THE CENTAUR COMPANY, NEW YORK CITY.

ROLL OF HONOR

Several thousand officers and employees of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company enlisted for active military duty with the Canadian Expeditionary Forces, and the majority of them are now in Europe, bravely battling for Canada and the Empire. As particulars of Army Reservists are not available, these lists of those who have given up their lives for their country or been wounded in action are necessarily incomplete, and do not therefore indicate fully the extent to which the Company's officers and employees have participated in the great struggle.

CHANGE OF HOURS.

On evenings when I sit with Nell,
In courtship's days sublime,
We did not heed the steeple's bell—
We scorned the flight of time.
At my regretful "Midnight's here,"
The answer I would get,
"But midnight is so early, dear!
You needn't go home yet!"
Alas! Alack! the change I wrought
When her I took for life!
The scorn of time my sweetheart taught
No longer fills my wife,
Now acidly she says to me
(Hark, O ye single men!)
"I think a man should always be
At home at least by 10."

ALWAYS POSITIVE

Some people say "sure"
And "certain" a lot,
Whether they really are
Or not.

PERHAPS

The brotherhood of man, no doubt,
Would be both fine and human,
But can we ever bring about
The sisterhood of woman?

SHORT HOURS AND GOOD PAY

A certain house in a Western town improved so greatly in comfort and appearance that a visitor shrewdly surmised that the son of the house, a lazy, good-for nothing, had turned over a new leaf. He inquired about it.

"Yes, sir, my son's got a job now," said
the smiling old mother. "Gets good money too. All he has to do is to go twice a day to the circus and put his head in the lion's mouth. The rest of the time he has to himself."

JUST THINKING

I often think
I'd like to farm
A farmer's life
Has lots of charm,
Seems edged with gilt.
But when I see 'em
Pitching hay
And working fourteen
Hours a day,
I sort of wilt.

ONE LAST THOUGHT

At a luncheon during the New York convention of the National Federation of Women's Clubs Miss Lillian Braithwaite Hill, the fashion expert, defended the short skirt.

"The short skirt," she said, "is a matchmaker. I have collected statistics which prove that, since the advent of the slashed skirt and the short skirt, girls marry 46
per. cent better than they did before.

"The short skirt is an ad. It advertises
a girl's beauty.

"I would leave one last thought with you, namely—

"The shorter the skirt the longer the look."

OH, YOU HORRID MEN!

"Oh, George," said Mrs. Bridge, "on your way downtown this morning will you stop at the grocer's and order two pounds of butter and half pound of tea?"

"Yes, my dear."

"And would you mind going to the milkman's and tell him to leave an extra pint of cream to-morrow?"

"Yes, my dear."

"And when you get to your office will you call up my sister and tell her I'll be over Tuesday?"

"Yes, my dear, and say, wife, would you mind sewing up this little rip in my coat before I start?"

"Good land, aren't you men terrible.
You're always wanting something done."

TY COBB TO BE FILM
STAR AT $1000 PER WEEK

New York, Sept. 28.—Ty Cobb, "the Georgia Peach," generally accounted the most brilliant baseball player ever developed, is the latest popular star to which the movies have hitched their wagon.

Tyrus the Great will soon make his debut on the screen under the management of the Sunbeam Motion Picture Corporation of New York.

Ty "held off" until he was offered more than $1,000 a week for his services. He is to appear in a melodrama involving the great national game, written by Grantland Rice. Elsie Mac-Leod is to play the opposite part.

WORLDLY WISDOM.

It is sometimes difficult to bring a girl of the period to a full stop.

If men were built in piano factories there would be more grand, square and upright people in the world.

Have you ever noticed that the weesmal' hours are utilized chiefly by those who are out having a large time?

Too much noise in this world tries to pass itself off as music.

Occasionally one meets a man who plunges into a love affair as he plunges into the surf; but most of them sit lazily on the beach and let the waves of emotion splash harmlessly over them.
