WANT CLEANER POLITICS.

"I believe that we have arrived at a time when the people of Canada want cleaner politics. I have never believed it necessary to be dishonest in public life, while being honest in private life. I believe the people of Canada are looking for better things, and are expecting service from the public men, men who occupy positions of trust in the different. And never in the history of Canada has there been a more opportune season than while this struggle is on. Let us have cleaner politics and more honest business in the conduct of our public affairs."—Premier Norris, of Manitoba, at London, Ont.

MESSAGE TO YOUNG MEN.

"After a long life I shall remind you that already many problems rise before you; problems of race, of problems of creed, of problems of economic conflict, of problems of national duty and national aspiration. Let me tell you that for the solution of these problems you have a safe guide, that faith is, if you remember, love is better than doubt, and 'Banish' than hate.

Let your souls be ever open to the strong promptings of faith and the gentle influence of brotherly love. Be adamant against the haughty; be gentle and kind to the weak. Let your aim and your purpose, in good report or in ill, in victory or in defeat, be so to live, so to strive, so to serve as to do your part to raise the standard of life to higher and better spheres."—Sir Wilfrid Laurier at London, Ont.

A BIT OF HISTORY.

Speaking in the House of Lords a few days ago, Earl Grey, former Governor General of Canada, made mention of a report which had been current for several days that two United States destroyers had, at the request of the commander of the German submarine U-53, deliberately got out of the way in order to allow the submarine to destroy British ships off the American coast. Earl Grey was loth to credit such a report in view of the friendly relations which had always existed between the British and American navies. In this connection he gave the following version of an incident which had occurred during the battle of Manila Bay, at the time of the Spanish-American war:

"I hope that I may be permitted to quote one illustration of the way in which this spontaneous mutual service has had far-reaching effects in promoting good will between America and Britain. In 1905 I had the honor of meeting Admiral Dewey and some distinguished members of the American Senate at dinner in Washington. On that occasion Admiral Dewey narrated to me, in a voice and with gestures eloquently suggestive of the most grateful emotion, the story—at that time entirely new to me, and perhaps new to some of your lordships here today—of the way in which he had received invaluable assistance from Captain Chichester at Manila at a time of great anxiety. Admiral Dewey informed me that the presence at Manila of German cruisers with a heavier displacement than that of the American ships caused him to realize the grave character of the danger menacing his country in the event of the German ships beginning the hostile action of which he at the time had reason to be apprehensive. He described how the whole American fleet watched in silent anxiety the visit of the German Admiral to Captain Chichester's ship, and the intense relief with which they saw, shortly after the German Admiral's return to his own ship, His Majesty's ships under Capt. Chichester, hoist their anchor and shift their anchorage to a position which placed them in the direct line of fire between the German and the American ships. No action has ever done more to promote the friendly feelings of one nation to another than that action of Captain Chichester, which I believe to have been absolutely spontaneous on his part, and which action is well known to every officer in the naval service of the United States."

LESSONS OF THE WAR.

Speaking at St. John's Church, New York, on the occasion of its 150th anniversary on Sunday last, Rev. Samuel Dwight Chown, general superintendent of the Methodist Church of Canada, dwelt eloquently on the part Britain and Canada are playing in the European war. After likening the Kaiser to King George the Third, and the British and Canadians fighting in the trenches to the American troops in the Revolutionary War, Dr. Chown said:

"We are fighting today for the same things that your ancestors fought for in your war for independence and in your civil war. We are fighting to maintain the principles of democracy, and to make sure that government of the people, by the people and for the people shall not perish from the earth." Dr. Chown said the present war has been responsible for a great moral awakening among the allied nations. Selfishness, he said, had been erased. The old aristocracy is being broken down and the world is drawing nearer to the true spirit of brotherhood.

"Times like these create great and sanctified men," Dr. Chown said. "Had it not been for the strength and the spirit of Christ in the bosoms of the British people at the commencement of this struggle, our nation would have faced inevitable destruction and the crack of its doom would have been heard around the world. Our confidence in such men as Lloyd George and Mr. Asquith is due to the fact that we know them to be consecrated to the cause of righteousness."

It seems that the suggestion that Sir Wilfrid Laurier be asked to serve on the National Service Board emanated from Sir Thomas Tait. Before the suggestion could be acted upon by Sir Robert Borden, Sir Thomas discovered that the government was seeking to make the National Service Board a party affair, and promptly resigned his position as chairman. The government named as his successor Mr. R. B. Bennett, a Conservative member of Parliament, whom it can count on to play the game of politics. Now Sir Wilfrid is being condemned by the rabid Conservative press for refusing to serve under Mr. Bennett.

Commenting on a telegram forwarded to Sir Sam Hughes by the O. C. the 236th Battalion, in which Sir Sam was referred to as "Canada's foremost statesman and chiefest fighting man," the Conservative Chatham World says: "Treason! Rank Treason! 'Canada's foremost statesman,' indeed! 'Chiefest fighting man!' Nonsense. He 'has proved himself to be an organizer of fighting men, but has not figured as a fighting man to any extent in a military sense. The brilliant young commander of the Kilties should not 'use language with so little regard to its meaning.'"

Writs have been issued for two local by-elections in the constituencies of Regina and Kinistino, Saskatchewan. The new Premier, Hon. Mr. Martin, will stand for Regina and Hon. Mr. Dunning will be tendered the Liberal nomination in Kinistino.

Through Our Sieve

On your way, October.

Whadda yuh kno—November!

October tore itself away with a ripping sound.

Do your Christmas shopping—and chopping—early.

In the delicate art of buckwheat caking, don't disturb the cook.

"Autumn maidens to be more beautiful!" Is it possible?

The high price of flour has given buckwheat her old place in the sun.

Steam roller ran away in St. John. Some slow town, that, when a steam roller can exceed the speed limit.

If you have to oil your brain to make your thoughts flow freely, don't use fusel oil.

After you've decided what to get at Christmas for grandmother, the rest seems to be mere child's play.

Some of the fellows who are being decorated at the front don't look a bit like movie heroes.

If the fashion edict that decreed short skirts had only known how many bowlegs were going to be revealed, maybe it would have taken the second thought.

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" Brought The Joy Of Health After Two Years' Suffering

MADAM LAPLANTE
85 St. Rose St., Montreal, April 4th.
"For over two years I was sick and miserable. I suffered from constant Headaches, and had Palpitation of the Heart so badly that I feared I would die. There seemed to be a lump in my stomach and the Constipation was dreadful. I suffered from Pain in the Back and Kidney Disease."

I was treated by a physician for a year and a half and he did me no good at all. I tried "Fruit-a-tives" as a last resort. After using three boxes, I was greatly improved and twelve boxes made me well. Now I can work all day and there are no Headaches, no Palpitation, no Heart Trouble, no Constipation, no Pain or Kidney Trouble and I feel like a new being—and it was "Fruit-a-tives" that gave me back my health."

SIX AMERICANS LOST THEIR LIVES

Berlin, via London, Oct. 31.—The German submarine U-5 has returned safely to a German port, according to an official announcement.

London, Oct. 31.—Six Americans were killed in the sinking of the British steamer Marina, according to a telegram received by American Consul Frost at Queenstown, says the Press Association. The telegram declared that fifty-one Americans had been saved.

The Americans reported killed, the Press Association says, were two men named Brown, two named Thomas, one named Middleton, and one named Robertson. Men named Miller and Davis, it is added, were injured.

Consul Frost has arranged to take the depositions of twenty-eight American survivors, who have proceeded to Dublin. Thirty-four additional survivors, including 15 Americans, are expected to arrive at Cork tonight.

An Exchange Telegraph despatch from Skibbereen, where some of the survivors of the Marina have arrived, says that the steamer was attacked by two submarines.
