which went into the pockets of a certain member who had in consequence been forced to resign his seat. He also showed by the records how the same member had defrauded the government out of hundreds of dollars in stumpage and the only punishment meted out to him was the cancellation of his timber license.

"Dr. Landry," said Mr. Veniot, "has all the records of these investigations before him; he knew when he made those statements to you that he was not telling the truth. Why he should act in this way I cannot understand. He must have very little respect for the truth or he must think that the people of Carleton are easily deceived. Politics have indeed descended to a very low level when a responsible minister of the crown will stoop to such glaring misstatement of the facts. 'This same gentleman,' said Mr.

6 MONTHS OLD BABY Cured of DIARRHOEA

During the hot weather young children are very much subject to diarrhoea, in fact more so than adults, on account of the more delicate construction of their constitution. It behoves every mother to look after her children on the first sign of any looseness of the bowels, for if they do not some serious bowel trouble such as diarrhoea, dysentery, cholera infantum, cholera morbus, summer complaint, etc., is liable to follow, and they will, perhaps, lose their little one by not taking the precautions to check this looseness of the bowels by using Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry.

Mrs. Chas. Monck, Marlbank, Ont., writes: "When my little girl was about six months old she took a severe attack of diarrhoea. I tried castor oil, laudanum and other treatments, but they were of no use. A neighbor told me about Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. I tried it, and after giving my baby two doses I could see a great change for the better. I have always praised 'Dr. Fowler's' since then."

Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry is the original. See you get it when you ask for it.

Veniot, "has been boasting of his loyalty by telling you good people of Carleton county how he on several occasions tendered his services for overseas. This statement will certainly come as a surprise to many of his compatriots to whom he has repeatedly refused his help in recruiting for the Acadian battalion."

The Revenue.

Hon. Mr. Murray in his Debec meeting, having boasted of the great increase in revenue, comparing 1909
