THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 21, 1916

But under the circumstances I determined that the Government was right, and I determined to place at its disposal whatever influence I had with my fellow-countrymen. I have loyally supported all the war measures of the Government, have appealed to all classes of my fellow-citizens to rise to the occasion and do their share, not only in contributing money, but in the ranks by doing battle for the great cause. And I am here today for the same purpose and object, to appeal to my fellow-countrymen of all origins to do their duty, and ask all who can go to take their places amongst those who are contending for the cause of civilization on the fields of France and Flanders.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier at Brome.

SOME GERMAN NONSENSE.

Just what is the German frame of mind—just how it would average up, could it all be tabulated and summarized—we do not know; nor does anyone else. We have seen refreshing signs in and out of Germany that many Germans recognize the fact that, with all due regard for the essential Germans' strength, all realization of their great achievements, all credit to their progressive handling of many economic and sociological questions, the German is, after all, much like the rest of humanity. Perhaps after the heat of war has cooled off the whole world will be in a better frame of mind to weigh nations and peoples and to see that excesses and horrors, outrages and "frightfulness," do not sum up a people, or paint the sign-board for all future marching of the hosts of humanity.

But meantime there are some curious instances of amazing nonsense. Here is one that we reproduce, because it illustrates the appalling heights to which bumptious folly can soar—possibly taking its keynote from the egotism of Kaiser Wilhelm. It is from a letter written in reply to an inquiry from the Dutch Pacifist League, by Prof. Von Stengel of the chair of international law in the University of Munich. He writes thus:

"The nations, and especially the neutral nations, have only one means of leading a profitable existence. It is to submit to our guidance, which is superior from every point of view."

"The whole course of the war up to the present time has shown that we Germans have been chosen by Providence from among all the other peoples to march at the head of all civilized nations and lead them under our protection toward assured peace. For we not only have the power and force necessary for this mission, but we also possess all the spiritual gifts to the highest degree, and in all creation it is we who constitute the crown of civilization."

It is our guess, based on some acquaintance with German nature, that Prof. Von Stengel is a long way from representing genuine German opinion. Such complacent folly has been energetically fostered in Germany, but no race on earth could digest that sort of stuff.

Victoria, B. C., Sun: Newspaper publishers are feeling very keenly the effects of the war. An impression prevails that additional circulation because of war news offsets the falling off in advertising and the various increases in the cost of publication; but this is a mistake. The additional cost of white paper more than wipes off the profit on additional circulation. In the United Kingdom the extra expense has been met in part by decreasing the size of the papers and in part by increasing rates, and this is also true in many parts of the United States and Canada. At a recent meeting of the Newspaper Publishers' Association of British Columbia, held in Vancouver, it was decided to discontinue the free publication of advertising matter. This rule will be followed strictly.

Toronto Star: British Columbia completes the solid block of Provinces with Liberal governments from Ontario to the Pacific Ocean. The Eastern Provinces are more equally divided—Ontario, New Brunswick and P. E. Island, Conservative, and Quebec and Nova Scotia Liberal. In Ontario five by-elections have been held in recent years, and all have been unfavorable to the Government, big majorities being cut down in Hamilton and Dundas, while in three constituencies formerly Conservative the Government candidates have been defeated. Three of the Ontario contests were held before the prohibition law was passed.

The St. John Globe, which pretends to stand for what is right in politics, has not openly advocated the cause of the Government candidates in Carleton county, but has succeeded in a roundabout way in giving them an occasional lift just when it was most needed. The Globe manages to keep on the Federal and Provincial patronage list and deems it expedient to maintain an independent attitude, with strong leanings towards the party from which the blessings flow. No matter which side wins in Carleton today, the losers can count on getting a kick from the Globe, along with a generous offering of good advice.

Moncton Transcript: Some of the Conservative newspapers on Friday broke the news of the British Columbia elections result gently to their readers. One newspaper claimed as high as fourteen Conservatives elected, and even held out hopes that the soldiers' vote would increase the number. But what have the Conservatives done for the soldiers that the latter's votes should be the exclusive heritage of the Conservatives? Was it supplying them with decrepit horses and rotten shoes?

The local graft organ, which has all through the campaign been predicting the election of Smith and Sutton in Carleton by "overwhelming majorities," has at the eleventh hour made the discovery that they are not going to have anything like a walk-over. It practically admits that the campaign of misrepresentation and abuse put up on behalf of the Government candidates has made votes for their opponents.

Voting in the Carleton by-election is taking place today. It has been a red-hot campaign, with the result in doubt. Many people who have been in Carleton this week say that there will be a lot of splitting of ballots, and one man on each ticket may be returned. The polls close at four o'clock, and the result should be known before seven.

Toronto Globe: In 1911 Bourassa Nationalism became Borden Conservatism. Under the auspices of the Sudbury Conservative Association Bourassa spoke in Sudbury a few days before the election, and the President, R. B. McKessock, K. C., called for "three cheers for Bourassa and Borden."

ON THE SIDE.

Who's elected? You should worry.

It takes the weather man to "come back."

It's after a man's elected that the grafters begin to "pick the winner."

It's a day like this you want to get in a boat and have the last rows of summer.

Yes, Mr. Simp, the election in Carleton today will be won by the candidates who get the most votes.

Lots of our citizens will tonight witness the interesting drama entitled "The Fatal Message"—from Carleton county.

What has become of the old-fashioned woman who used to open a can of peaches when she had company at tea? Also, where are the peaches?

Perhaps the only thing that a tender-hearted woman hates worse than brutal, barbarous warfare, is a man who won't fight on provocation.

A small boy's idea of forgiving an injury inflicted by another boy is to lick him first and forgive him afterward.

The better a man understands a woman the better he loves—some other woman. The more he knows of one kind of girl the more he admires—the other kind.

SEPTEMBER WEDDINGS

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Wellington Yerxa of Lincoln, formerly of Keswick, was the scene of a happy nuptial event at three o'clock yesterday afternoon, when their daughter, Miss Barbara Pernella Yerxa, became the bride of Mr. Frederick Foster, son of Rev. George W. Foster, of Lincoln.

The ceremony was performed on the lawn in the presence of a large number of invited guests, many of whom came from the city, Keswick and other points. Rev. J. A. Corey was the officiating clergyman and was assisted by the bridegroom's father. The bridal couple during the progress of the ceremony stood beneath a large arch of evergreens and goldenrod.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was becomingly attired in white marquisette with satin trimmings, bridal veil and orange blossoms.

LOCAL MEMBERS INSPECTING THE ROADS

Now That Winter is Coming on Some Repairs are Likely to be Made.

Mr. John A. Young, M. P. P., is now playing a lone hand in York county political affairs, the Government patronage having been taken away from him and turned over to Messrs. Pinder and Morehouse, M. P. P.'s. Just a year ago Mr. Young, accompanied by Col. Guthrie, M. P. P., made a trip by auto over the county, inspecting the roads. They found the roads in a desperate condition and promised to repair them. The promise was not kept and the roads are still bad. Recently Messrs. Pinder and Morehouse made a trip over the upper section of the county. They also found the roads bad, and promised that repairs would be made and the bills sent to the Public Works Department. The season is so far advanced now that the people who use the roads are not so particular whether they are repaired or not. They are pleased, however, to see two of the M. P. P.'s taking on life and manifesting an interest in the condition of the roads, which should have been repaired months ago.

A BLOOD-FOOD DISCOVERED THAT ENTIRELY OVERCOMES ANAEMIC WEAKNESS

CAREFULLY INVESTIGATED REPORTS ESTABLISH TRULY WONDERFUL RESULTS.

Heretofore it has often been a hopeless task for a thin-blooded person to gain either strength or weight. Neither food nor medicine in many instances had beneficial effect.

What is practically a perfect blood-food, containing such elements as iron, has at last been produced, and when taken after meals will put new life and vigor into people that have despaired of ever being strong again.

This truly wonder-working treatment consists of taking two small chocolate-coated Ferrozone Tablets at the close of every meal.

This wonderful blood-food supplies nourishment, vim, energy—sends a stream of vigorous, strength-making blood to every nook and corner of the body, makes every muscle and fibre sing with new-found life and health.

That gnawing tiredness leaves you—Ferrozone drives it away. Sleepless nights are turned into periods of rest and you pick up fast. Day by day your appetite improves—this means more food is transformed in nutriment that will build and energize weak organs. The inclination to worry passes away because Ferrozone imparts nerve-tone and bodily strength that prevents depression.

Think it over—Ferrozone is a wonderful tonic, in fact, it is more than a tonic, because it establishes health that lasts. Thousands use it and thereby cleanse and restore the entire system to a perfect condition. You'll feel the uplifting power of Ferrozone in a week—it's bound to help you if you only give it the chance. Sold by all dealers, 50c. a box or six boxes for $2.50; be sure of the name of Ferrozone. Forwarded by mail to any address if price is remitted to The Cattarhozone Co., Kingston, Ont.

soms, and carried a bouquet of roses and maiden hair fern. There was no bridesmaid nor groomsman.

At the conclusion of the ceremony, after congratulations had been tendered to the newly wedded couple, all sat down to a sumptuous wedding repast. The guests in attendance numbered 119.

A large number of presents in cash, silverware, cut glass, furniture, etc., attested the great popularity of the young couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Foster will make their home at Lincoln.

Kitchen-Gillmor.

(Edmonton Journal.)

A pretty wedding took place at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. E. S. Gillmor, on Wednesday evening, Sept. 6th, when Miss Kathleen Gillmor, formerly of Fredericton, N. B., daughter of the late E. S. Gillmor, was united in marriage to Willis Edwin Kitchen, of Edmonton, also formerly of Fredericton, N. B. Rev. H. R. McGill performed the ceremony.

To the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by her sister, Miss Lue Gillmor, the bride entered the drawing room, accompanied by her mother. She was charmingly attired in a gown of white duchess satin with georgette crepe and crystal trimmings, bridal veil and orange blossoms. Her only ornament was a pearl necklace, the gift of the bridegroom.

The house was profusely decorated with cut flowers. Numerous handsome presents testify to the popularity of the bride and bridegroom.

Mr. and Mrs. Kitchen left on the midnight train for Banff and other western points. On their return they will reside at 90125 87th avenue, and will be at home there after Sept. 17th.
