ARE THERE THREE BREMENS ON SEAS?

Valveston, Texas, Oct. 3.—That two German merchant submarines named Bremen have fallen into the hands of the Entente Allies, and that a third bearing the same name is now en route to the United States, is the report brought here by Capt. H. Vanchoonbeck, of the Belgian steamer Elizabeth Van Belgie, which arrived today from Barry.

Captain Vanchoonbeck declared one of the submarines was captured by the British and one by the French. He said he learned this from good authority in France, but declined to name the port to which the captured ships were taken.

MR. ABRAM ALWARD

(Continued from page 8.) appointed provincial librarian, and continued to act as clerk in the Agricultural Department. He was an expert gardener and the grounds surrounding his home on Saunders street are among the most attractive in the city. He was a man of quiet disposition, a good husband and father, and enjoyed the respect of all who knew him.

The deceased was 71 years of age and is survived by a sorrowing widow, two daughters and four sons. The members of the family are: Harry F. Alward, solicitor for the Canadian Government Railways; Mrs. O. B. Stockford, of Calgary; Hugh Alward, C. E., of the Department of Marine and Fisheries, Halifax; Roy Alward, of California; Lee Alward, who is ranching in Alberta, and Miss Lena Alward, at home. Another son, Winfred, was drowned in New Hampshire a few years ago after completing a brilliant course at the U. N. B.

The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at three o'clock, with services by Rev. A. F. Newcomb. Interment will be made in the Rural Cemetery.

Mr. T. C. Farrelly and Mr. C. T. Busch, of New York, are at the Queen today en route to Doaktown, where they will hunt big game with Mr. Jas. Storey as guide.

These gentlemen have hunted big game in Quebec, but this is their first trip to New Brunswick. Mr. Farrelly is the head of the American News Co., which has branches in Montreal, St. John and Halifax.

Mr. T. Ellis Barnes and Mr. C. H. Bell, of Philadelphia, are at the Queen en route to Zionville, where they will hunt under the guidance of Mr. Robert Craig.

Recruits for Engineers.

Lieut. James H. Sprout, Canadian Engineers, who is infantry musketry and equitation instructor to that corps, is here after recruits. He will be here for some days. Men wanted for the Engineers are bricklayers, masons, carpenters, mechanics of all kinds. Drafts of 200 per month are being sent overseas. The unit has been at Valcartier but is leaving today to go into winter quarters. Mr. Sprout formerly resided here and is being welcomed by friends. He had the interesting experience of seeing the central span of the Quebec bridge fall, and took several snapshots of it.

STREET CARS COLLIDE WITH FATAL RESULTS

Cleveland, Ohio, Oct. 3.—Four bodies have been recovered, several other dead are believed to be in the wreckage, and more than thirty are in hospitals as the toll of a bridge tragedy here early this evening, when two street cars collided on the West Third street bridge, causing it to collapse and precipitate the cars thirty feet to the Baltimore & Ohio railroad tracks, where they almost went into the Cuyahoga river.

There were forty persons on one car and twenty on the other. It was a first believed that the death list would be about fifty, but later it was found that while dozens were hurt only a few had been killed.

Cure Your Bad Cough By Breathing "Catarrhzone"

You may dislike taking medicines—but coughs are best cured without medicine. The modern treatment is "Catarrhzone." It isn't a drug—it's a healing vapor full of pine essences and healing balsams. It spreads over the surfaces that are weak and sore from coughing. Every spot that is congested is healed; irritation is soothed away; phlegm and secretions are cleaned out, and all symptoms of cold or catarrh are cured. Nothing so quick, so sure, so pleasant as Catarrhzone. Beware of dangerous substitutes meant to deceive you for genuine Catarrhzone. It dealers sell Catarrhzone, large size which lasts two months price $1.00; small size 50c.; same size 25c. . . .

Belongs to Fredericton.

Mr. A. L. Haining, of Saskatoon, who has been named as chief recruiting officer for Saskatchewan, is a native of this city. Previous to going west he was employed by Emerson & Fisher, St. John.

Local Recruiting.

Everett Parsons, 17, Woodstock, enlisted this morning for the 236th Battalion. Recruits yesterday for the same unit were William E. Nye, 34, Fredericton, and Lawrence D. Stewart, 18, Taymouth. Darrell D. Steeves, son of Capt. W. H. Steeves, Canadian Army Dental Corps, enlisted for No. 9 Siege Battery.

Sentence imposed.

In the police court this morning Jas. Mills, of Central Kingsclear, was fined $5 for assault on Milton Poore. The fine was allowed to stand on condition that the defendant pay costs. For causing bodily harm the accused was fined $15 and costs.

Gaiety Theatre Today.

A beautiful and exciting romance of the days of the powdered wig and courtly gallants is "Sweet Kitty Bellairs," which will be the attraction at the Gaiety today and Thursday, under the direction of the Jesse L. Lasky Company, with beautiful Mae Murray in the title role. Miss Murray will be remembered as the beautiful heroine in the Lasky picturization on the Paramount programme of the famous story of colonial days in Virginia, "To Have and to Hold."

Provincial Government.

The Provincial Government began its regular monthly session last night. It is continuing today. Lieut. Colonel Thompson, of the Military Hospitals Commission, and Mr. Robinson, secretary of the New Brunswick Returned Soldiers' Committee, were before the Government and discussed various matters, including the erection of a provincial home for returning troops affected by tubercular trouble.

Scott Act Raid.

There was a raid at Long's Hotel this morning under a Canada Temperance Act warrant. Policemen Marshall, Sturgeon, Murray and Hughes took part. A quantity of whiskey and gin was secured. A coach was used to convey the liquor to the police station. It is said that the raid was the result of a former guest of the hotel reporting to the police that he had lost money there. Chief Finlay stated today that a report had been made, but that nothing had been learned concerning the money.

Hon. B. F. Smith is at the Barker House.

Mr. Harry Woods, Government whip, and would-be senator, is at the Barker.

Yes, you are right, Mr. Simp, a man's life shouldn't be entirely absorbed in going fishing—there's shooting, and golf, for instance.
