OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

Grape Sherbet.

Grape sherbet is especially appetizing served in frosted glass cups. To make it, use three pounds of Concord grapes, three lemons, three pints water, and three cups sugar. The grapes should be put in a granite saucepan after they are washed, mashed and freed from all juice. The juice should be measured and mixed with an equal quantity of water, the juice of the lemons and the sugar. Then the mixture should be frozen and when it is half done the whites of two eggs, beaten stiff should be mixed in.

Cereal Meat Cakes.

Make a corn meal mush in the usual way, using about one quart water well salted (one teaspoon); stir in one cup yellow corn meal and cook in double boiler about one hour. When done stir in one to one and a half cups of chopped cold meat (any kind) and season slightly with sage. Pour into pans and when cold slice and fry in bacon drippings or butter.

Chocolate Cake.

Two cups powdered sugar, half cup butter, three eggs, half cup of milk, three cups flour, three teaspoons baking powder and two squares chocolate. Cream the butter, sugar and yolks of eggs beaten stiff, then flour, beat hard, add the chocolate, previously dissolved in half a cup of water or milk. Use white icing of sugar and water.

Pear Preserves.

One-half bushel of pears, not too ripe, and one peck of tart apples. Peel, core and cut into quarters. Boil apples as you would for sauce. Drain off the juice through a colander and stir the pulp. Add one quart of water and five pounds of granulated sugar and boil to a thick sirup.

Cut the pears into pieces the size of dice and boil in the sirup until tender, adding two sliced lemons and two sliced oranges. Last of all, add two pounds of seeded raisins and two pounds of dates, which have been pitted. These should not be boiled long. Cook fruit until thick. Put in glass jars boiling hot and seal.

Slants of Humor

HISTORY REPEATS

When I was calling on my wife
In happy days of yore
I must have marred her father's life
And been an awful bore.

A youngster calls upon our girl.
I use him as a test,
I do not want to be a churl
But really he's a pest.

I guess I pestered my wife's dad
But the old man was game.
He put up with a pesky lad,
I ought to do the same.

HIS TROUBLE

"There is no head to a round table."
"Wish I could get up a vaudeville program on those principles," said the harassed manager. "I have no end of trouble with performers who want to head the bill."

THE QUICKEST WAY

The dance was in aid of some fund or other; but that didn't make it any more interesting to Simpkins, who was clearly in the last stages of boredom.

"Wish I could get my wife to go home," he grumbled to a friend; "but she won't leave till after the last dance."
"I can tell you how to do it," replied his friend.

"How?" asked Simpkins, eagerly.
"It's simple. Just you dance three times in succession with that pretty girl over there in the pale blue dress, and your wife will take you home in a hurry."

TOO MUCH "ANNIE LAURIE"
At a certain hotel, where soldiers blinded in the war are being trained in means to gain livelihood, there are concerts almost every day. Some of these are given by the soldiers themselves. One day this week, says the London Sketch, the works superintendent was surprised to see three soldiers busily occupied in the workshop while a concert was in progress. They explained: "We may be blind, we might be paralyzed, but we're not deaf, and we don't want to hear any more 'Annie Laurie' for a bit."

LITERAL

A London wholesale provision house which prides itself on filling all orders correctly, received a letter from a provincial customer recently, complaining bitterly of the very poor quality of the last two lots of eggs supplied.

The reputation of the house for never making an error seemed to be at stake, but the bright mind of the junior partner found a way out of it. He wrote:

"Gentlemen: We are sorry to hear that our consignment did not suit you; that was, however, no mistake on our part. We have looked up your original order, and find that it reads as follows: 'Rush 50 boxes eggs. We want them bad.'"

INTERESTING MARRIAGE CASE IS SETTLED

Sister of Shackleton, the Explorer is Freed from Marriage Bonds by a Canadian Court.

Montreal, Oct. 31.—An interesting marriage case has just been settled in the Superior Court here by Mr. Justice Allard as a result of which Kathleen Shackleton, a sister of Sir Ernest Shackleton, the Arctic explorer, is freed from her marriage to Wilbert E. Edmonson.

The suit was started several weeks ago, and in the meantime, pending judgment, Miss Shackleton, the court decrees, shall retain her maiden name. She is visiting relatives in England.

According to the evidence, the plaintiff was married in Montreal to the defendant on March 31 last, the defendant being described in the marriage certificate as a bachelor. Subsequently the plaintiff learned that the defendant had been married in Winnipeg in 1908 and that his first wife had obtained a divorce against him in one of the western states, which divorce, it was established, was not recognized by the law of Canada.

Judge Allard based his judgment on article 118 of the civil code, which provides that a second marriage cannot be contracted before the dissolution of the first.

We Want Everybody to See the Enterprise Perfect Double High Oven Range

The Range that appeals to every woman. No more bake or cook. It has two large ovens that can be used at the same time with the same fire, hence a great saving in fuel. Both are at the right height to work; are fitted with thermometers have doors to drop level with oven bottoms, and the oven is fitted with a glass door so contents can be seen at a glance opening. The warming closet is double the usual size. The cooking surface is surrounded with Porcelain Enamel, keeping it beautifully clean.

It is full of labor-saving devices, and for comfort, convenience and ease of management surpasses anything ever produced. We cordially invite everyone, whether considering a purchase or not, to come in and look carefully over this splendid specimen of the Stove Makers' skill.

It's something we are proud of and anxious to show. Let us demonstrate it to you. If you cannot call, send for circular.

Enterprise Stoves always give satisfaction.
