WALTER GALLAGHER WAS KILLED AT YPRES

All Doubt Removed in Regard to Fate of Moncton Man--Was Brother of Mrs. R. H. McGrath of This City.

(St. John Telegraph.)

After a period of almost two years of anxious inquiry and waiting, definite information was received yesterday by Patrick Gallagher, of Moncton, that his fourth son, Walter, who had been reported as missing since the first big battle at Ypres, had been killed in action. The funeral of the deceased soldier's uncle, the late Thomas Hogan, was held yesterday at Moncton, the sad tidings of Private Gallagher's death being received at a time when the family was already grief-stricken.

Private Gallagher was in the employ of the C. P. R. in the west when the war broke out, and was among the first to offer, enlisting with the Montreal Highlanders. He crossed with Canada's first contingent and in a short time was at the front with his battalion. Then came the fierce fighting at Ypres, and so far as can be ascertained Private Gallagher was one who during that desperate encounter undertook operations in which death was the main chance. He was subsequently reported as missing. Mr. Gallagher took every means to find out the fate of his boy, but time went on and no definite tidings could be secured.

On Wednesday he received a personal letter from Sir Sam Hughes informing him that his boy had been killed in the first battle of Ypres.

Private Gallagher is survived by his father and mother, both residing at Moncton; three brothers and two sisters. The brothers are Thomas J., in California Dr. Patrick J., of Winnipeg, and Captain Justin, of the Canadian Army Dental Corps. The sisters are Mrs. McGrath, wife of Dr. McGrath, of Fredericton, and Miss Margaret, a nurse in the Moncton general hospital.

Word has also just been received that the other son who is in the Canadian forces, Capt. Justin Gallagher, has just been transferred to France.

The effects of the late Private Gallagher were received by his parents yesterday.

FIFTH GERMAN WAR LOAN.

It is Being Canvassed as "The Last War Loan."

London, Aug. 24.—A despatch from Berlin says that arrangements have been completed for the flotation of the fifth German war loan. The interest rate will be five per cent., as in the case of previous loans.

Count Von Roeben, secretary of the Imperial Treasury, has instituted measures to popularize the loan, which the despatch says is being described by canvassers as "the last war loan."

GERMAN VESSEL LEFT BOSTON.

Slipped Out of the Harbor After Quietly Securing Clearance Papers.

Boston, Aug. 24.—The North German Lloyd liner Willehad, which has been in refuge here since the outbreak of the war, slipped out of the harbor early today, presumably for New London, Conn., for which report says she obtained clearance papers last night.

Officials of the line asserted that the change was made to reduce docking charges, and denied the report that there was any connection between the Willehad's movements and the expected arrival of the German merchant submarine Bremen.

TRY NEUTRALITY.

A parent's life is one long responsibility. It's a wonder that so many of the genus discharge their duties acceptably.

"How's the family?" one inquired of a happy married man yesterday.

"Well, my children are at a difficult age now."

"Difficult? Why they've all passed the measles and teething stage, haven't they?"

"Long ago; but you don't know a father's troubles. My children are at the age where if I use slang my wife says I'm setting a bad example. And if I speak correctly the kids think I'm a back number. Which would you do?"

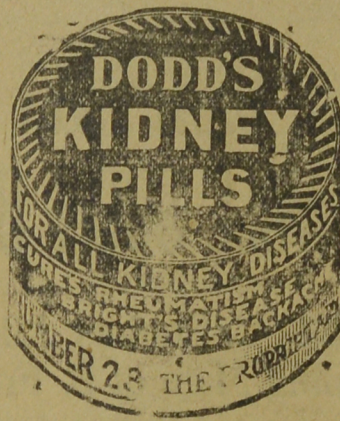

WORLDLY WISDOM.

Poets are born, and occasionally one is paid.

The man who doesn't know himself is easily fooled.

A missing suspender button often tells you more than you can do till you make a good try. But for the dogs no cat would ever know how fast it can run.

An optimist is one who gets his pay check and then goes out and looks over the different kinds of automobiles standing around the block.

A prude is generally some woman who goes around looking for something to get shocked at.

Public Schools Notice.

FOR the special benefit of pupils who are unable to complete the common school course, the Trustees will open a pre-vocational department in the York Street School building. Applicants for admission to this department will file their names with the Secretary and obtain an admission certificate.

In accordance with the Compulsory Schools Act, all children from six to fourteen years of age must be in attendance at school. In every case the reason for non-attendance must be given to the Board of School Trustees by the parent or guardian of the child.

In pursuance of Sec. 73 of the Schools Act, the Secretary is required in every case to demand a physician's certificate or other evidence of recent successful vaccination before a permit may be issued.

All the schools will be re-opened on Monday, 28th inst., at 9 o'clock, a.m., and permits may be obtained at the office on York street during the previous week. Applicants for admission to the Model School, whose names have been registered, will apply for permits on Friday, 25th inst.

By order.
