WOMAN'S COLUMN

SWEET POTATO FRITTERS.

Use left-over sweet potatoes cooked by any process. Mash or rub through a vegetable press

To two cups of potato add one cup of milk, one tablespoon sugar, one tablespoon butter, a little salt, and the yolks of two beaten eggs.

Shape into thin cakes, dip into the beaten whites of the eggs, then into cracker crumbs, dip a second time in the white of egg and cracker crumbs, and set in ice box to chill. Fry in deep fat and serve with lemon sauce.

GRAPE JELLY.

Grapes which are fully ripe are unfit for jelly, as they have lost the jelly principle.

Pick the grapes from the stems, wash and put in a pan or jar that can be set in a larger pan or vessel of hot water. Add, if you would avoid the tartar that often forms to grape jelly, one or two apples. This will not alter the taste, but it prevents the formation of the objectionable crystals.

Cook until the grapes and apples are broken, then strain. Measure the juice, which will be much cleaner if no pressure has been exerted during the straining, and to every pint of juice, allow a pound of granulated sugar.

Put the juice over the fire and the sugar in shallow pans in the oven where it will get thoroughly heated but not yellowed. The oven must not be very hot and it is unwise to close the oven door lest you forget.

Cook the juice 20 minutes, skimming free from all impurities; then add the sugar, stir well until thoroughly dissolved, remove the spoon, cook a minute or two longer until the liquid jellies when dropped by the spoonful on a cold plate.

Pour into sterilized jelly glasses and seal when cold.

Wild grapes make a delicious jelly, and a jelly made from half green and half ripe grapes is especially fine flavored.

THE WOES OF MRS. NEWLYWED.

"I want to make some small cakes for a luncheon," remarked Mrs. Newlywed, "can't you tell me how to make some nice ones."

"These are fine," said Mrs. Neighbor. "Take one-half cup of butter and lard mixed and creamed with one and one-half cups brown sugar, two eggs well beaten, two flour, one even teaspoon soda in a little hot water, one pound chopped dates, one-half pound of English walnuts, flavor with vanilla. Mix with the hands, pat out in small cakes and bake in ungreased tins."

WHY HE ENLISTED

Some time ago, before conscription was seriously mooted, a certain patriotic English grocer called together his staff consisting of a solitary assistant, proposed that one of them should enlist, he said he would go himself, being a single man.

"Ye, Mackay, will stay behind and keep the business going."

Mackay, with tears in his eyes, warmly seconded, so in a short time the deed was done.

"Many months passed by, and the ex-grocer when going off trench duty received the shock of his life, for did he not see his assistant dressed in khaki standing before him?"

"Mackay! Great Firkins, can that be ye?" he exclaimed, aghast. "Did I not leave ye in charge o' the shop?"

"So I thought at the time, maister, but the fact is, it was no a shop ye left me in charge o', but a wumman folk. So, sez I too mase, 'Mackay, if ye've got tae fecht ye may as well fecht something ye can hit so I jined.'"

COMPULSORY CONTENT

I do not care for riches,
I am not built that way,
All that I hanker after
Are three square meals a day.
I do not care for mansions,
I long for no steam yacht;
I'm pretty middling happy
With comfort I have got.
I do not care for riches,
Or great power—heaven forbid!
The reason is that it would make
No difference if I did.

Owing to fog a steamer stopped at the mouth of a river. An old lady became very nervous and inquired the cause of the delay.

"Can't see up the river," replied the officer.

"But, captain, I can see the stars overhead," she argued.

"Yes," said he gruffly, "but until the boilers bust we ain't a-going that way."

"Why aren't you ready, Isabel? You know very well that the opera begins at eight-fifteen."

"Oh, gracious! I forgot all about it. I've been so busy writing this article on preparedness."

PROTECTIVE DRESS

"See there!" exclaimed the returned Irish soldier to the gaping crowd as he exhibited with some pride his tall hat with a bullet hole in it.

"Look at that hole will ye? Ye see, if it had been a low crowned hat I should have been killed outright."

Wonderful Bilious Remedy Actually Prevents Attack

There are two great causes of biliousness—they are constipation and defective liver action.

When Dr. Hamilton's Pills are taken they not only correct constipated bowels, but act upon the liver as well.

Quite unlike ordinary medicines, which purge and give temporary relief, Dr. Hamilton's Pills remove the conditions which cause biliousness, and thus permanent cures are effected. No person who occasionally uses Dr. Hamilton's Pills will ever suffer from the headache, bad stomach or bilious complaint. Get a 25c. box today.

Sitting down and thinking it over never yet put anything over. Get busy. Steel and copper are a great pair, and just now they are going for the world's financial altitude record.

True love doesn't laugh at locksmiths or at anything else—it just sighs and sighs.

Occasionally one meets a man who plunges into a love affair as he plunges into the surf; but most of them sit lazily on the beach and let the waves of emotion splash harmlessly over them.
