

STRICKEN IN THE STREET

Completely Restored To Health By "Fruit-a-tives"

882 St. Valier St., MONTREAL.
"In 1912, I was taken suddenly ill with Acute Stomach Trouble and dropped in the street. I was treated by several physicians for nearly two years, and my weight dropped from 225 pounds to 160 pounds. Then several of my friends advised me to try 'Fruit-a-tives'. I began to improve almost with the first dose, and by using them, I recovered from the distressing Stomach Trouble—and all pain and Constipation were cured. Now I weigh 208 pounds. I cannot praise 'Fruit-a-tives' enough". H. WHITMAN.

PROCLAMATION

BY HIS HONOUR JOSIAH WOOD,
D. C. L., LL. D., LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR OF THE PROVINCE OF NEW BRUNSWICK.

Whereas, the 4th of August, 1916, is the second anniversary of the declaration of war by Great Britain, and whereas it has been proposed by the Central Committee for National Patriotic Organizations, with the approval of the British Government, that public meetings be held throughout the Empire on that day, at which the following resolution should be passed:

"That on this the second anniversary of the declaration of a righteous war, this meeting of the citizens of . . . records its inflexible determination to continue to a victorious end the struggle in maintenance of those ideals of Liberty and Justice which are the common and sacred cause of the Allies."

And whereas the Executive Council of this Province has passed an Order-in-Council authorizing a Proclamation to issue requiring the assembling of the people together on that day for said purpose.

We therefore hereby request and enjoin that all loyal citizens throughout the province do meet on said 4th day of August and pass the said Resolution, and in view of the gravity of the situation and the solemnity of the occasion, the day be also observed by holding meetings of a religious and intercessory, as well as patriotic character.

Given under my hand and seal at Fredericton, the twenty-fourth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixteen, and in the seventh year of His Majesty's reign.

By command of the
LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR.

FULL SALARY PAID McCOLLOM IN SPITE OF ALD. BURNETT

His Objection Not Sustained by City Council—Mayor Mitchell Wants to Know Why Ald. Burnett Will Not Accept Statement of Police Commission Re Ex-Policeman Saunders—Lively Clash Follows.

The salary of John H. McCollom as Chief of Police for the month of July was passed by the City Council in committee last night, but only after a strong protest on the part of Ald. Burnett, who claimed service had not been rendered. The other aldermen took the ground that as the Police Commission had ordered the item paid, the Council could do nothing but pay it. Ald. Burnett's objection led to a lively brush between himself and Mayor Mitchell, who said the alderman was refusing to believe a statement of the Police Commission, while believing a statement of William Saunders, a discharged policeman.

Ald. Burnett's Kick.

The matter came up when the pay roll of the Police Department was being passed.

Ald. Burnett said he would not agree to passing the item of $100, one month's salary of the Chief of Police, and he would move that the item be held up for investigation. He took the ground that services had not been rendered by the Chief of Police. He had seen him out of uniform for upwards of a week and everyone knew that he had been out of the city for ten days prior to that.

Other Opinion.

Ald. Reid—"There is nothing we can do but pay this bill. It has been certified by the Police Commission."

Ald. Wilkinson—"Did the Chief perform duty during that month?"

Mayor Mitchell—"Certainly he did."

Ald. Wilkinson—"Well, that settles it; we must pay this bill."

Ald. Burnett—"He was out of the city part of that time."

Ald. Wilkinson—"He was allowed his holidays."

Ald. Burnett—"He was not in uniform. I saw him."

Mayor Mitchell—"He was not in uniform last winter. You might have seen him then. He was doing good work, however."

Ald. Burnett—"Yes, but retribution followed." (Laughter.)

Saunders Incident.

General discussion on the matter followed in which the general opinion expressed was that the full month's salary must be paid.

Ald. Burnett said: "There was an incident last April when a discharged man was paid just for the time he worked. Why should a difference be made in this case?"

Mayor Mitchell—"To what incident do you refer?"

Ald. Burnett—"The dismissal of Wm. Saunders."

Mayor Mitchell—"Saunders refused to perform duty. The case was not at all similar."

Ald. Burnett—"I have been told that Saunders was willing to perform duty."

Mayor Mitchell—"By whom?"

Ald. Burnett—"By Saunders himself."

Mayor Indignant.

Mayor Mitchell—"I thought so. You are willing to take Saunders' word, but not willing to take the statement of the Police Commission."

Ald. Burnett—"I did not say that. Saunders told me he was willing and would have served if he had got a fair show. I had no reason not to take his word."

Mayor Mitchell—"Yet you think you have reason not to take the word of the Police Commission in the same matter."

Ald. Burnett—"I'm not discussing that. The only matter before the committee is the paying of one hundred dollars to John H. McCollom. I think that matter should go before the Police Commission."

Mayor Mitchell—"Bring it before us (the Police Commission). I give you an invitation. If you want to discuss police matters I will arrange a meeting of the Commission."

Ald. Burnett—"Now you are on dangerous ground. This seems to be a touchy subject with you."

Mayor Mitchell—"It certainly is."

EMPEROR OF AUSTRIA AGAIN VERY ILL

London, July 31.—Emperor Francis Joseph of Austro-Hungary caught a serious chill while inspecting troops, says a Vienna despatch forwarded to London by a correspondent at The Hague of the Exchange Telegraph Co. His Majesty is described as being very ill and confined to his bed.

They call it legal tender, but getting it is certainly tough.

CANADIAN BIG GAME AT HOME

A BB camera brings the features of big game and their haunts to our firesides. All along the Rocky Mountains strange wild beasts roam in abundance. Many of them are not familiar to the human eye at all, but there are others with which every sportsman is acquainted. Perhaps there is no place in the Dominion so interesting from the point of view of the hunter as the Canadian Pacific Rockies with their majestic snow-capped peaks, 45 of which are over 11,000 feet high. At Banff there is a big National Park where nobody may intrude in pursuit of game, for a wise Government has decided that big game must not be hunted indiscriminately, and has instituted laws for their protection. But outside the preserve the hunter is free to enjoy his sport, and there is plenty of it to be had; the grizzly bear, mountain goat, wild mountain sheep and lynx take up their abode in large numbers in these parts. In the open seasons many a party sets out with guides and ponies from Banff. The spring is the best time to hunt the grizzly bear when his fur is still thick after the winter's sleep. Often it is difficult to bag him, but his skin is a trophy of which any hunter may be proud. It is a pretty sight to watch a wild goat as he stands on some cliff seemingly admiring the picturesqueness of the landscape that lies beneath him. While in pursuit of the Rocky Mountain goat the hunter has to take some serious risks; he has to ascend precipitous crags hanging on almost by the skin of his teeth. The goat can dash along from rock to rock with the same graceful ease and velocity as that displayed by a bird travelling from twig to twig on some adjacent fir tree. But it is the danger and excitement of the chase that gives the hunter the greatest delight. It is as difficult to shoot the bighorn or wild mountain sheep. After feasting himself on the lowlands in the grey early morning the bighorn ascends to the fastnesses of the mountains. It is almost an impossible task for the hunter to get within range, and if ever he does get there he must not make the least noise or show himself, for the bighorn is both timid and observant, and when he is startled once there is little chance of again coming into close quarters with him. The bighorn's flesh is pronounced by epicures to be most delicious and his horns make very beautiful ornaments. In its cosy coat of soft ashy grey fur the lynx seems to be like a cat, and he certainly is of the cat family. He is rather pretty, and though not such a prize trophy for the sportsman as some of the bigger forest neighbours, he is always welcome to a rifle bullet.
