She Coughed Day and Night.

Mrs. Fred. Feairs, Cedarville, Ont., writes: "I am sending you this letter telling what Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup did for me. Ten years ago I had a terrible cold. For days I could not speak above a whisper. I coughed day and night. One evening I was so bad I went down to our storekeeper, and when I went in he said, 'You better get something done for that cold of yours.' I told him, as well as I could, that I had just come to get a bottle of the best cough medicine he had. He told me Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup was the best he had, and said for me to take a little of it before I left the store. I took some, and in fifteen minutes I could speak as well as ever. I think 'Dr. Wood's' is the very best on the market."

That persistent cough must be gotten rid of immediately, for if it hangs on to you it may develop into some serious lung trouble, such as bronchitis, pneumonia and perhaps consumption.

Get rid of it by using Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. A remedy that has been on the market for twenty-five years. A remedy that cures when all others fail.

When you ask for "Dr. Wood's" see that you get what you ask for as there are many imitations on the market.

"Dr. Wood's" is put up in a yellow wrapper; three pine trees the trade mark; price, 25c and 50c.

STALLIONS FOR SALE

I have decided to offer my entire stable of Stallions for sale. Their record in the Show Rings is proof that they are good individuals; and best of all, their record as breeders is unsurpassed.

time Exhibitions, 1850 lbs., sound and perfect in every way.

DAY DREAM, No. 12801—Brown Clydesdale, prize winner in Maritime shows as well as in the shows of Ontario. The best breeding Clyde I ever knew; 1825 lbs. and the best looking on the streets.

BLACKBAND SENSATION, No. 9476—Brown Clydesdale, 1850 lbs., a sturdy, heavy-boned horse that will get good business anywhere, and a great breeder.

POTTER PALMER, No. 47432—A Standard Trotter, handsome as a picture, 1225 lbs., and a great show horse and a No. 1 breeder.

TRYFAST, No. 58509—Standard Trotter, the best bred in the land, has a 2-year-old record of 2:24, and can trot as fast as any horse.

Above horses are offered for sale because of no fault. I will sell them with a guarantee they are O.K., and at prices that are right.

CANADIANS ON FIRING LINE IN GOVT. FILM

To see "Canada's Fighting Forces" the six-reel Official Canadian Government motion picture, is in itself an education in modern warfare and how it is carried on. Of course it is particularly interesting to Canadians because it shows in detail the life of a Canadian soldier when he goes overseas to fight for King and Country, and it should be a great comfort to thousands who have dear ones at the battle line because it shows the splendid manner in which the wounded are cared for both at the actual front and in the English hospitals to which they are taken as soon as possible. Those who see "Canada's Fighting Forces" at the Gaiety Theatre on February 16 and 17 will not only see the periods of training at Shorncliffe, reviews and inspections, by His Majesty the King, Lord Kitchener, Sir Sam Hughes, Sir Robert Borden and Generals Carson, Turner and Watson, but actual work in the trenches and the throwing and bursting of hand grenades—the modern weapon—within one hundred and twenty feet of the camera. Every minute of the six reels is filled with eventful happenings and it is without a doubt the greatest military picture ever made.

Accompanying these pictures will be explanatory remarks by Corp. White, D.C.M., hero of Ypres and St. Julien, who has a thrilling story of the firing line to tell. In all the larger cities the price has been 25, 50 and 75 cents but locally admission has been set at 25 cents, so that everybody will see these absorbing war pictures.

A Romance of Monte Carlo

A glint of blue sea showing down a by-street on the right of the main street caught his eye and he turned down the by-street to have a look at the sea and think things over and arrange in his mind what he should say when they met.
He found himself on the path by the beach and walked along it towards the kursal.
Chance led him in this direction—or perhaps Fate.

CHAPTER XX.

When he stepped onto the Mentone platform and saw the chief of police almost within touching distance of him, Carslake felt for the first time in his life that the game was lost. Only for a second did this feeling last. In the next he had summed up the situation. It was absolutely hopeless to attempt to board the train, he must try back, though that course condemned him to the walking of the streets of Mentone and certain arrest. Still, anything was better than to stay where he was.

He turned and made his way back to the station entrance.
A motor-car which he had noticed when he came up to the station was still standing, waiting apparently for some one. A girl was sitting in it. She was the tall American girl whom he had noticed bidding good-by to the old lady.
Without a moment's hesitation, Carslake went up to the car and placed his hand upon the door. As he did so, he heard the whistle of the departing train.

"Save me," said he. "The police are after me. I am not a criminal; only a secret service man who has been spying on the forts—English."

"Get in," said the girl.
She spoke without the least hesitation or surprise in her tone. She seemed to have summed up the whole situation at a glance and the desperate urgency of the matter and she pointed to a pony-skin coat on the seat as the chauffeur came up. He had been on some message to one of the shops in the street nearby and he was evidently an Englishman.

This fact Carslake noticed as he wiggled into the coat. He wondered what the girl would do. Everything was in her hands now and if she made a false move he was lost.

"William," said the girl, "Mrs. Janes has left her pocketbook in the car and the train has just started. There's nothing for it but to go to Ventimiglia and catch her before she starts for Genoa. Have your petrol enough?"

"Yes, Miss, I believe so."
"Then, off we go. Mr. Smith, would you sooner sit in front or here?"

"Here, by all means," answered Carslake.
Whilst the chauffeur was starting the engine, the girl was rummaging in a leather wallet fastened on the car door.

"If your eyes are sensitive, you might like these goggles," said she, producing a pair.

"Thanks awfully," said Carslake, as he put on the goggles, whilst the car slid out of the station precincts, turned the corner, passed down a narrow street, and then, turning to the right, down the broad road where the shops were.

As they licked up speed, the wind made conversation possible without danger of the chauffeur overhearing.

"You are putting me in debt to you for my liberty," said Carslake, speaking in an ordinary conversational tone. "I can't say anything at all by way of thanks—it's not one of the things a man can put into words. But tell me, how did you in one moment hit upon the only plan? If you had taken me in any other direction

MOTHER! GIVE CHILD "SYRUP OF FIGS" IF TONGUE IS COATED If Cross, Feverish, Sick, Bilious, Clean Little Liver And Bowels.

Children love this "fruit laxative" and nothing else cleanses the tender stomach, liver and bowels so nicely.

A child simply will not stop playing to empty the bowels and the result is, they become tightly clogged with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sour, then your little one becomes cross, half sick, feverish, don't eat, sleep or act naturally, breath is bad, system full of cold, has sore throat, stomach ache or diarrhoea. Listen, Mother! See if the tongue is coated, then give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs" and in a few hours all the constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the system and you have a well, playful child again.

Millions of mothers give "California Syrup of Figs" because it is perfectly harmless, children love it and it never fails to act on the stomach, liver and bowels.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeiters sold here. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

Ladies' Column CONCERNING WOMEN.

Misses Katherine and Marjorie Stinson, of Chicago, will open an aviation school in San Antonio, Texas in the spring.

Miss Ina Hazeltine, of Minneapolis, earns about $400 a year profit from a small flower garden which she looks after.

The first statue raised in London in memory of a woman other than royalty was that of Miss Florence Nightingale, unveiled last year.

The minimum wage law which has just gone into effect in Massachusetts, affects more than 10,000 women and girls employed in retail stores.

In all the little market places scattered throughout Berlin are women shoemakers, who for 35 cents put on rubber heels while a person waits.

With the exception of a pearl necklace, the only piece of jewelry worn by Princess Mary of England is a small miniature of her father set in gems.

Eighty young women of Alsace and Lorraine are living in exile in Nancy, France, where they are learning to buy food, arrange meals and cook to the best advantage.

Lady Mary Hamilton, daughter of the Duke of Abercorn, who was to have been one of the debutantes at court this year, is working in a munition factory in London.

Miss Louise Pound, professor of English at the University of Nebraska, was recently elected one of the two vice-presidents of the Modern Language Association of America.

Mrs. George A. Buckstaff has been appointed to investigate the condition of athletes in the University of Wisconsin and is said to pass most of her time studying records.

REPLIES TO SOME LEAP YEAR QUERIES

Billy.—The Women's Volunteer Reserve is not a Leap Year organization.

Ethel.—Most of the eligible Battery boys seem to have lasses from home this week.

Lottie.—The stock-broker you speak of is quite certain to be here for the week-end.

Min.—The case of the veteran dry goods salesman appears to be quite hopeless.

Maryville.—The good-looking widow you refer to is looking around.

Mary B.—The immigration commissioner has removed his office to the new post office building.

Clarice.—We note what you say about the excitement in a Queen street store on Friday. The attention of the clerks was not attracted by an enemy aeroplane they were merely rubbering at one of the Battery boys and his lady love in a window across the street.

Sarah.—Yes, it is certainly about time that the bachelor alderman was gathered in.

Charles.—There are three ladies of marriageable age in the household of which you speak.

Tiny Tot.—The cute little officer expects to go overseas before long.

TONIC TREATMENT FOR THE STOMACH

The Modern Method is Most Successful in Treating Indigestion.

The old-fashioned methods of treating indigestion and stomach troubles are being discarded. The trouble with the old-fashioned methods was that when the treatment was stopped the trouble returned in an aggravated form. The modern method of curing indigestion and other stomach troubles is to tone up the stomach to do nature's work. Every step toward recovery is a step gained, not to be lost again. The recovery of the appetite, the disappearance of pain, the absence of gas—all are steps on the road to health that those who have tried the tonic treatment remember distinctly. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a blood builder, tonic medicine, every constituent of which is helpful in building up the digestive organs, and is therefore the very best remedy for chronic cases of stomach trouble. Thousands of cases like the following prove how successful this treatment is:—Miss Amy Browning, Corinth, Ont., says:—"I have found such great benefit from Dr. Williams' Pink Pills that I would be ungrateful if I did not publicly say a word in their favor. I was badly run down and my stomach was in a very bad condition. All food distressed me and left me disinclined to eat. I suffered from nausea and dizziness and frequent sick headaches and this was further aggravated by pains in the back and sides. I was in this condition for several years and although I had got medicine from several doctors it did not help me. Then I heard of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and began taking them. I am glad to say that they soon helped me and now I am as well as ever, can eat all kinds of food with relish and have not an ache or pain."

You can get these Pills through any dealer in medicine or by mail, post paid, at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

"This," laughed the maid, when once her lips were free,
"You could not understand, should I explain;
And, anyway, I'm much too busy now
Pray call again." Judge.

"Why, Catherine, I did not know you had a child! How old is she?"
"Oh, she's one of the follies of 1910."—Puck.

"I went joy riding last night."
"Did the trip have an unfortunate ending?"

"Very. There wasn't any accident at all and I was with people that I will probably never have a chance to get my name in the paper with again."—Puck.
