

Slants Of Humor

NATURAL CONSEQUENCE

"Where are you off to in such a hurry?"

"To fetch the doctor for my husband."

"Whats up with him?"

"He tells me he has got hepatitis, dyspepsia, rheumatism, enteritis, gasteritis appendicitis and cerebrospinal meningitis."

"Where did he get all that?"

"Why a man induced him to buy a medical dictionary, and he's just begun reading it!"

NOT SATISFACTORY

The teacher had a great idea of teaching her young pupils to love good music by letting them hear it on the gramophone. The other afternoon she put on the machine a record of two famous operatic stars singing a duet.

When the song was ended, she turned around.

"Now children, who can tell me the names of the singers we have just heard?"

"Caruso" replied a small boy promptly.

"Good!" exclaimed the delighted teacher. "And who was that singing with Caruso?"

"Caruso's man Friday!" was the quieting reply.

CHARITY

Bishop Penhurst was talking, in Boston about charity.

"Some charities," he said, "remind me of the cold, proud, beautiful lady who, glittering with diamonds, swept forth from a charity ball at dawn, crossing the frosty sidewalk and entered her huge limousine."

"A beggar whined at the window. 'Could ye give me a trifle for a cup of coffee, lady?'"

"The lady looked at the beggar reproachfully:

"'Good gracious!' she said 'Here you have the nerve to ask me for money when I've been tangoing for you the whole night through! Home James.'"

"And she snapped the window shut in the beggars face indignantly."

A post-graduate course is to impress the graduates with the fact that they don't know it all.

CHANGE IN C. P. R. DINING CAR SERVICE

Montreal, June 30.—The dining car service has never been considered by the C. P. R. as a means of securing additional revenue from its passengers, but as a service which adds to their comfort and convenience.

The dietetic blended menus are a case in point, in which the traveller is actually encouraged to eat less than he otherwise might be inclined to do, when face to face with a tempting C. P. R. bill of fare. A further step in the same direction is made in allowing passengers to take half-portion of many dishes. This is intended particularly for the lady traveller who experience has shown to be less heavy eaters than men.

UNDER ARREST FOR MUTINOUS CONDUCT

New York, June 30.—The Norwegian steamship Nordanger, two members of the crew in irons, reached here early today from Marseilles. The two men, a Mexican and a Spaniard, armed with knives and firearms, refused to work after the vessel left Marseilles, and until two days ago, when they were finally seized, fought with the crew and succeeded in destroying a large quantity of the ship's stores. Once, when captured and locked in the carpenter's shop aboard the vessel, the mutineers set fire to a pile of shavings and escaped while the crew fought the blaze.

The mutineers were turned over to the police when the vessel reached quarantine.
